

Call to Worship (Pastor Fletcher)

Good morning! Let's read this scripture together as a call to worship:

Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!
For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture,
and the sheep of his hand.
Today, if you hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts.
- Psalm 95:6-8

Heidelberg Catechism (Jonathan & Katharina)

Q. What is your only comfort in life and death?

A. That I am not my own,
but belong with body and soul
both in life and in death to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ

He has fully paid for all my sins
with his precious blood,
and has set me free
from all the power of the devil.

He also preserves me in such a way that without the will of my heavenly Father
Not a hair can fall from my head;
indeed, all things must work together for my salvation

Therefore, by his Holy Spirit
He also assures me
of eternal life
and makes me heartily willing and ready from now on to live for him.

Confession/Assurance (Jaclyn Higgins)

We recognize that our God is mighty and awesome. Yet we're not able to praise him together as he deserves because of this deadly virus and our love for neighbor. Not only that, but our hearts are often hard as we come to him. Let's confess our inadequate worship together this morning.

Lord, you have called us to worship you.
As we praise you, though,

our own inadequacy reminds us
of how we have broken our relationship with you.
Because we have sinned against you,
even our worship fails to be what it could.
We often treat it as a show.
We simply go through motions,
failing to recognize that you want to engage us deeply.
Renew us, we pray, according to your steadfast love.
Remind us of your covenant faithfulness and have mercy on us in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Despite the fact that our worship is inadequate, God is gracious. Hear this word of assurance:

To all who turn from sin in sorrow,
to all who turn to God in hope,
this is God's Word of grace:
We are accepted, we are forgiven, we are loved.
This gift we have from God.
Thanks be to God

Let me pray and thank the Lord for everything he has given us and ask him to bless the offerings made to him.

*Gracious God, we give our best, lest in gaining the world we lose life itself.
As a covenant people, we seek to witness to your will and way.
Help us to know more clearly what you would have us do with the wealth entrusted to our care.
As we contribute to the needs of your people,
we present ourselves as living sacrifices.
Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.*

And now let's pray for the reading and preaching of the word.

Scripture Reading (Landry Harlan)

1 Peter 2:4-10

[4] As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious,
[5] you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. [6] For it stands in Scripture:

"Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone,
a cornerstone chosen and precious,
and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame."

[7] So the honor is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe,

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,"

[8] and

"A stone of stumbling,
and a rock of offense."

They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

[9] But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. [10] Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

This is the Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God
