

Crewing Resources

This document lists resources and tips to crew up for your curricular projects.

Grad Film Community

Your first stop for crewing should always be your classmates within your year. But you can also connect with others in the Grad Film Community using the links below.

- NYU Grad Film Internal Crew List
 - Here, students have listed the roles they are interested in performing on classmates' sets.
 - NYU Grad Film students & alums can add yourself to this list using this form
- Graduate Film Producer Database
 - Connect with students and alumni who are interested in producing projects.
 - Submit your name here
- Director of Photography Database
 - Find classmates/peers with an interest in cinematography on this list
 - Email Head of Cinematography to add name to list (AY25: Tatjana Krstevski)
- NYU Grad Film students can email the Grad Film Listserv
 - This goes to all current and past NYU Grad Film students and faculty. It has a very wide reach!

Broader NYU Community

- Check out The NYU Production Lab's Creator Network
 - Creator Network Slack channel connects current students and alumni across NYU's various production-related schools.
 - To join, click "Join Here"
 - Login using your NYU Gmail Account

- You can open Slack on your Desktop (if you download the free app), or you can use it on your browser.
 - You will see lots of categories of groups to message. You can try “#general” or “#crewing_paid” “#crewing_unpaid” depending on whether your project is offering to pay crewmembers.
- Join "Tisch Student Crew Calls" Facebook group
 - This private Facebook group is for NYU students to post when looking for crew. You will have to request to join.
- Follow the Tisch Talent Hub:
 - New site, being maintained by Tisch Student Affairs - link to come
- Set up an account on AvailableApp, a hiring platform specifically designed for film production crews to connect.
 - Create your profile, join the NYU-FTV “group,” and you can find fellow FTV students to work on your project, as well as other projects you can join.
 - More info here.

External Crew Resources

- Look at our EXTERNAL CREW DATABASE LIST
 - These are external folks interested in working on NYU Grad Film projects.
 - Do you know an external candidate who wants to crew? Send them this External Crew Database Request Form to add their name to our database.
- Gotham Sound has a directory of professional sound mixers across the country and even some internationally.
