Mary Immaculate at Brashear October 9, 2007

The Brashear JH Tiger hoopsters took a pair of overtime thrillers Tuesday night to kick off their 2007 season.

In the girl's contest, it was evident from early on that it would be a close game with the score knotted 4-4 after 1 quarter. The Mary Immaculate Lady Hawks found the range in the second quarter and went into the locker room with a 12-7 lead. Brashear still trailed 18-15 after 3 periods, but scored 13 points in the 4th quarter to tie the game 28 all to force an overtime. It was all Lady Tigers in the overtime, as they pulled away for the 33-28 win. For Brashear, Kristen Love had 10 points, Shelby Salter scored 9, Chandi March added 5, Macy Rogers had 4, Katie Smith had 3, and Abigail Wheeler scored 2 points. For Mary Immaculate, Anna Wiskirchen led with 11 points, Kallie Holte had 9, Laura Clark scored 4, and Anna Klem and Kaitley Hager each had 2 points.

The boy's game was also a nail-biter as the teams were tied 4-4 after 1 quarter, and Brashear held a slim lead, 10-8 at halftime. The Tigers managed to extend their lead to 18-13 after 3 periods, but the Hawks battled back to tie the score forcing the second overtime game of the evening. In the overtime period, Brashear scored 1st with a Hayden Housman free throw, then lost the lead when Mary Immaculate's Quinn Benson answered with a bucket. With the clock running out, Brashear took the lead for good on a bucket by Housman to seal the 25-24 win. For the Tigers, Joe Clarkson had 12 points, Hayden Housman scored 5, Joseph Woods had 4, and Nick Thomas and Taren Treasure each added 2 points. The Hawks were led by Tyler Gregory with 13 points, Scott Schwend added 5, and Quinn Benson, Nathaniel Holte, and Tracy Darnell had 2 points each.

Green City JH Basketball Tournament October 11, 2007

In girls' action, Brashear and Novinger advance to finals, Green City and LaPlata boys also advance.

Thursday night marked the start of the 22nd Annual Green City Junior High Basketball Tournament and the Brashear Lady Tigers came ready to play. Things started off slowly with both teams applying a lot of defensive pressure and Brashear holding a 6-4 lead after 1 quarter. The Lady Tigers broke the game open in the 2nd quarter taking a 23-8 lead into half-time. Brashear lead 31-14 after 3 quarters before Green City closed the gap a little in the 4th. Brashear JH Hoops at Bevier October 23, 2007

Both Brashear and Bevier JH girls hoped to keep their winning streaks alive.

The girls basketball game Tuesday between Brashear and Bevier might have been the deciding factor in the Tri-County Conference title race. Both teams were undefeated in conference play. Brashear got on the board 1st, but Bevier came back to take a 10-5 lead after the first period of play. Although the Lady Tigers tied the game 10-10 early in the 2nd, they had to play catchup most of the rest of the 1st half with Bevier taking a 25-20 lead into halftime. Things really looked bad for Brashear as the Lady Wildcats had the hot hand early in the 3rd. Bevier took a 34-23 lead before Brashear finally got on track and battled back to finish the 3rd quarter with a 38-37 lead, their first lead since they were up 3-0 in the 1st quarter. The 4th quarter was nip and tuck with the game tied 46-46 with under a minute left. Brashear had the possession with 15 seconds left, but a missed shot and a rebounding foul gave Bevier the ball. With less than 5 seconds on the clock, Bevier sunk a shot to get the 48-46 win. For Brashear, Macy Rogers had 17, Katie Smith had 7, Shelby Rogers scored 5 points, Kristen Love, Abigail Wheeler, Shelby Salter, and Sydney Slavin had 4 points each, and Chandi March had 1 point. Bevier was led by Dominica Prokup with 27 points, Valle Wilson had 10, Cheyenne Shelmadine scored 7, Haley Cooper had 3, and Lynnsey Keen had 1 point.

The boys game got off to a slow start with both teams being plagued by turnovers and cold shooting. Brashear finally took a 1-0 lead midway through the 1st quarter. Bevier finally got on the board with a pair of charity shots of their own. The first period of play ended tied 3-3 with all points coming on free throws except for a single bucket by Brashear. The Tiger offense started to click during the second period at Brashear surged ahead 13-3 taking a 13-5 lead into the locker room. During the 3rd quarter, both teams continued to struggle offensively, but Brashear managed to maintain a 17-9 lead. Things heated up in the 4th quarter as Bevier reeled off 3 consecutive baskets to pull within 21-18, but Brashear held on to pick up their first win of the season 25-19. Brashear's Adam Songer had 10 points, Nick Thomas and Joe Clarkson had 4 each, Cody Snelling had 3, and Dillon Redding and Taren Treasure scored 2 points each. For Bevier, McKenzey Pipes had 10, Wade Teter scored 7, and Brandon Conger had 2 points.

