

a. The ship Komagata Maru was turned away from this city, which was developed around Hastings Mill. The McMillan Space Centre is in Vanier Park in this city, which is a popular site for cheap film production. Granville Island and the suburbs New Westminster and Surrey are located near, for 10 points, what biggest city in Western Canada?

answer: Vancouver

b. The dangerous Highway 63 goes to this city in the Wood Buffalo area. This city is 55 percent male and 16 percent from-Newfoundland, and its major employers include SunCor and SynCrude. Eighty thousand people fled this city in 2016 when a wildfire jumped across the Athabasca River. For 10 points, name this boomtown in the Alberta oil sands.

answer: Fort McMurray

c. This leader pushed the Rowell-Sirois Commission towards federalism, and he appeared not to be paying attention during the pipeline debate. Canada joined NATO and Newfoundland joined Canada under this prime minister, who appointed Lester Pearson as Minister of External Affairs. For 10 points, name this Liberal prime minister after Mackenzie King.

answer: Louis St-Laurent

d. Premier Bill Davis and NHLer Sean Monahan are from this city, which contains rinks at the Powerade Centre and in Gage Park. Sobeys opened a "Chalo Freshco" in this city, which is north of Mississauga in the Peel region. For 10 points, what Ontario city is sometimes called "Browntown" for its large Sikh and South-Asian population?

answer: Brampton

e. This author's first novel shows a sniper coming home badly addicted to morphine, and this author worked with Gord Downie to tell the story of a boy who froze to death. Niska takes a canoe to meet her nephew Xavier in one novel by this Anishinaabe author. For 10 points, who wrote The Orenda, Through Black Spruce, and Three Day Road?

answer: Joseph Boyden

f. In 2016, an association of these people voted against Eric Hoskins' plan for a new fee arrangement. Before getting elected, Kellie Leitch and Philippe Couillard both had this job. In the 60s, these people went on strike to oppose CCF policies in Saskatchewan. For 10 points, what highly-paid medical workers often threaten to move to the U.S.?

answer: doctors [accept synonyms and types of doctors]

g. Richard Janelle crossed the floor to join the government of this leader, who made an early, failed attempt at nationalizing Petro Canada. This leader's finance minister John Crosbie introduced an unpopular gas tax. As Canada's youngest ever prime minister, for 10 points, which Progressive Conservative served six months between the terms of Pierre Trudeau?

answer: Joe Clark

h. This book ends with Miss Lavendar Lewis finally getting married, and it starts with the heroine mistakenly selling Mr. Harrison's cow. This book sees the founding of A.V.I.S. and the arrival of the twins Davy and Dora. A red-haired woman starts teaching school on Prince Edward Island in -- for 10 points -- what second Anne of Green Gables book?

answer: Anne of Avonlea

i. The word "Haudenosaunee" means people from these places, which are often dark and full of smoke. These structures are built around double-rows of saplings and may be surrounded by palisades. An extended family could live on the sleeping platforms in one of these structures, which have a door at each end. For 10 points, name these homes used in Huron and Iroquois communities.

answer: longhouses

j. Kathryn Borel wrote about sexual assault at this organization, which launched the Anik A1 satellite, and which was endorsed by the Massey Commission. Adrienne Clarkson and Foster Hewitt worked for this organization, which has a thirteen-piece red logo. The National and Mr. Dressup are shows from -- for 10 points -- what public media network in Canada?

answer: CBC [or Canadian Broadcasting Corporation or Radio-Canada; accept CBC TV or CBC Radio]

k. This group has been led by Bora Laskin and Antonio Lamer. These people developed an "Oakes test," and they include eight "puisne" junior members. These people forgave Ernst Zundel for racist pamphlets and Henry Morgentaler for performing abortions, and three of these people must be from Quebec. For 10 points, name this group of nine legal authorities.

answer: [justices of the] Supreme Court of Canada [prompt on partial]

L. This symbol is above the unicorn on Canada's coat of arms, and unauthorized fur traders were once branded with this symbol. This symbol appeared on Carillon flags and was used by Jean-Baptiste Societies. A white cross and four of these symbols appear before a blue background in a provincial flag. Meaning "lily," for 10 points, name this symbol of Quebec.

answer: fleur de lys [prompt on "flower" or "lily" before mentioned]

m. Comedian Steve Martin curated paintings by this artist, who bought a boxcar for special painting train trips. This theosophy-follower painted The Old Stump and Mountain Forms, which recently sold for eleven million dollars. For 10 points, which Group of Seven founder painted landscapes in Western and Northern Canada?

answer: Lawren Harris

n. We know about this man from the John Day letters, and we think Joao Fernandes completed one of his trips. After the success of Columbus, this man sailed the Matthew with 18 men leaving from Bristol. A strait north-east of Cape Breton is named for this man, who probably arrived at Cape Bonavista. For 10 points, name this Anglo-Italian discoverer of Newfoundland.

answer: John Cabot [or Giovanni Caboto or Zuan Chabotto]

o. Founded by the Billes brothers, this business owns the MasterCraft and MotoMaster brands, and its ads advise customers to "save like Scrooge." Employees used to wear red vests at this store, which acquired SportChek and Mark's Work Wearhouse. A "thrifty Scotsman" is depicted on five-cent bills issued by -- for 10 points -- what hardware chain with its own fake currency?

