

Report doc on alleged pedophile in the Deepwoken community

I would like to start off by saying i was in the Discord server of the Deepwoken guild I Night I, which later rebranded into Mracle. After I realized that they had a pedophile in their guild, I left and cut my ties with them. Most of the screenshots in here are not recorded in a video as I have left the server myself, and other server members who I got the screenshots from couldn't record the messages in video form as some of them were deleted; with the server later on getting completely deleted as well. The screenshots aren't in order, and some were taken during different time frames. The pedophile got banned by Katsu multiple times and got re-invited, but was unbanned & reinvited to the server with Katsu's admin permissions being taken away.

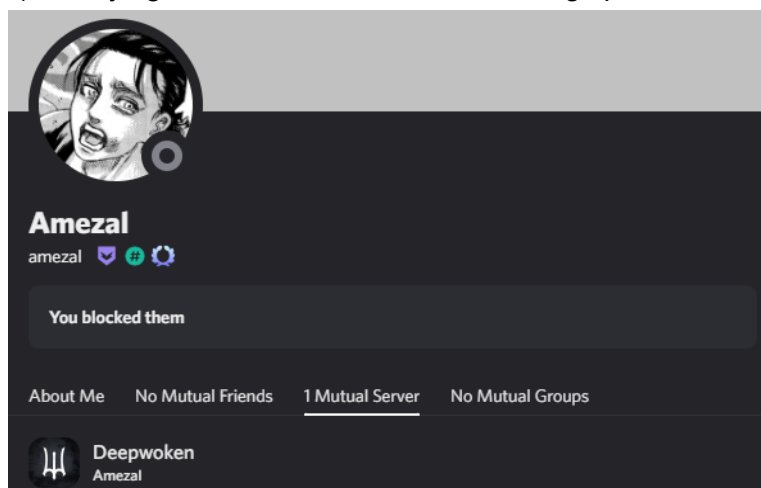

This doc is mainly about the alleged pedophile, his profiles:

discord: amezal, id 1077070739666116628 / Roblox: amezai, profile id 1669984348

discord alt: amezal2, id 1297249574523764860

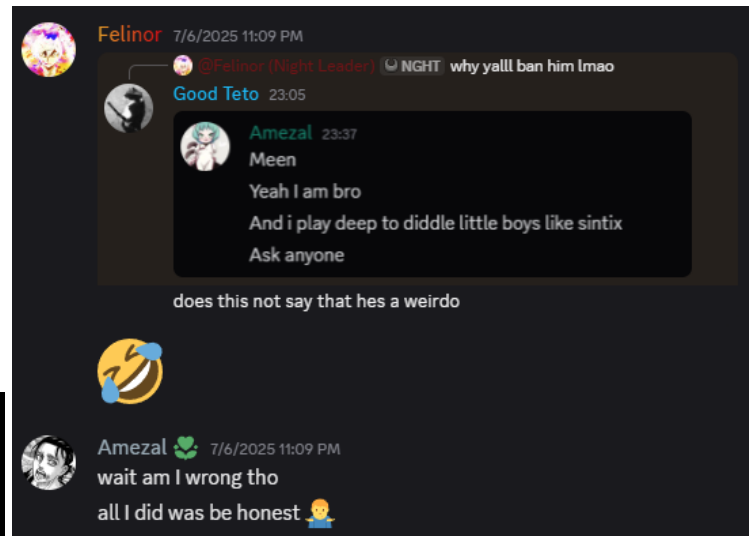

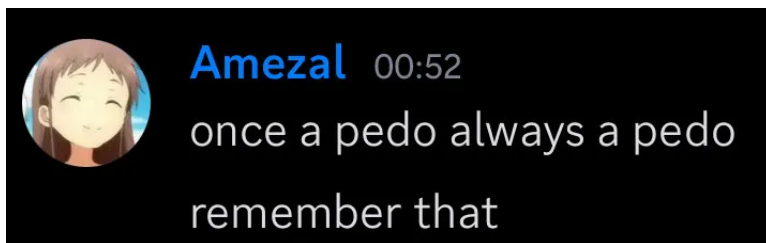

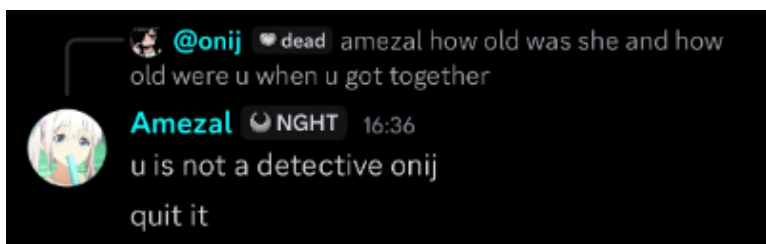

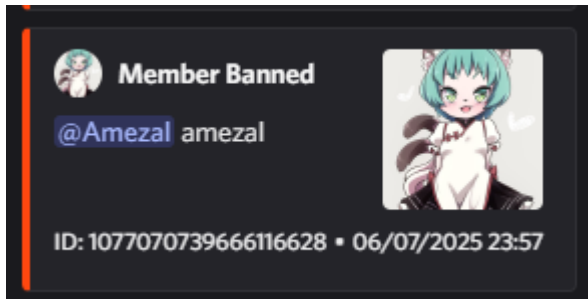

However his guildmates and leader were also defending him while saying they were "ragebaiting". I will talk about 3 main allegations in this document, being:

- 1) Being in a relationship and receiving nudes from a 14 year old girl
- 2) Doxxing said minor after she broke up with him, distributing her pictures
- 3) Glorifying loli hentai and media containing cp, as well as sharing content related to it

He has had 3 different questionable profile pictures before presumably swapping his profile picture against the allegations

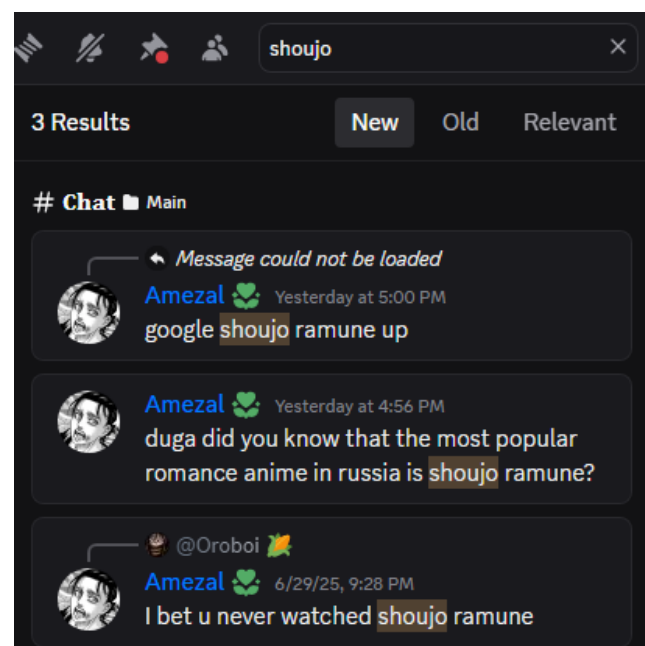

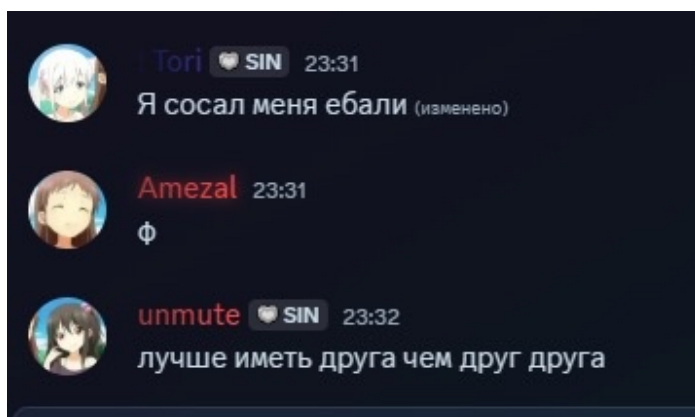

(Additional Context: The first screenshot is from when he was banned from my server before the allegations for acting weird, with the message that got him banned being below.)

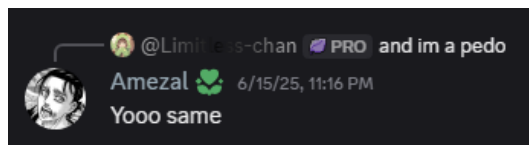

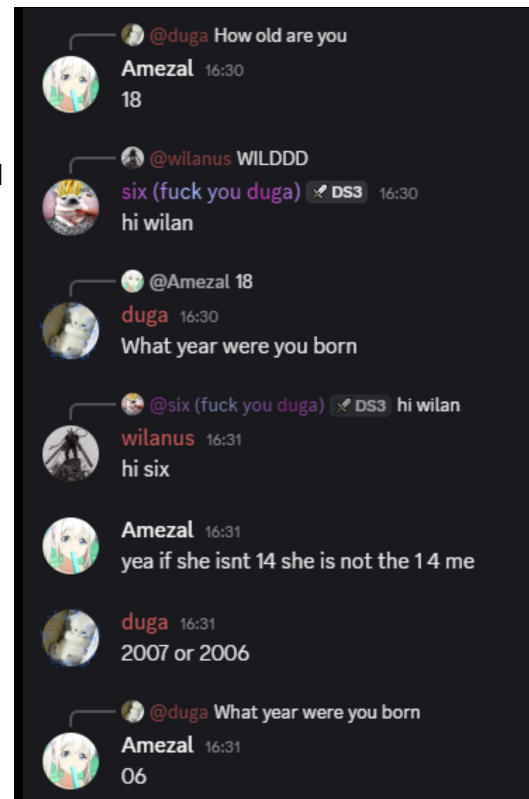

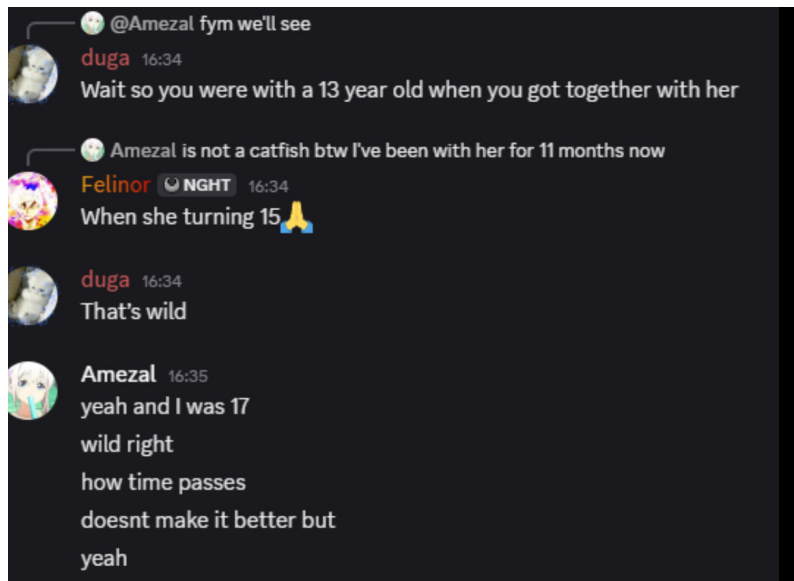

The screenshot sent by Good Teto got taken in my server before Amezal was banned, which is Amezal saying he plays deep to "diddle little boys like sintix" which was my lieutenant at the time. Felinor asked him about Amezal's ban shortly after. The second screenshot that was sent by Felinor was in Mracle's server.