Linn County JH Basketball at Brashear November 1, 2007

The Tigers pick up a sweep over Linn County in Tri-County Conference action Thursday.

The Linn County Lady Mustangs stayed within a bucket against Brashear in the first quarter, but the Lady Tigers outscored them 8-4 in the 2nd quarter to lead 14-8 at halftime. Brashear had a big 2nd half, taking a 24-10 lead after 3 quarters and winning by a margin of 36-15. Shelby Rogers led Brashear's scoring with 16 points, Kristen Love and Sydney Slavin had 6 points each, and Katie Smith and Macy Rogers had 4 points each. For Linn County, Kelsey Barker had 7, Kassie Harrington scored 6 points, and Maci Hullinger had 2 points.

The Tigers squad trailed 10-9 after the 1st quarter, but looked like they had no intentions of giving up even though Linn County extended their lead to 19-14 at halftime. Brashear came out strong in the 3rd, outscoring Linn County 13-6 allowing the Tigers to take a slim 27-25 lead. It was anyone's game in the 4th and the lead changed hands in the last minutes as first Linn County, and then Brashear took 1 point leads on free throws. Brashear managed to go into the final seconds holding a slim 41-39 lead, but a shot at the buzzer tied the game sending it into overtime. Both teams managed only a single free throw each in the 1st overtime, calling for a 2nd overtime. Linn County got a bucket in the 2nd overtime, but Brashear aced them out with 3 free-throws to get the 45-44 win. Adam Songer and Cody Snelling scored 11 each for Brashear, Joe Clarkson added 9 points, Taren Treasure had 6, and Dillon Redding, Hayden Housman, Joseph Woods, and Nick Thomas had 2 points each. Linn County's Jonathon Hostetter scored 11 points, Jarrett Alexander and Brandon Montgomery had 10 each, Michael Oldro and Ty Stillwell scored 4 each, Josh Allen had 3, and Jeremy Frazier scored 2 points.

This completes conference games for the Tigers. The Lady Tigers finished 7-1 and the Tigers were 2-6 in conference action. The 7-8 grade squads will visit LaPlata Saturday at 10:00 a.m. and the A squads will be competing in the Atlanta tournament beginning Tuesday evening.

Top seeds prevail as Brashear and Macon County girls and Atlanta and Green City boys advance.

The Brashear and LaPlata girls kicked off the evening's action with Brashear taking an early lead. LaPlata made a late charge going into halftime tied 9-9 after trailing 9-5. LaPlata kept the momentum after the half going up 17-10 and finishing the 3rd quarter with a 21-16 lead. Despite LaPlata's attempt to slow the game down, Brashear managed to chip away at the LaPlata lead and pulled ahead 23-22 on a pair of free throws with 1:09 left in the game. Brashear got another pair of free throws with less than a second left on the clock to seal the win 25-22. For Brashear, Shelby Salter had 9 points, Macy Rogers scored 8, Shelby Rogers had 5, and Sydney Slavin had 3 points. For LaPlata, Taylor Billington and Rachel Shahan had 6 each, Makay Belt had 5, Mallory Eitel scored 3, and Emily Heisler scored 2 points.

Brashear will face Macon County Thursday at 7:00 and LaPlata will play Green City Thursday at 5:00.

In the second game of the night, the Brashear boys faced Green City. Green City and Brashear both came out pressing hard and Green City went out to an 8-2 lead before Brashear cracked the press 3 times for fast break buckets to even the score 8-8. The 1st quarter ended with the score tied 10-10. Green City went on a run in the second quarter going up 20-14 at the midway point and taking a 23-16 lead into halftime. Brashear mounted a comeback in the second half pulling within 33-30 after 3 quarters and tying the game 33-33 with 5:30 left in the 4th. From that point on, Green City held Brashear scoreless until a pair of Brashear free throws with 1:38 left pulled the Tigers within 9 at 44-35. Green City went on to win by a final margin of 52-43. For Brashear, Adam Songer had 20, Cody Snelling scored 8, Taren Treasure and Hayden Housman each scored 4, Nick Thomas had 3 points, and Joseph Woods and Joe Clarkson each had 2 points. Atlanta Junior High Basketball Tournament Thursday night results.

The Brashear girls advance to face Novinger in Saturday's championship game. The boy's title game will feature LaPlata and Atlanta.

The Brashear boys came into Thursday's consolation semi-final game against Macon County looking for a little bit of revenge. Macon County had handed the Tigers a 38-33 loss on the Tiger home court back on October 29th. Macon County got on the board first and held a slim 10-8 lead after 1 period of play. The Raiders extended that lead to 15-8 in the first minute of the 2nd quarter, but Brashear mounted a comeback taking a 16-15 lead at the 2:30 minute mark and leading Macon County 18-17 at the half. Brashear extended their lead to 29-25 during the third quarter and picked up the win by a score of 46-25. Cody Snelling scored 21 for Brashear, Adam Songer had 7, Joe Clarkson scored 6 points, Nick Thomas had 4, and Dillon Redding, Joseph Woods, Zach Reeves, and Jay Scudder each scored 2 points. For Macon County, Jacob Klingsmith had 12, Tommy Moore scored 6, Emil McKim had 5, and Alex Porter scored 2 points.

