CSSS 2026 Invitation Letter

Council of State Science Supervisors

Annual Conference | Anaheim, CA | April 12 - 15, 2026

You're Invited!

Dear CSSS Members,

We're excited to kick off the new school year with updates for the Council of State Science Supervisors 2026 Annual Conference—our premier gathering of state-level science education leaders!

 Theme: Leading the Way for Curious Classrooms, Authentic Assessment, and Innovative Instruction This year's conference will be held April 12 - 15, 2026 in Anaheim, California, with all sessions hosted at the Anaheim Marriott. We'll begin with a welcome reception and member social on Sunday evening, followed by three days of rich programming designed to support your leadership, collaboration, and strategic impact.

Why Attend?

- Targeted Leadership Development: Sessions focus on high-impact science leadership, featuring peer insights and national experts.
- Collaborative Networking: Small-group discussions foster cross-state idea sharing and problem-solving.
- Strategic Updates: Stay informed on national initiatives, policy shifts, and innovative programs.
- Supporting Critical Aspects of State Science Leadership: inspiring student curiosity, assessing learning with fidelity, implementing innovative instruction.