He has mentioned the name of the anime as well, which is shoujo ramune; where the 2nd and 3rd profile pictures are from. It is loli hentai with one of the sub-genres being rape. He also has mentioned this anime multiple times, effectively glorifying and spreading it.

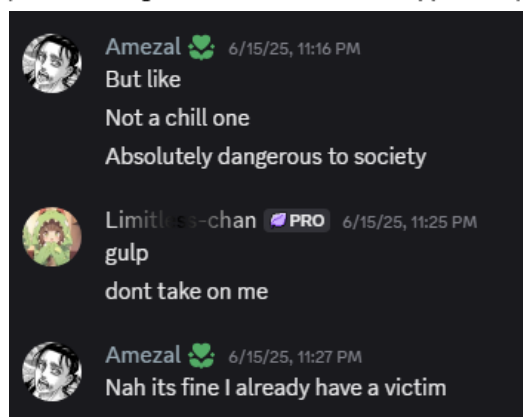

He was matching the 3rd pfp with 2 other people from his new guild Sinful Wings. However i have no proof on them doing anything else or anything wrong. However they are allied with Mracle, and some of them are in the Mracle Discord.

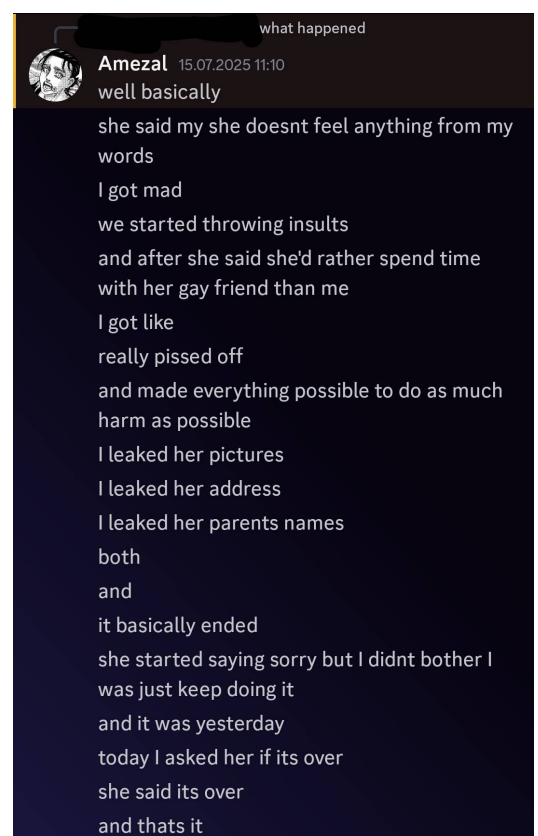

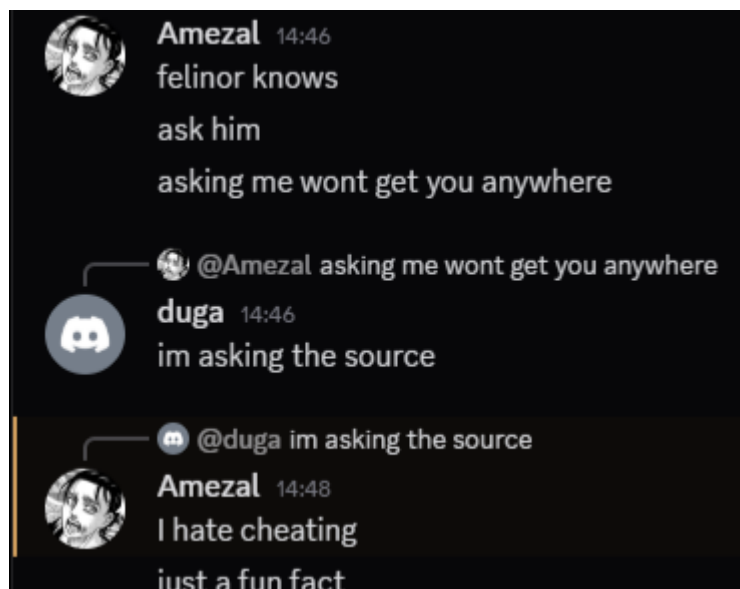

He has also admitted to being in a relationship with a 14 year old while he was 18 years old on multiple occasions, this being one.

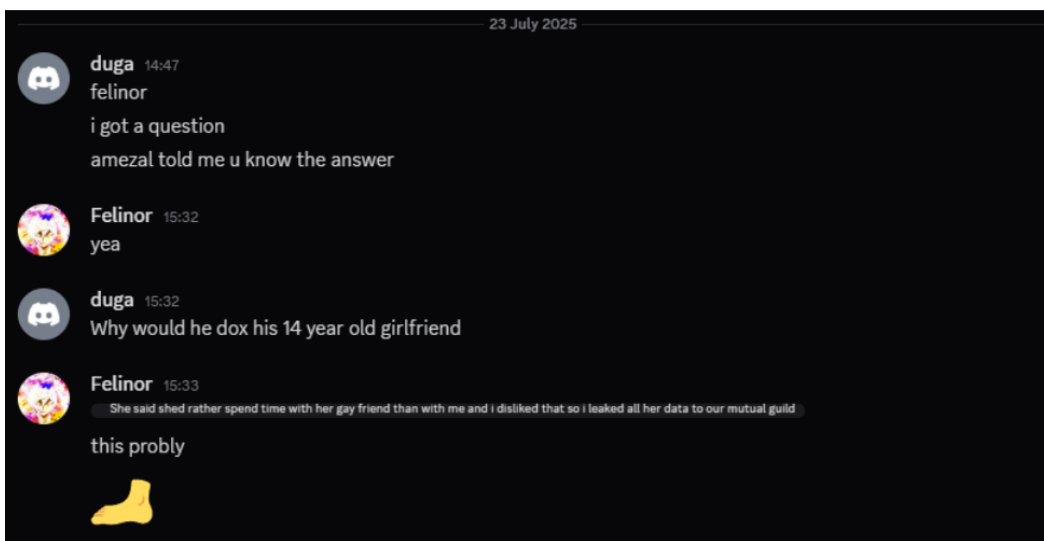

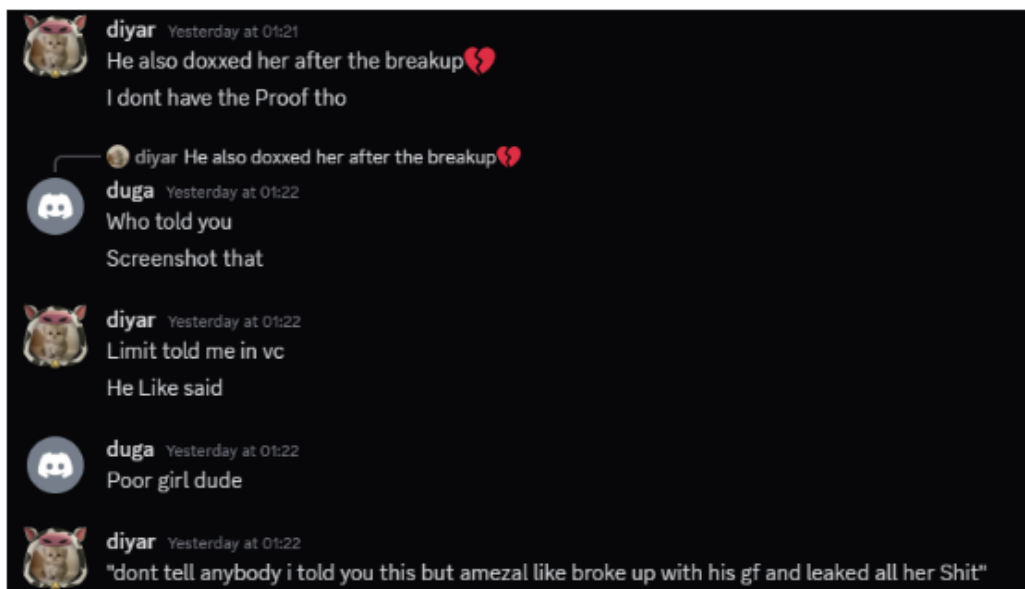

(there was a gif in between that was cropped out.)