The Brashear and Macon County girls had also met earlier this season with Brashear edging the Lady Raiders 34-33. This game was to be very different as the Lady Tigers scored the first 12 points. Macon County finally got on the board at the 2:33 minute mark of the 2nd quarter, but Brashear took a 16-3 lead into halftime. Macon County made a modest comeback in the 4th quarter, but Brashear still picked up the win by a final score of 24-15. For Brashear, Shelby Rogers had 8 points, Katie Smith and Kristen Love had 6 points each, and Macy Rogers scored 4 points. Macon County's Sara Duncan, Hanna Souther, and Cassandra Peterson each scored 4 points, Abby Lusher had 2, and Holly Hall had 1 point.

In the other Thursday games, the LaPlata girls defeated Green City 42-24 to advance to the consolation game and Atlanta topped Green City 36-24 to advance to the boys championship game.

Atlanta Junior High Basketball Tournament Saturday night results.

The Atlanta boys and Novinger girls take 1st. The Green City boys take 3rd place.

In the girls title game, Brashear and Novinger stayed close with Novinger holding a slim 8-7 lead after the 1st quarter of play. Brashear got buckets from 4 different players in the 2nd to take a 15-10 lead into the locker room. The Lady Tigers continued to outscore Novinger 7-6 in the 3rd quarter to lead 22-16. The 4th quarter turned into a disaster for Brashear as 4 players fouled out putting Novinger on the free throw line for 8 of their 17 4th-quarter points and giving the Lady Wildcats the 33-29 win. Brashear was led by Macy Rogers with 13 points, Kristen Love had 6, Katie Smith had 5, Abigail Wheeler and Shelby Rogers had 2 points each, and Sydney Slaven had 1 point. For Novinger, Becca White had 18, Samantha Daniels scored 8, Renatta Blackorby had 5, and Chloe Hubbard had 2 points.

In the boys' games, Atlanta defeated LaPlata 39-31 for 1st place, and Green City downed Bucklin 42-37 for 3rd place.

Atlanta Junior High Basketball Tournament Friday night results.

Bevier and LaPlata girls and Brashear boys end the tournament on winning notes.

They say it is hard to beat a team 3 times, and the Brashear boys proved that in their 34-30 win over Novinger in the Consolation game Friday night. The Tigers jumped out to a 21-11 lead at halftime, then held on as Novinger outscored them 9-5 in the third quarter and 10-8 in the fourth quarter. Brashear got 15 points from Cody Snelling in the 1st half on his way to a 17-point effort. Joe Clarkson added 4 points each half for 8 points, Jay Scudder came off the bench with 4 fourth quarter points, Hayden Housman had 3, and Nick Thomas had 2 points. For Novinger, Ben Morelock had 15, Austin Martin added 8, Logan Morrow had 4, William Dyer had 2, and Shelton Johnson had 1 point.

The girls' Consolation game was a wild one with Bucklin running up a 14-2 halftime lead. The game did a complete 180 in the 2nd half with LaPlata holding Bucklin scoreless until under a minute left in the game while coming from behind for the 19-16 win.

In the final contest of the evening, the Bevier girls took 3rd place with a 34-28 win over Macon County.

Mary Immaculate Hawks Visit Brashear Tuesday November 13, 2007

Brashear wraps up their junior high basketball season with 7th and 8th grade games against Mary Immaculate.

When Mary Immaculate came to town early in the season, Brashear got wins in both the girls and boys games, but not before both games went to overtime. In Tuesday's girls game, Brashear took the lead early at 11-8 after 1 quarter and 22-17 at halftime. The Lady Tigers then blew the game open in the 3rd, going up 35-19 on their way to a 45-30 win. Macy Rogers led Brashear with 19 points, Kristen Love had 12, Miranda Creason and Shelby Salter added 6 each, and Chandi March scored 2 points. For the Lady Hawks, Laurel Haxton had 17, Kallie Holte scored 11, and Natalie Moore had 2 points.

Brashear led the boys contest 4-3 after the 1st quarter, but Mary Immaculate made a run in the 2nd taking a 10-4 lead before Brashear battled back to go into halftime tied 10-10. The Hawks made another scoring run in the third taking a 21-10 lead. Again, Brashear began to battle back, eventually closing to within 21-18 before the Hawks put the game away picking up the 34-28 win. For Brashear, Hayden Housman had 10 points, Nick Thomas had 9, Joe Clarkson scored 5, and Taren Treasure had 4 points. Mary Immaculate was led by Quinn Benson with 12, Tyler Gregory had 11, Scott Schwend added 5 points, Tracy Darnell had 4, and Nathaniel Holte scored 2 points.