answer: Canadian Tire

p. This player claimed he drinks coffee so he can fart at goalies. This player wears number 76 and is often snubbed by Team Canada, and he played most of his career beside Andrei Markov. He clashed with coach Michel Therrien and gave ten million dollars to a hospital. Shea Weber was traded for, for 10 points, which black defenceman who played for Montreal?

answer: PK Subban

q. Steve Simmons spread a rumour about this player eating too many hot dogs, and he won a Masterton Trophy after beating cancer in his rookie year. This player's sister Amanda won a NCAA title with Minnesota, and he won a Stanley Cup a year after being traded by the Maple Leafs. For 10 points, name this American winger for the Pittsburgh Penguins.

answer: Phil Kessel

r. On three separate occasions, mass deaths were caused by this activity in Springhill, Nova Scotia. For 10 points each-

A. Name this industrial practice that causes black lung and silicosis.

answer: coal mining [prompt on partial]

B. This premier closed down all of Ontario's coal power plants, and he committed to high-cost electricity purchases under his Green Energy Act.

answer: Dalton McGuinty

C. Most of Canada's electricity is from this renewable source, available near places like James Bay and Churchill Falls.

answer: hydro power [or dams]

s. Canadian Reginald Fessenden arranged the first two-way voice signals across the Atlantic, five years after something this man did. For 10 points each-

A. Name this Italian inventor who sent morse code from England to Canada in 1901.

answer: Guglielmo Marconi

B. Marconi's signal arrived on Signal Hill, in what is now this province.

answer: Newfoundland and Labrador

C. Pseudo-Canadian Alexander Graham Bell was in Boston when he first made a phone call to this assistant of his.

answer: Thomas A. Watson

t. Les gens mangent le repas appelle "reveillon" a minuit sur cette jour. Chaque partie pour dix points-

A. Nommez cette fete, qui honore la naissance de Jesus, et qui se passe le vingt-cinq decembre.

answer: Noel [prompt on "Christmas"]

B. Noel commence par une messe de minuit, ce qui se passe dans ce type de batiment religieux.

answer: une Eglise [prompt on "church"]

C. A quelle saison Noel arrive-t-il? C'est la saisonne froide de la neige, janiver et fevrier.

answer: l'hiver [prompt on "winter"]

u. The auditor general just criticized this organization for being short four thousand members and for still only being 14 percent female. For 10 points each-

A. Name this organization with bases at Edmonton, Gagetown, Valcartier, and Petawawa.

answer: Canadian Armed Forces [accept "military"; prompt on "army" for less specific]

B. The Armed Forces are buying some Super Hornets and possibly buying some F-35s soon. Both of those are what type of vehicle?

answer: fighter planes

C. In 2011, the Harper government added what word back to the names of the Canadian Navy and Air Force?

answer: "royal"

v. During the Great Depression, both Mackenzie King and this man carelessly delegated relief efforts to the provinces. For 10 points each-

A. Name this prime minister who made millions investing in the Eddy Match Company.

answer: RB Bennett [Richard Bedford Bennett]

B. Bennett eventually created this financial institution, which sets interest rates and sells treasury bills.

answer: the Bank of Canada [prompt on similar]

C. A "Bennett buggy" was the Depression-era nickname for a broken car attached to one of these things.

answer: a horse

w. Most provinces prohibited alcohol sales during this period, which also saw income tax and women's suffrage introduced to Canada. For 10 points each-

A. Name this period during which Robert Borden used the War Measures Act.

answer: First World War

B. Patriotism during the Great War inspired the renaming of Berlin, Ontario, which became this city.

answer: Kitchener

C. Robert Borden sought re-election in 1917 to introduce this policy, which would produce more Canadian soldiers.

answer: conscription [or Military Service Act or mandatory service or synonyms]

x. When Allan Macnab retired, this man and Etienne-Paschal Tache became joint premiers of the province of Canada. For 10 points each-

A. Name this lawyer who later led the confederation meetings to form the dominion of Canada.

answer: (Sir) John A(lexander) Macdonald

B. Macdonald led the Liberal-Conservative government of Upper Canada, on land which is now this province.

answer: Ontario

C. Macdonald lived in Kingston, but he was born in this country in the northern UK.

answer: Scotland

y. Many of these people depend on "country food," and they were given last names and disc numbers so the government could keep track of them. For 10 points each-

A. Name these indigenous people of Northern Canada.

answer: Inuit

B. At last census, almost half of Inuit Canadians live in this territory with capital Iqaluit.

answer: Nunavut

C. Another 10,000 or so Inuit live in this northern part of Quebec, surrounding Ungava Bay.

answer: Nunavik

z. Blackhawks captain Jonathan Toews is believed to be one of these people, and justice minister Vic Toews grew up speaking their Low German language. For 10 points each-

A. Name these peaceful Anabaptists who live in Ontario and Manitoba.

answer: Mennonites

B. Miriam Toews, no relation, is the author of this novel about a restless teen girl in a strict Mennonite town.

answer: A Complicated Kindness

C. A Complicated Kindness won one of these literary awards, which are presented at Rideau Hall by people like Michaelle Jean.

answer: Governor General's awards