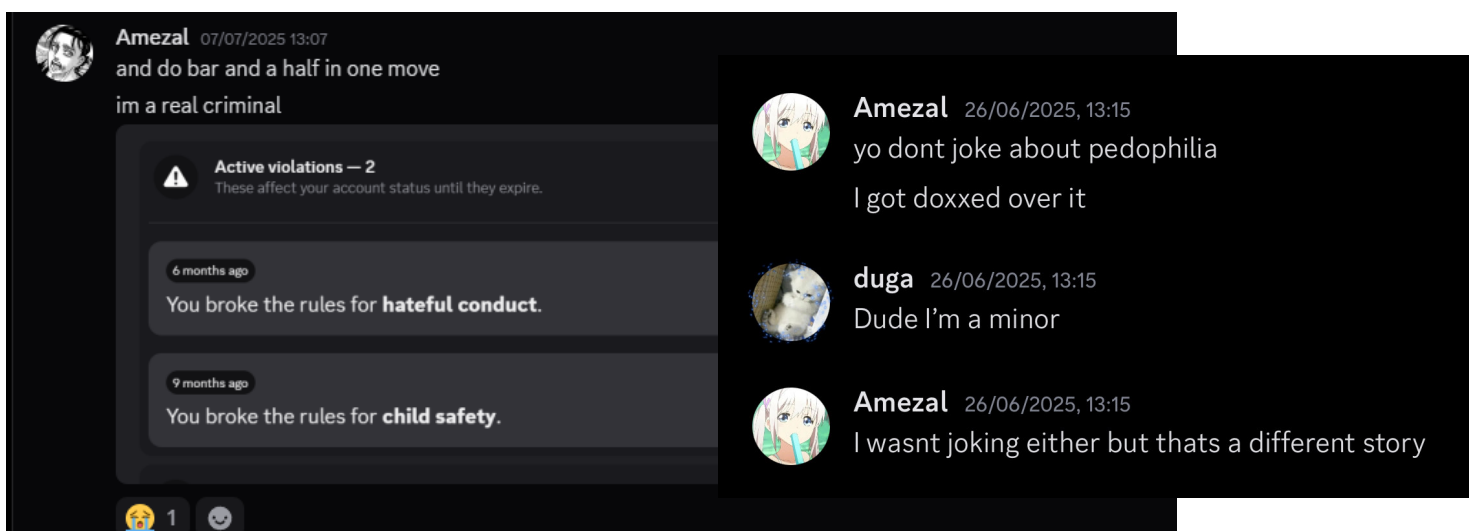

This is another instance of the many times where he has openly said he was a pedophile, and also having a victim, being his 14 year old girlfriend that he later broke up with. To add on top of that, Limitless (Mracle guild co-leader and lieutenant) has also later told diyar in vc that when Amezal broke up with his girlfriend, he has allegedly doxxed her as well. Another person who asked to stay anonymous has also sent an image of Amezal admitting to doxxing her. Amezal himself has not denied any of these allegations, seen by the image to the down left.

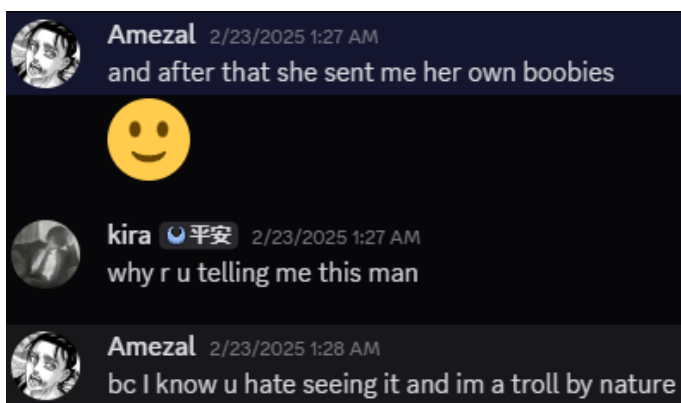

Text in the last screenshot reads out: "She said shed rather spend time with her gay friend than with me and i disliked that so i leaked all her data to our mutual guild.", possibly talking about I Night I here) which also matches him saying "he hates cheating".

He has also came out stating that he "got doxxed for pedophilia once", also saying that he's "a real criminal" about him getting a warning on Discord about child safety.

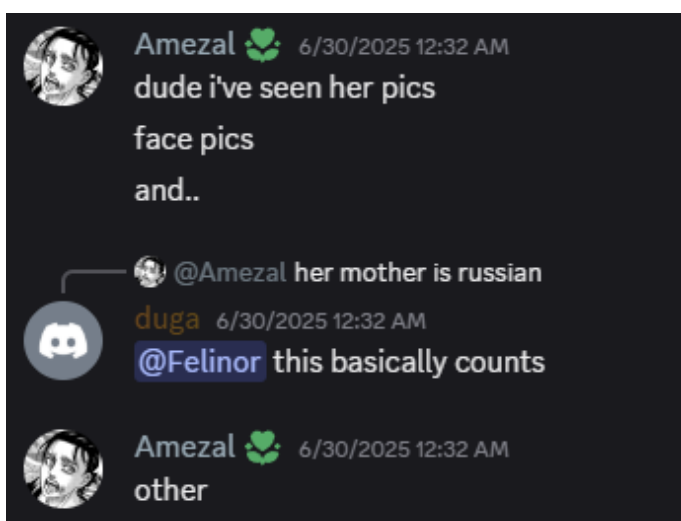

Another screenshot of him admitting here that he knows his relationship (18 & 14 yo) is illegal, yet he's also saying that he "can't stop talking about it" and taking pride in being a pedophile.

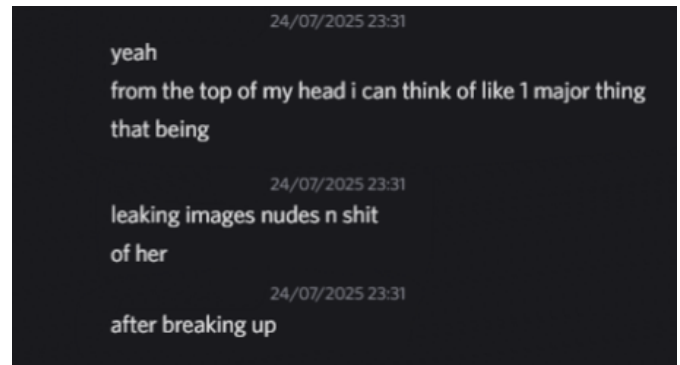

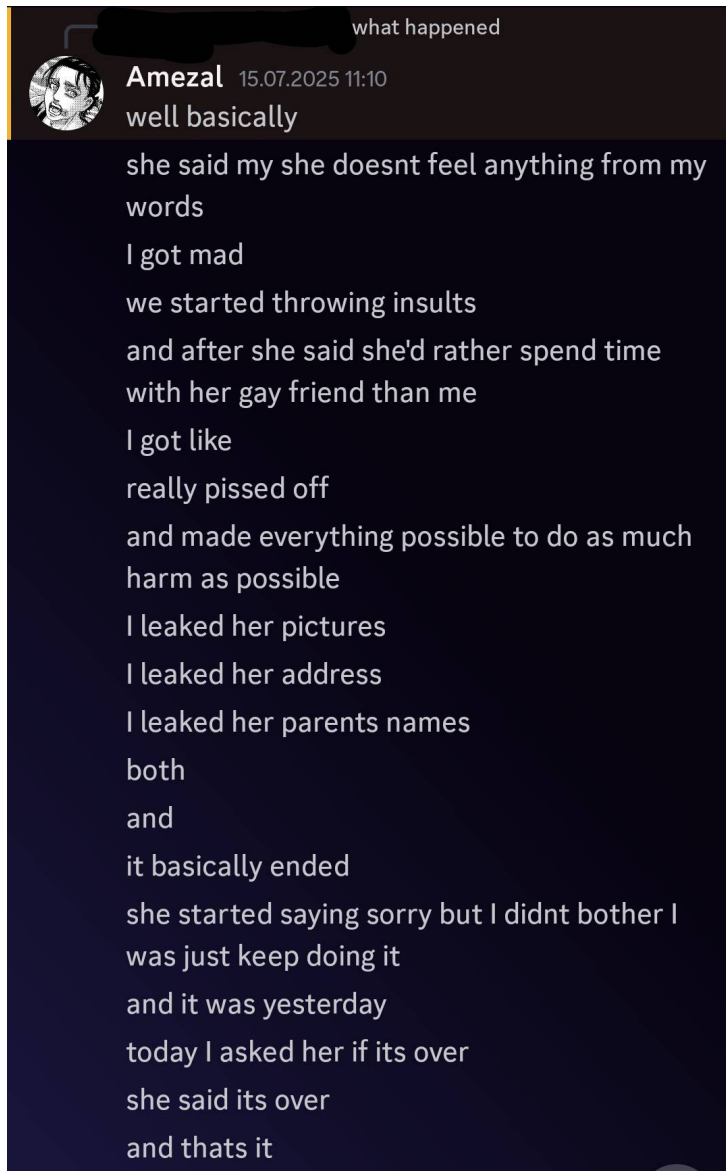

The 14 year old that he was in a relationship has allegedly sent him nudes. Kira has also had dms with Amezal saying he has "received her boobies", and he has later said that at a later date he has "seen her face pics and.. other" in the Mracle server as well which backs it up.

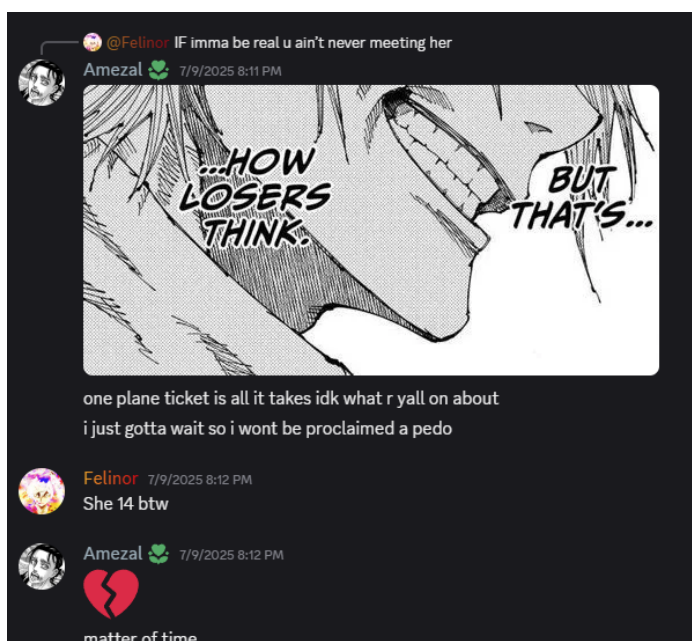

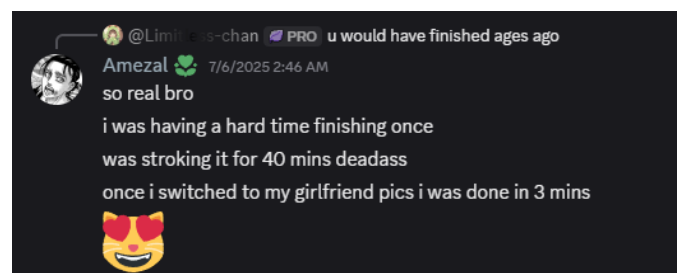

There are also instances of him telling people that both him, and also his gf being into the previously mentioned loli hentai, which is also backed from a screenshot in the Mracle server. In this specific screenshot he also says that she “told him her other hair’s color” which indicates that he could possibly be sexting with her as well.

