

RAMS YOUTH FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

PARENTS CODE OF CONDUCT

I hereby acknowledge that it is a condition of registration for my child to participate in the Rams Youth Football Association that neither I nor anyone on my behalf will engage in actions detrimental to the program or abusive behavior toward any coach, official, participant, or representative of the Rams Youth Football Association or the Affiliated Football League Community..

I understand that “abusive behavior” by definition includes but is not limited to, battery, assault, profane language, gestures and comments. Any of such behaviors will not be tolerated.

In the event of a violation of the policy against abusive behavior as outlined above, Rams Youth Football Association shall take appropriate action, including expulsion or suspension of any player, relative, parent or participants and its decision shall be final.

In the event that any coach, player, spectator, or other participant is banned from attending a Rams Youth Football Association sponsored event they will be considered “Not in Good Standing”, That person may petition the Rams Youth Football Judicial Review Committee for permission to resume attendance and or participation. Before being allowed to attend and/or participate in Rams Youth Football Association sponsored events, the Board may require proof of completion of anger management counseling or its equivalent.

I(we), have read and agree to abide by the Rams Youth Football Association Code of Conduct document and understand that my actions may be grounds for my child’s permanent dismissal from participating in the Rams Youth Football Association during the current year or in future years.

(Signatures for acknowledgement of reading and understanding this document are located on the RYFA registration form).
