

The Dimensional Almanac

The Overworld

This dimension is the center of the Portal Network. If using a portal in its own dimension, it will go to the overworld. This dimension became a second home to The Interlopers, The Endermen, and also many other groups banished from their home dimensions. It has the most variable biomes (aside from maybe the Chaos Dimension) and is home to Humans and Villagers, as well as some Illagers. Certain areas are not travel-advised, such as the Roofed Forests (home to Illagers), or Deep Oceans (home to Guardians.) Be careful in these areas.

The Abandoned Dimension

The original purpose of this dimension is unknown, however, according to legend, it was a precursor to The Overworld (citation needed). It has plain dirt and trees(?) made of clay. There isn't really a reason to travel here unless you want to farm clay. Its portal is made of Red Glazed Terracotta.

The Infinite Caves Dimension / The Mushroom Hills Dimension

This dimension is a combination extreme hills / mushroom island biome. It is a good place to mine. This dimension was created by the Gods in order to create mining colonies. Its portal is made of Orange Glazed Terracotta.

The Goldmine Dimension

This dimension has caves of Gold, with seas of Goldwater. It is also a good place to mine. This dimension was created when the Gods wanted a lot of gold to fund a war against the Ender Dragon. Its portal is made of Yellow Glazed Terracotta.

The Jungleand

This dimension is entirely made of Jungle. It has seas of Juice. Its portal is made of Lime Glazed Terracotta.

The Deepest Forest

This dimension is made entirely of the 'Deepest Forest' biome. It is not advised to travel here, unless you want a lot of wood. Its portal is made of Green Glazed Terracotta.

The Infinite Glacier

This dimension is an infinite area of ice mountains. TRAVEL IS NOT ADVISED. A permanent force of Interloper Knights is placed here to contain the Illagers of this area, and they have kill-on-sight orders against everyone. Its portal is made of Light Blue Glazed Terracotta. TRAVEL IS NOT ADVISED.

The Chaos Dimension

This dimension was created by accident within the confluence of multiple other realms. It has many varied biomes. Travel is not advised, with unstable biomes and lava oceans. Its portal is made of Cyan Glazed Terracotta.

The Eternal Ocean

This dimension is a giant ocean. Not much is known, because we couldn't manage to get too far in this world, and lost most explorers. TRAVEL IS NOT ADVISED. Its portal is made of Blue Glazed Terracotta.

The Candy Dimension

This dimension is great, with stone that yields candy dust, and seas of Candy Fluid. Its portal is made of Pink Glazed Terracotta.

The Crazy Dimension

This dimension is even more dangerous than the Eternal Ocean. It will make you dizzy, and witches are everywhere here. TRAVEL IS NOT ADVISED. Its portal is made of Magenta Glazed Terracotta.

The Purple Dimension

This dimension is seemingly pointless. It has seas of Purple Fluid. Its portal is made of Purple Glazed Terracotta.

The Sky Dimension

This used to be a vibrant dimension, but was raided by the Ender Dragon and his forces. It is now a stripped world. TRAVEL IS NOT ADVISED. Its portal is made of White Glazed Terracotta.

Interlopia

Our homeland. Portals are created from here. Its portal is made of Light Gray Glazed Terracotta.

The Corrupted Dimension

This dimension was corrupted by toxic waste spills sent from Technofell. It contains Giants, and became a home to more Endermen, and also the Eternal Evils. TRAVEL IS NOT ADVISED. Its portal is made of Gray Glazed Terracotta.

The Primordial Dimension

This dimension was a precursor to the Overworld. It is pretty pointless nowadays. Its portal is made of Brown Glazed Terracotta.

Technofell

This dimension is used by the gods to banish waste, both living and physical. It has seas of extremely poisonous fluid known as 'Technowater.' TRAVEL IS HEAVILY NOT ADVISED. Its portal is made of Black Glazed Terracotta.

The Nether

This dimension is home to the Nether forces. It was also the first to be added to the portal network. TRAVEL IS NOT ADVISED. It has oceans of Lava and 'Nether Fortresses' with minions of The Wither. Its portal is made of Obsidian.

The End

This dimension is home to The Ender Dragon, and was originally home to The Endermen. All endermen that did not escape during the Ender Dragon-Interloper War are enslaved to the Ender Dragon. This dimension is disconnected from the Portal Network so the Dragon cannot escape it. There are no known portals left. TRAVEL IS HEAVILY NOT ADVISED (even if one could travel here.) Its current contents are unknown.