While the relationship was still going, Amezal got mad after she said she would rather spend time with someone else than him. This led to the relationship breaking apart which then led to him doxxing her. He has leaked her pictures, address and both parents' names to "do as much harm as possible". Someone has also said that among her pictures, there were alleged nudes as well, but they wanted their name to be blurred for their privacy.

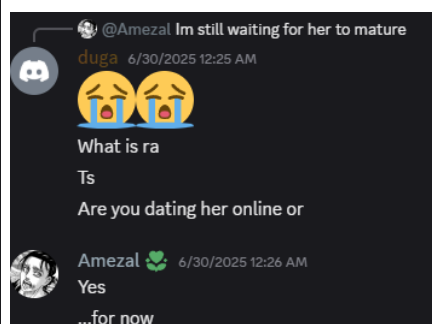

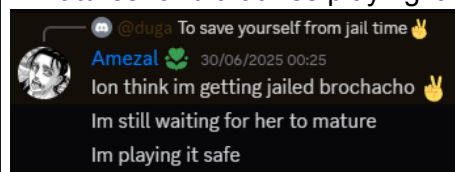

(messages in between were cropped and the name-pfp was taken out)

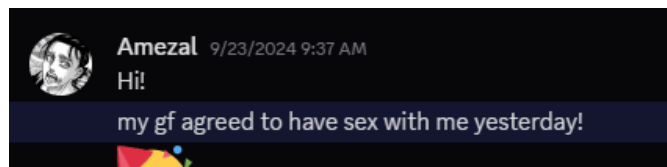

There is also another screenshot with context being jerking off, where he says "he was having a hard time finishing once" and then he later says that "when he switched to his gf's pics he was done in 3 mins". Basically admitting to receiving nudes from a minor, jerking off to a minor's nudes, and then later doxxing said minor when their relationship was over.

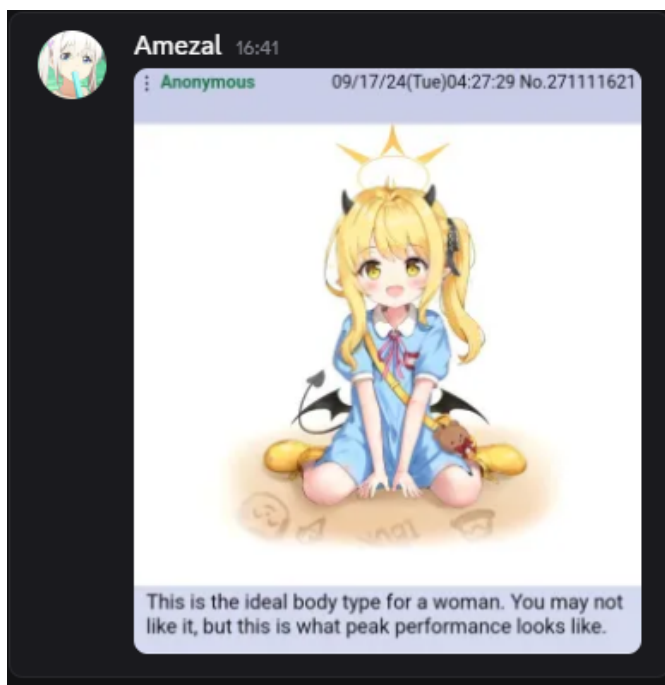

He has also said multiple times that he was going to see her irl when she "matures" and that hes playing it safe.

There's also a screenshot of him convincing a minor to have sex.

He has also sent many images either defending pedophilia, images simping for lolis, images defending that “the ideal woman physique” is more akin to younger women and two images referencing the game series Black Souls. Which is a dark rpg game that includes elements on heavy topics. Some of these topics being but not limited by: rape, pedophilia, zoophilia, incest, sex slavery and necrophilia.

Text on the 4th image reads out: “It’s so comforting to be held by an adult. His strong arms holding you. His broad chest supporting you. His gentle hands caressing you. His loving whispers praising you. His caring presence calming you. His warm body enveloping you. Pedophiles make you feel safe.” In which he is defending pedophilia.

so you should know that you dont really have to be "mature enough" to date someone love is a thing that keeps yall together tightly even if theres a big difference in you

Amezal 6/27/2025 1:43 PM

holy shit bethesda devs cannot make appealing children

thats one ugly maggot

Amezal 7/7/2025 1:06 AM

being happy

fitting into society

The character in the image is Alice from Black Souls 2, which is meant to be your daughter, sister or mother. The 11 year old being the daughter, and the 18 year old being the sister. Which assuming the game's nature probably has explicit scenes for all 3 versions of Alice

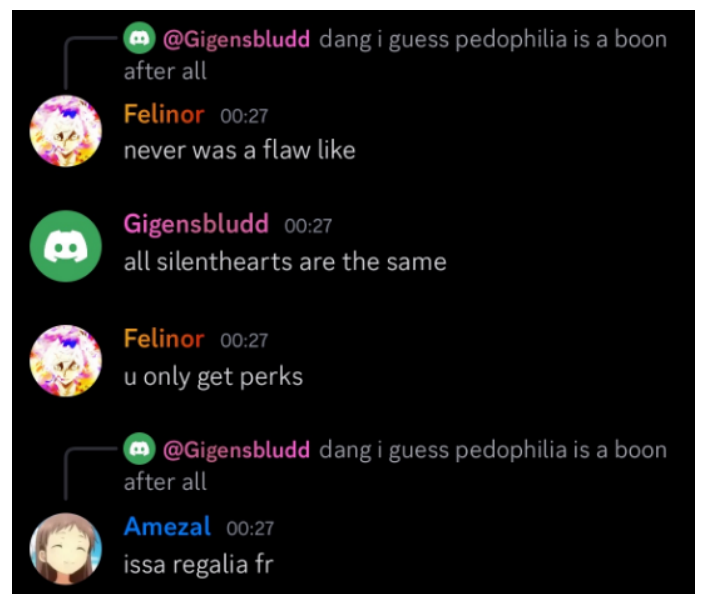

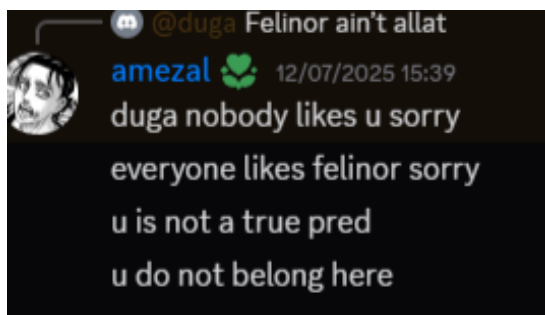

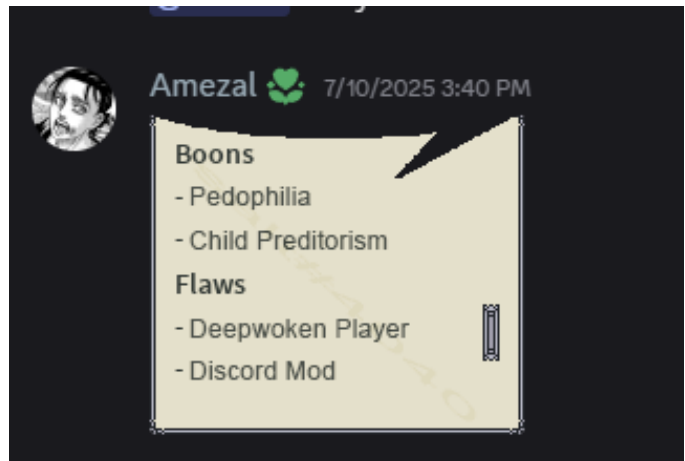

Amezal 7/11/2025 1:21 PM

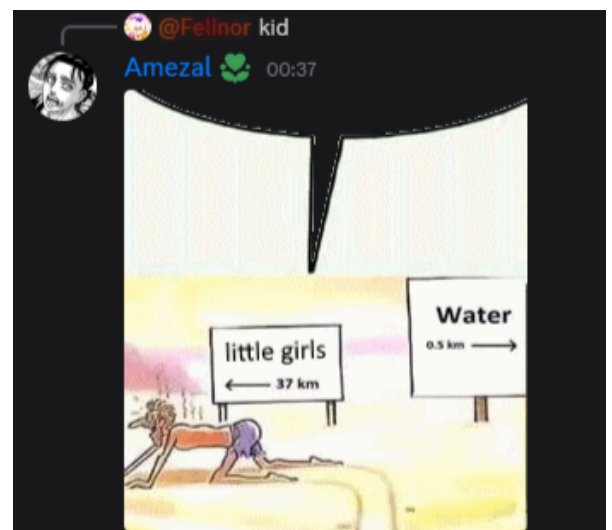

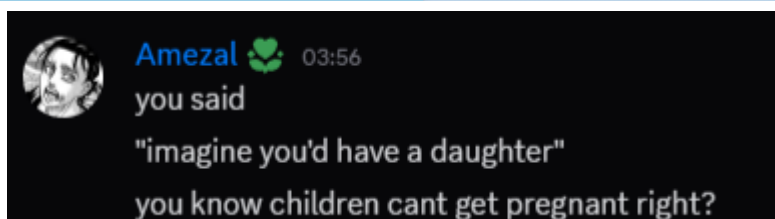

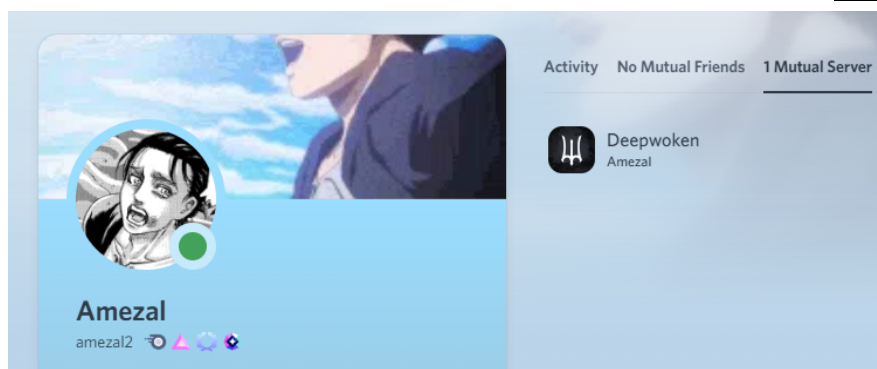

Another image of a character from Black Souls, so he is fully aware of the games nature and what hes posting.

