Whenever Vincent would have any Problems the Gangstas would always have his back no matter who is involved. By 18 he was first asked to join a Family, he accepted without hesitation, he loved the respect and feeling of family. Vincent proved his unlimited loyalness and motivation for the family and fellow gangstas, this gave him a much-deserved reputation within no time he found himself as a Soldier and then a Capo within just 17 years. It takes a normal man Decades to build such a reputation within the underworld. After the underboss of the Family died in suspicious circumstances Vincent took the Position. He stayed comfortably in this position for 12 years. He was considered one of the most Ruthless, feared and yet respected People in the underworld, everyone knew his name, and most importantly everyone knows he was completely untouchable. The Don, the all-seeing eye. Looks over the entire family. Vincent was next in line, he was close with the Current Don. When Don died under suspicious circumstances much like when the underboss died he was awarded the position, this gave him an unmeasurable amount of Power, more than ever. He was in command of the biggest crime family to ever walk the streets of the USA. This is where Vincent sits today.