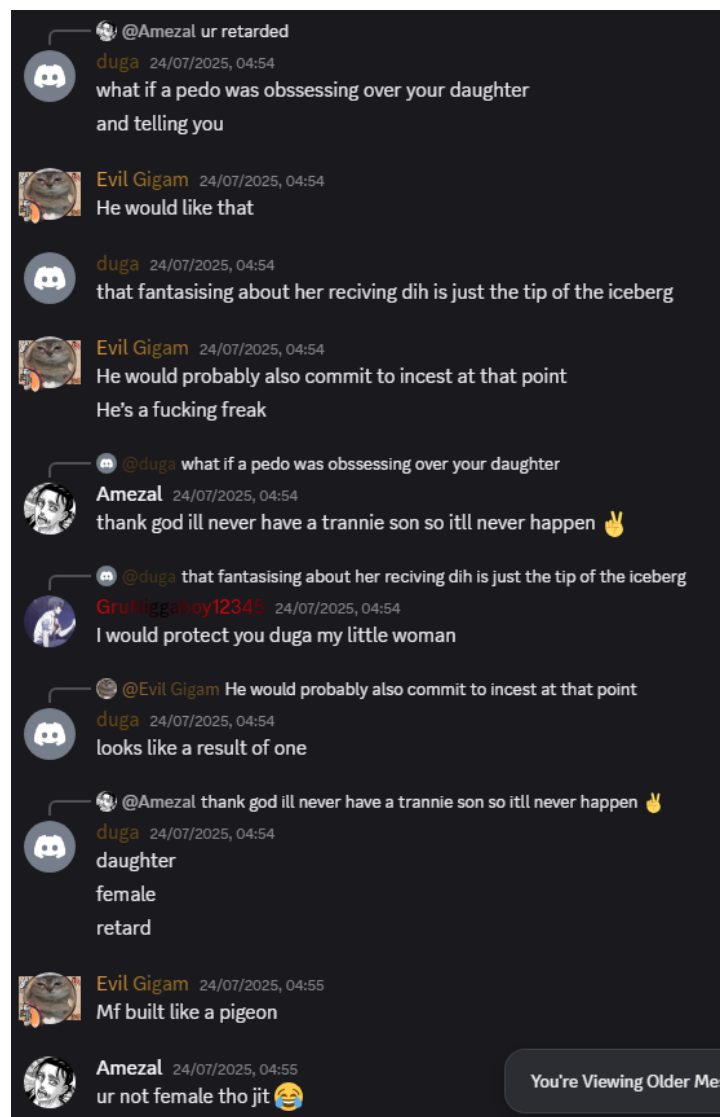

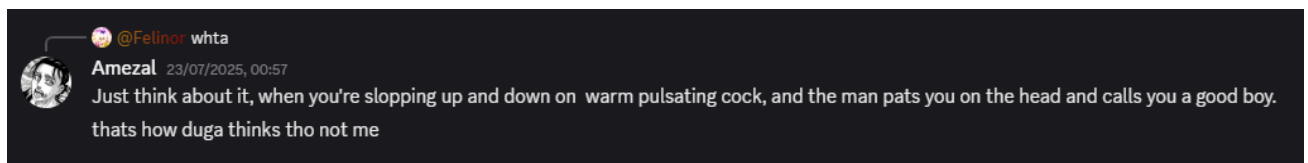

Once again, using lolicon terminology and simping for lolis and also him defending that pedophilia is a boon, and a regalia in another instance.

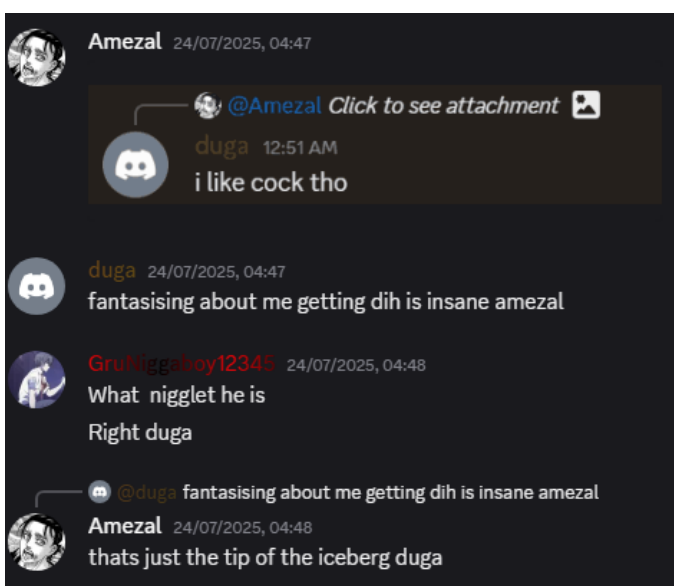

I have later also found out that he has an alt on Discord, named @amezal2 (id: 1297249574523764860)

There also was an instance where Amezal was acting weird in Mracle, mainly towards duga because she was also helping me with the document. Despite duga being 14 and her saying she isn't going to be his new victim, and telling him that hes weird he still doesn't stop.

Hes also being transphobic here, despite duga not even being transgender.

MRACLE (I Night I at the time) DEFENDING AMEZAL

There are 4 people who have mainly defended Amezal, being:

Guild leader Felinor - Discord id: 1094222631525437491 - Roblox: kruskawa

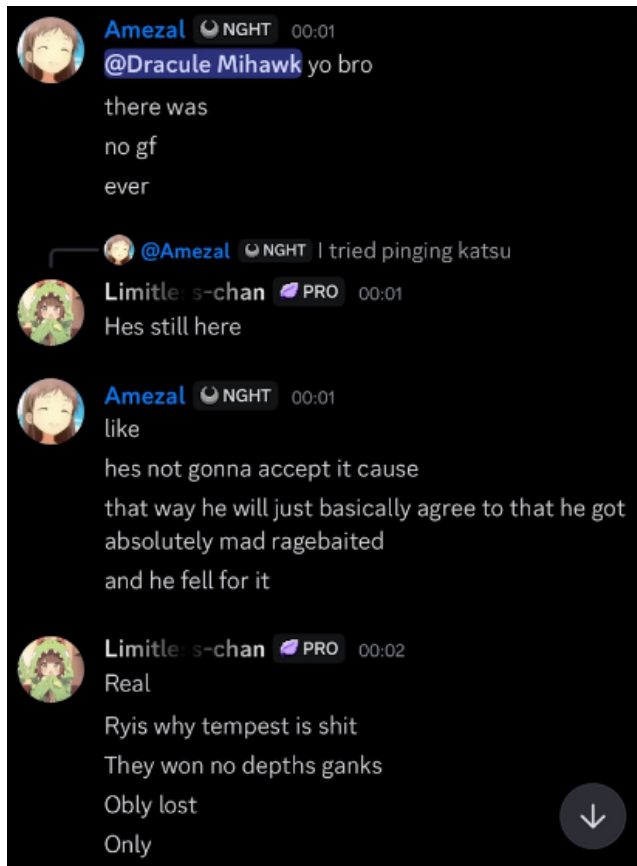

Guild co-leader Limitless - Discord id: 1342989944184111104 - Roblox: jetstrikergothmommy

Guild member/admin SG - Discord id: 1148683754731229274 - Roblox: sGcuZ101

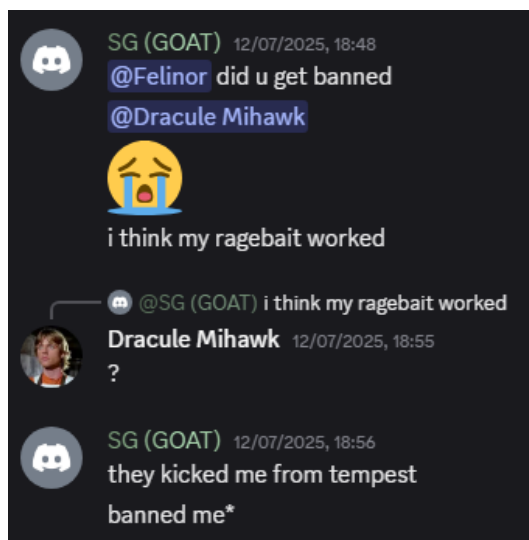

*SG's alt account - Discord id: 699261330418565230 - Roblox: Asianpr0_IPS

Guild member/admin Orobi - Discord id: 858980304231989259 - Roblox: dabtoperfanreeeee

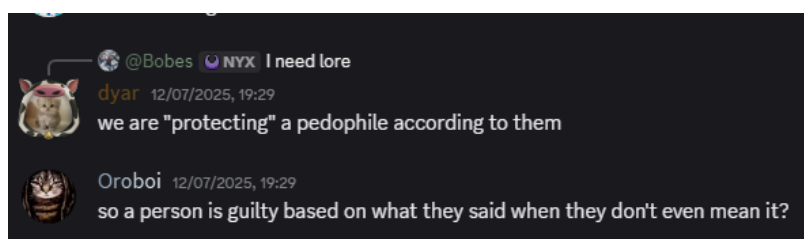

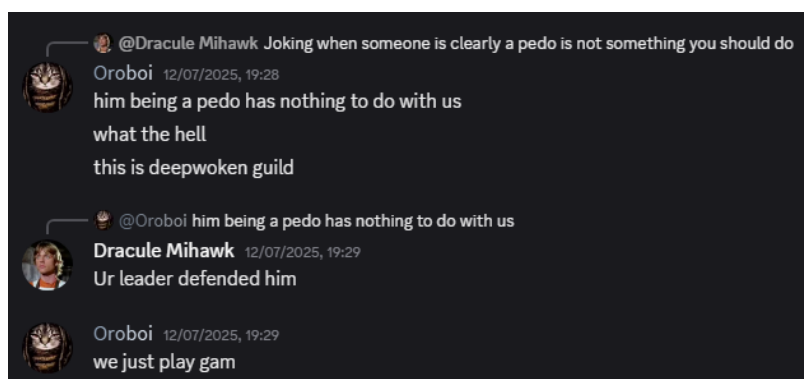

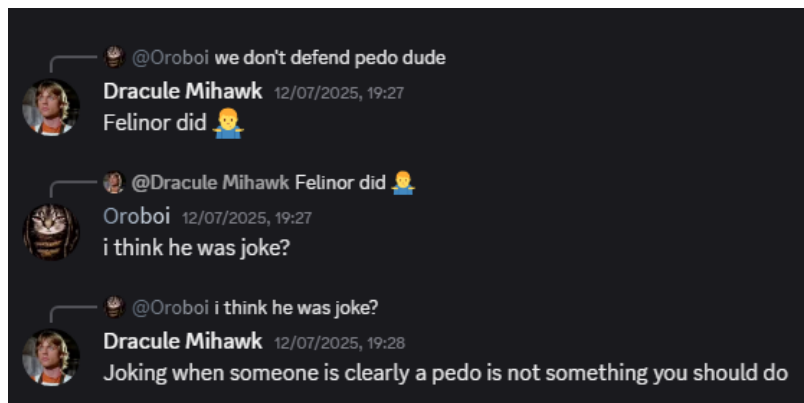

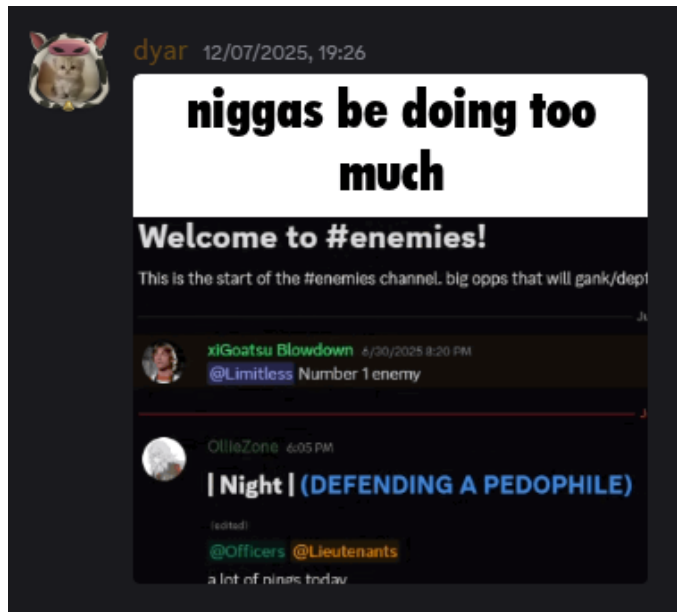

Their main reasoning was that they were "ragebaiting" while they defended a pedophile.

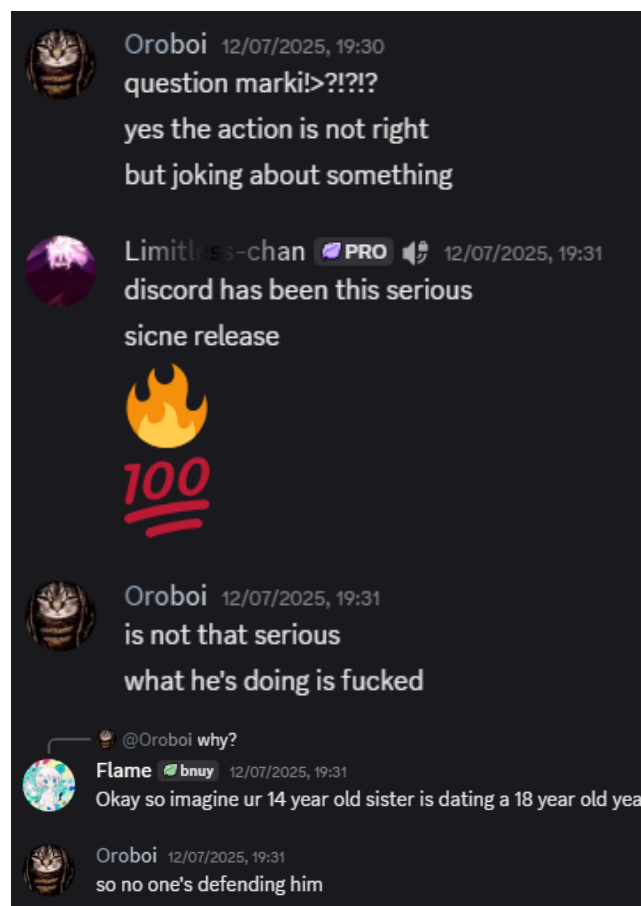

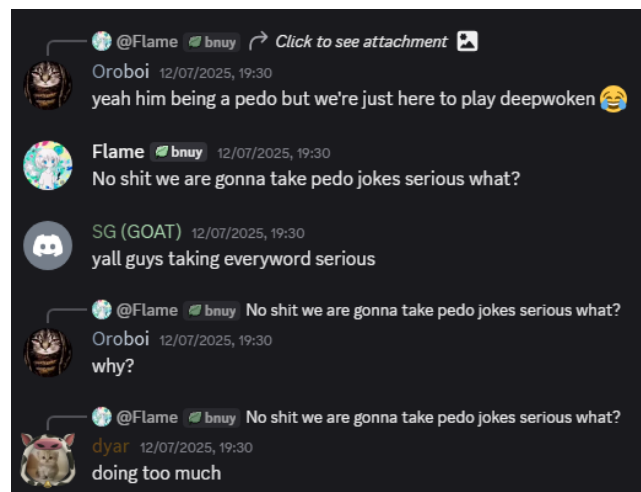

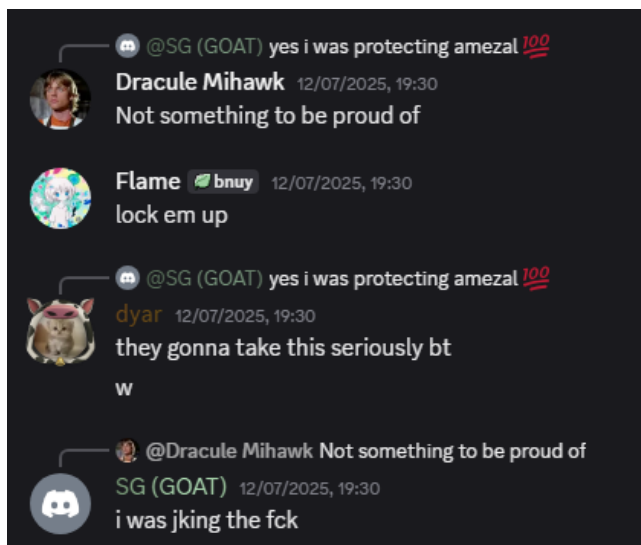

They have tried to convince Dracule Mihawk (Katsu) that there was no gf in the first place, telling him that "it was ragebait" and trying to get themselves out of the situation. The co-leader Limitless has also tried to tie this back to the game to make this seem like a joke to play it off, while they're also saying that they were "ragebaiting" to avoid the situation.

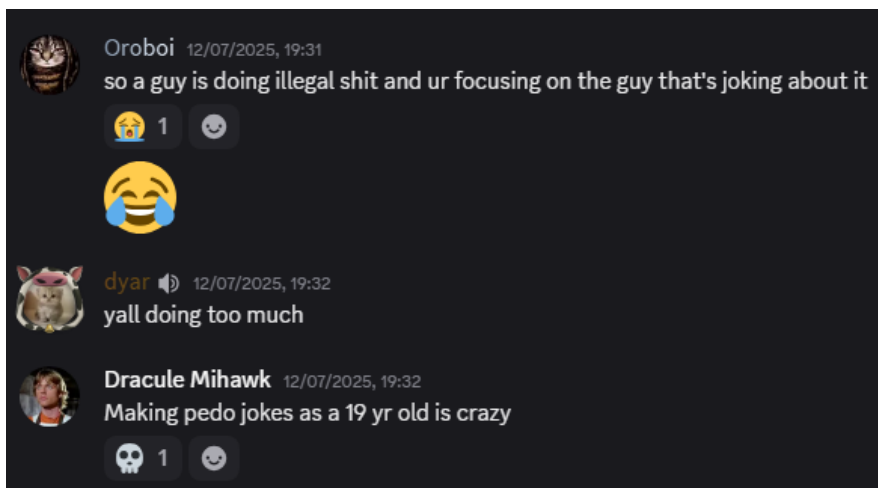

(dyar's Discord id: 1090020498919923742, roblox: diyaranimelaststand4)

Orobi says what Amezal is saying is fucked, but continues to make jokes about it despite this actually being a serious topic.

As an unrelated side note, Based and Igor (two of my lieutenants) have also later said that Orobi was framing them and my guild (Tempest Tides) for having and defending a pedophile, after the allegations regarding Amezal came up. However there are no screenshots for this, since the line was said in a vc.

Once again, him saying that they were joking and stating that “jokes are edgy and shit”

 @Dracule Mihawk Still fucked joking about it

a pedo

Telling me that i am ragebaiting them, just because i am pointing out that they are defending Amezal.

He is still trying to justify unbanning Amezal by saying that he wants to “publicly execute” and shame him, meanwhile he has admin and could ban him to take action.

Oroboi 12/07/2025, 19:43

and u guys are draggibng it to felinor
the whole convo with me

@vbased TETO bros lieu is a pedo and hes out here
ragebaiting

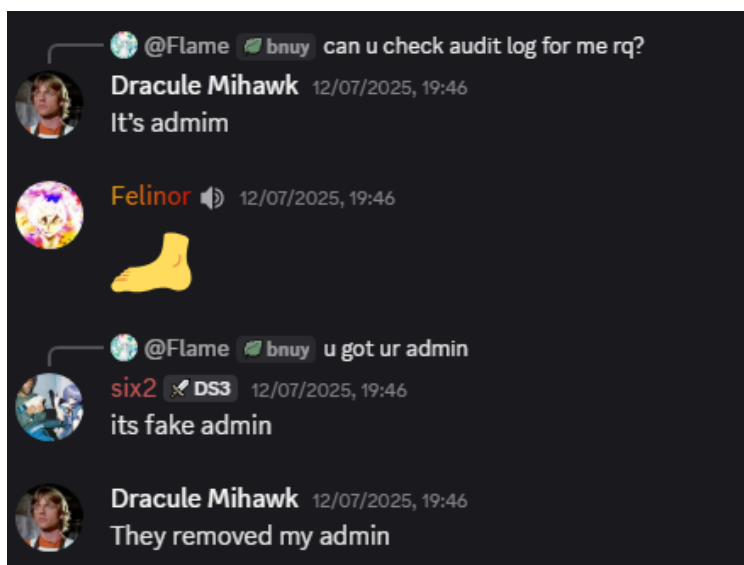

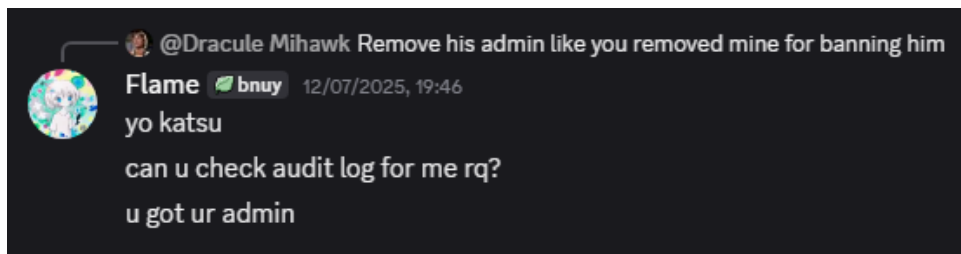

Felinor NGHT 13:00

Dont see how this affecting me

Same excuse again to defend Felinor, which is saying that he is a troll and "shouldnt be taken seriously" even on a topic like pedophilia. On top of that they have also said that he didn't even defend Amezal in the first place, which is a blatant lie.

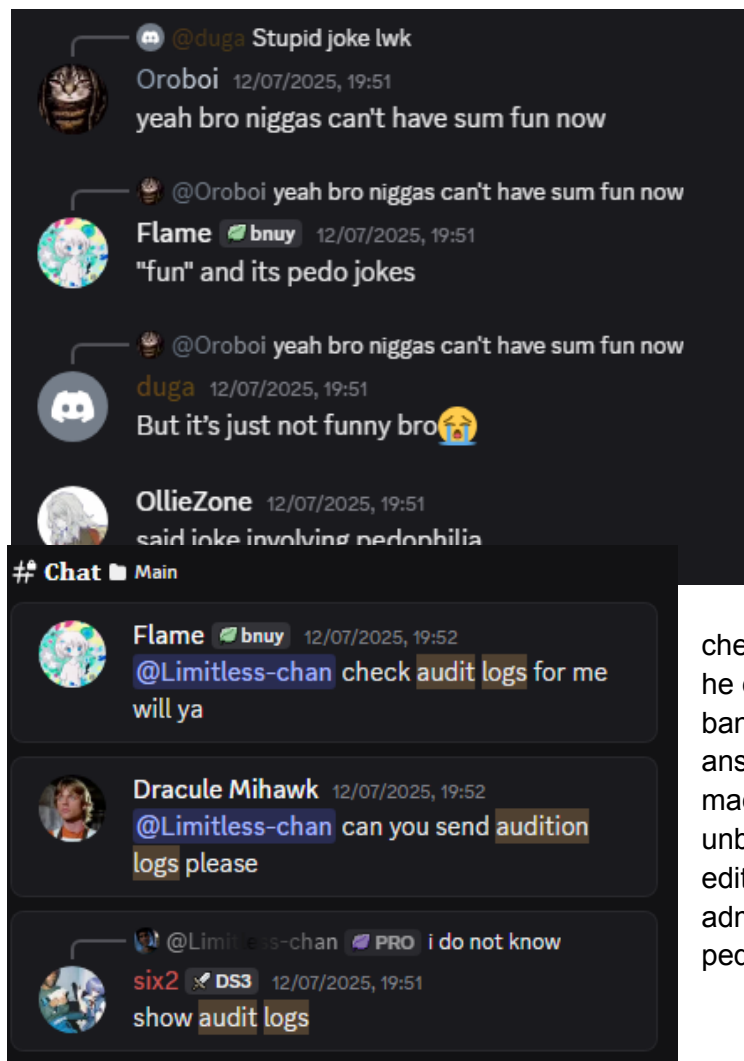

They took Dracule's admin by this point because of him banning Amezal, and trying to get him out. With another reason being that he could check audit logs to see who was doing it.

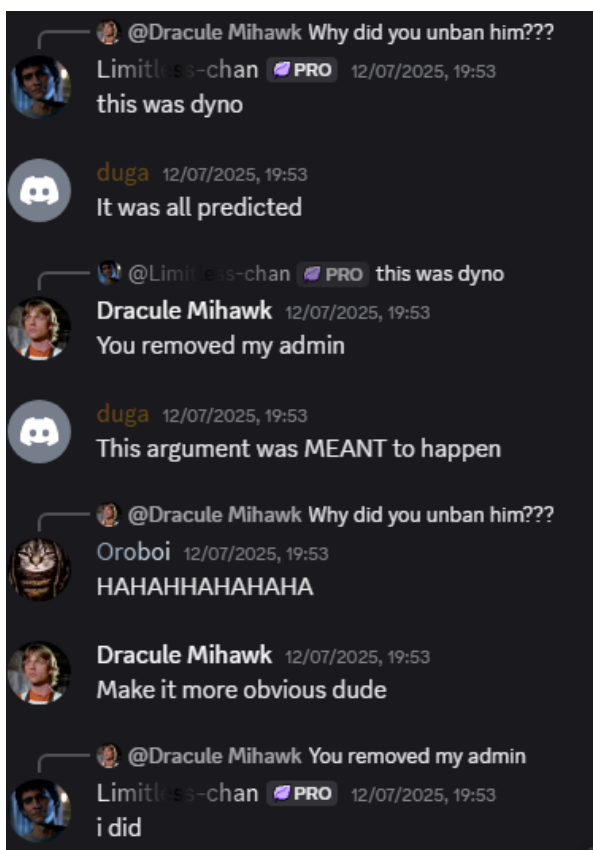

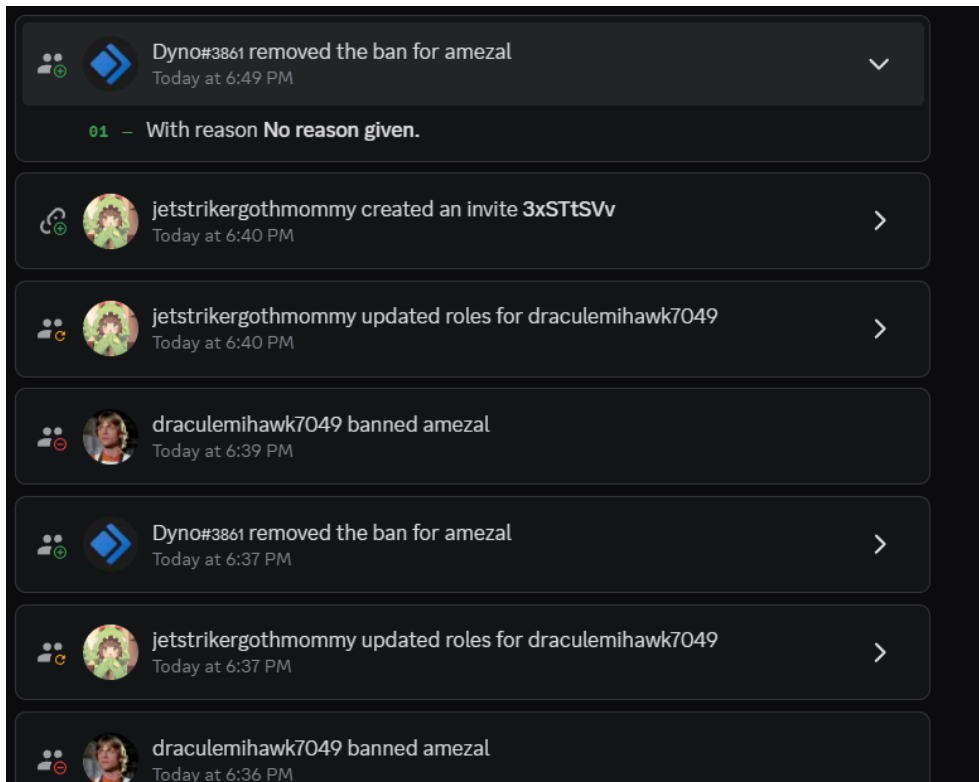

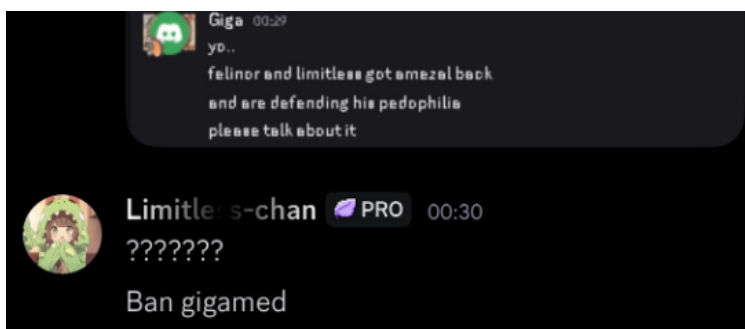

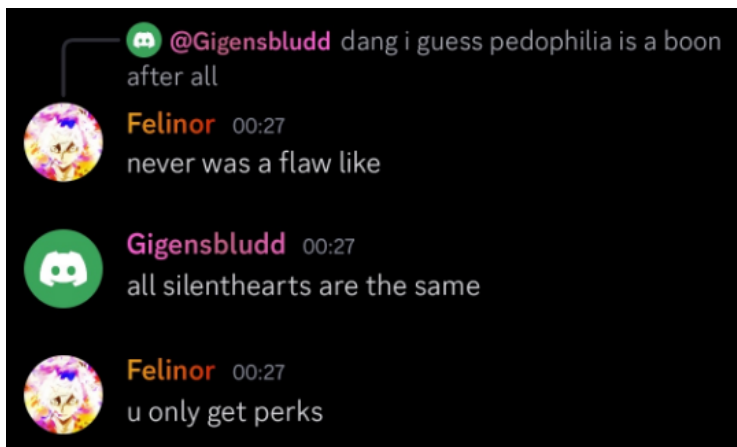

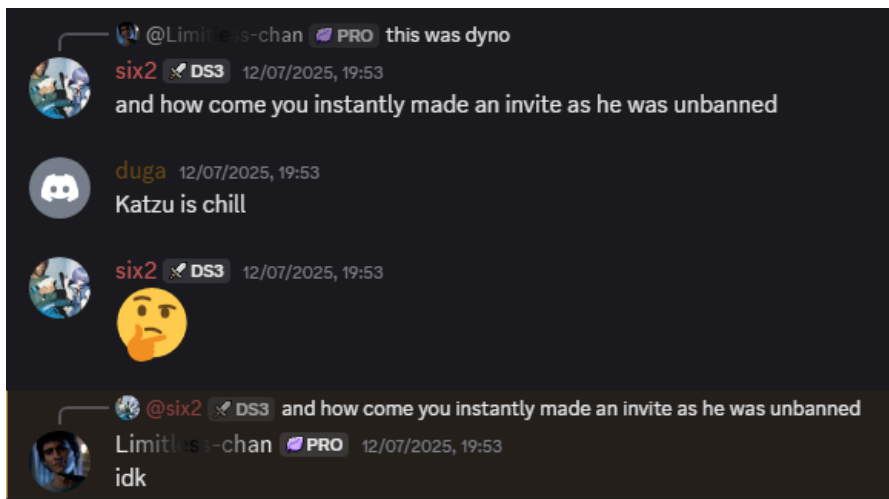

Limitless despite having admin here, instead of taking action about a predator in his guild he says "hes just there to watch".

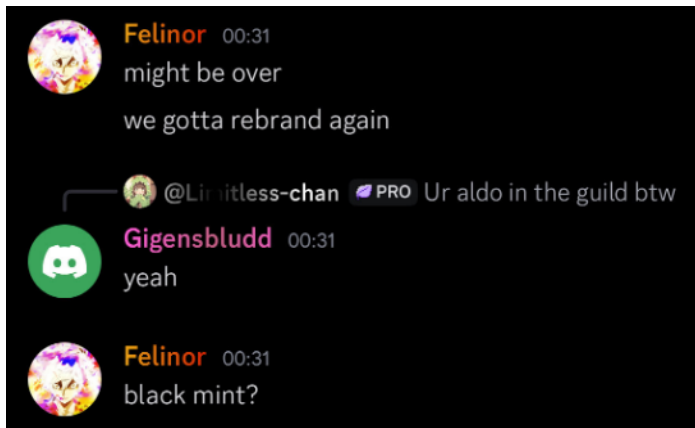

Limitless also keeps his silence here, despite being asked to check the audit log 3 times. And when he does send the audit log, it is dyno banning Amezal so there is no clear answer. On top of this, Limitless has made an invite link before another unban. Dracule's roles were also edited, which is also proof that his admin was taken for trying to ban the pedophile.

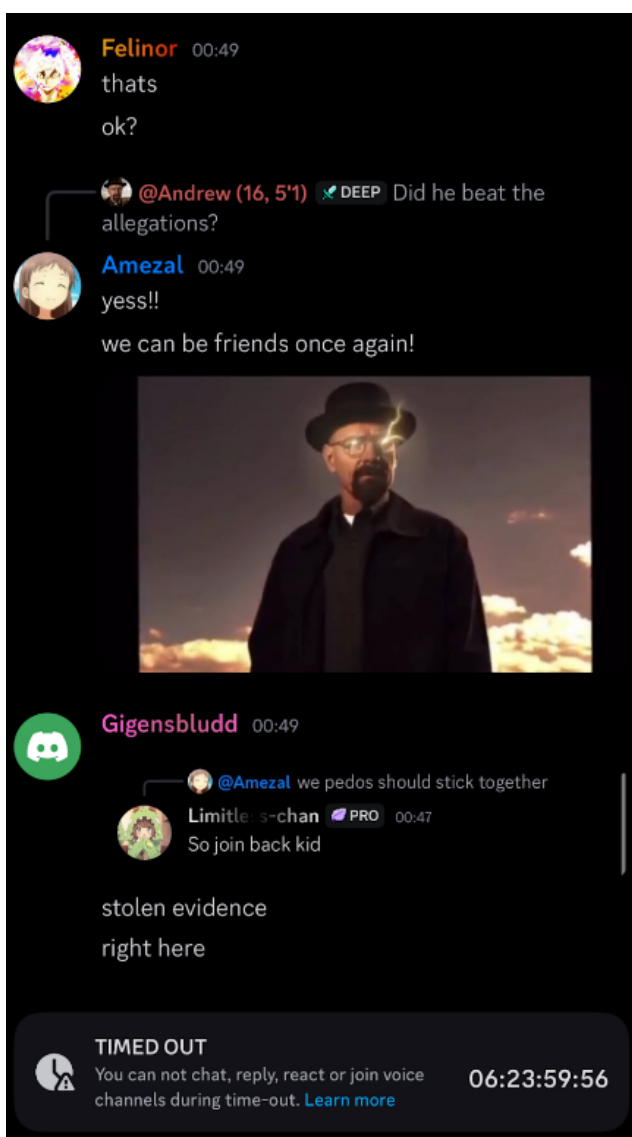

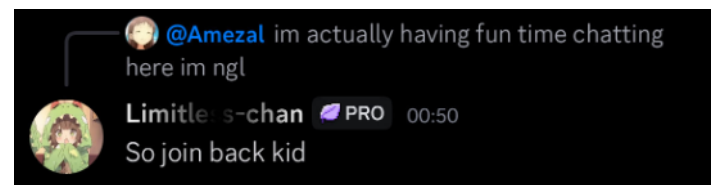

Context: Onij sent a screenshot of Giga saying that Felinor and Limitless got Amezal back, and that they were defending his pedophilia. Which Limitless later replies to by saying "ban Giga"

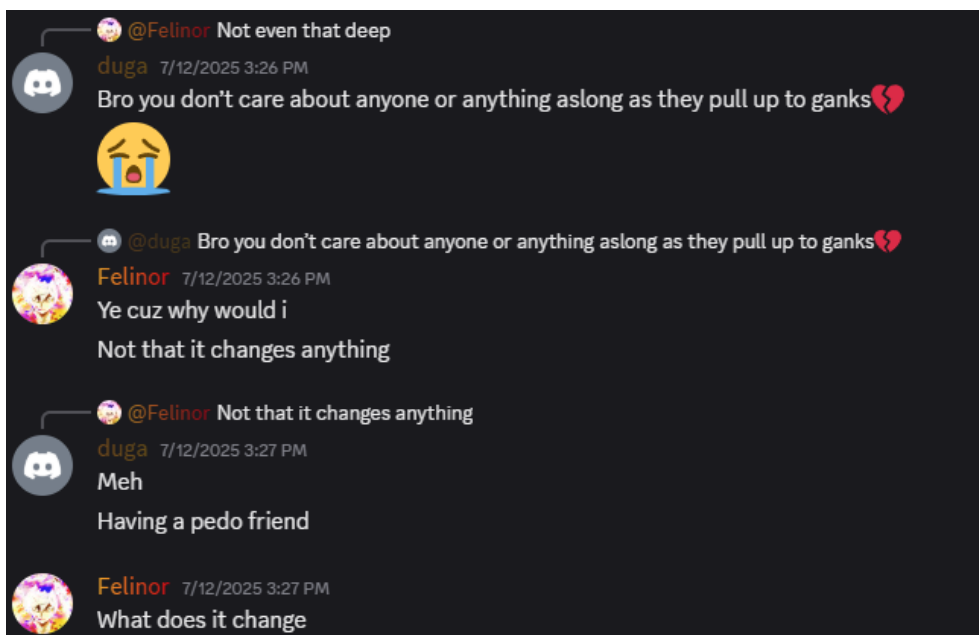

Felinor thinking of rebranding the guild because of the allegations after I Night I got outed as a “pedophile guild”, thus rebranding to Mracle.

Duga has also gotten timed out for sending the screenshot that Giga (Gignsbludd) has sent, proving that they are trying to cover up Amezal's pedophilia allegations and acting like it has never happened at all. Limitless has also replied to Amezal saying “so join back kid” after he has said he had fun chatting in the Mracle server, once again acting like nothing has happened.

Here is Felinor also saying that Amezal being a pedophile isnt “that deep”, and that if they “pull up to ganks he wouldnt care” because it “wouldnt change anything”.

Also him saying that “being a predator is an achievement”

 @Amezal u is not a true pred
duga 7/12/2025 3:40 PM
Pred as in predator?

Once again, ignoring everything and continuing to defend Amezal.

Using “ragebaiting” or “trolling” as an excuse here for his actions as well.

Them also trying to sweep it under the rug, acting like nothing has happened while Amezal is still in the server and posting his usual stuff.

Amezal 14:52

im good
