

GABBIN + GAMES MEMBERSHIP DETAILS

Hello! And thank you for considering a membership with GABBIN+GAMES!
It is much appreciated!

We have 3 different tiers and- as always- any tier perks from a lower priced tier are automatically included in any of the higher priced tiers.

I hope you find a membership that suits your needs and your budget. And I hope whatever membership you choose, you get great value out of it and are very satisfied. If not, PLEASE let me know what's up and I'll do what I can to improve things for you!

And if you decide not to join our merry band just yet, not a problem, pal! We'll still be here for you on GABBIN + GAMES 4-5 days/week and it won't cost you a dime! Heck, I appreciate you showing up and being part of our community. That in itself is damn gold!

Ok, so the membership tiers! Let's get down to tha details:

THE GABBIN + GAMES MEMBERSHIP TIERS:

$4.99 Tier: Diet Soda Soldiers!

Access to all Gabbin+Games emotes and badges (used in live chat+comments). Our channel has 1 loyalty badge and membership begins with 4 emotes. As members join, Youtube opens up more emote slots for us to use. Please note: unlike Twitch, these emotes can only be used on the Youtube channel they are made for. They don't offer cross channel emotes :(...*

Access to 2 exclusive Diet Coke Head member emotes on our discord server (available only to Diet Coke Heads and higher membership tiers).*

A unique color for your name that reflects your membership tier in the discord. This way, everyone will know you are a proud DIET COKE HEAD!*

Access to the MOONSHINE & BISCUIT SOCIAL CLUB, our members only discord channel- A channel on discord that is only available to Gabbin + Games members!*

LIVE Access to Members-Only-Streams AND Members-Only-Chat-Streams.*

There are 4 types of Members-Only-Streams:

Category #1- Normal But Exclusive Streams- these are gameplay/conversation streams (like the upcoming LET'S PLAY SPIDER-MAN: MILES MORALES (PS4) stream that will be for members only). These are also some of the more chill streams like members only jigsaw puzzles or just late nite chats.

An upcoming Normal But Exclusive stream will in November when we play MILES MORALES (PS4) just for Gabbin + Games members!

Category #2- Premium Streams are the more produced 1-2 hour streams like the TWISTED METAL 1 ENDINGS PARTY stream we did a few months back. They have game playing, interviews with relevant folks (game dev team members, writers, game designers), behind the scenes stories, concept art, and possible give aways,etc.

An upcoming members only Premium Stream will be in November when we broadcast: JAFFE PLAYS JAFFE- GOD OF WAR (2005)- November 2020. I will have a few interviews w/team mates, show behind the scenes concept art, and even do a few give aways! All the while we'll be going thru the game (will we finish it? That's hard to say, but it'll be a great, engaging, interesting stream regardless!)

Category #3-Super Chill Streams. These are unplanned for, super chill streams that I'll go live with from time to time. Sometimes these will be open to all, other times they will be just for members. There may be a super late night jigsaw puzzle stream; may be me wanting to do some gaming on a Sunday afternoon; may be me just turning on the camera and saying goodnight to anyone who is still up and who happens to be a Youtube Member,etc.

Category #4- Members Only Chat Streams are exactly what they sound like: normal streams that anyone can watch but only Diet Coke Heads (and higher tiers) are the only ones able to text chat. We'll be doing a Members-Only-Chat stream when we watch THE GAME AWARDS nomination show live. And a Members-Only-Chat Stream HYBRID will take place with the GABBIN + GAMES THANKSGIVING DAY SPECIAL (all can watch and chat but Members are the only ones eligible for the give aways/prizes on that stream).

* Access to VIDEO ON DEMAND Members Only streams 1-30 days after they are broadcast live. If you are a member and you missed the live broadcast, you only need to wait 1-30 days for it to unlock as a post-live video on Youtube. The Members Only streams that are time sensitive will go up for EVERYONE (members and non-members) asap after the live event- for ex: THE GAME AWARDS Members Only livestream will be LIVE broadcast for members only, but once it's over we'll post it for everyone right away. But the JAFFE PLAYS GOD OF WAR Members-Only-Premium livestream will be live broadcast for members only. Then there will be a 1-30 day delay before it becomes available to all Diet Coke heads.. Note: much sooner than it will be free to watch on the channel for non members.

Game Night Player Access* (when we have an MP game on the normal GABBIN + GAMES or we do a Members Game Night ((at least once/month)). When we have these games, Members will always get priority to be Players over non Members. If there are more Members who want to play than we have slots for, I will rotate Players in/out if appropriate for the game (and I'll try to pick games more often than not that make sense for frequent rotating Players. But sometimes that won't make sense (i.e. LEFT FOR DEAD stream).

Credits in the show*- in every show we will call out our members. The call out style is based on your tier level. At this tier, you'll see your name on the screen and get a big collective thank you! Sometimes we'll also pick random members to shout out! NOTE: Please give me up to a week after you join to see your name in the credits.

$14.99 Tier: Cult Of Calypso!

All the perks from the Diet Coke Heads tier also apply to the Cult of Calypso tier.*

Access to 2 exclusive Cult of Calypso Member emotes (available only to Cult of Calypso and higher tiers) for use on the discord server.*

Your name will appear in the exclusive Cult of Calypso color in the discord. This way everyone will know you are a loyal to the evil one himself!*

 VIDEO ON DEMAND of premium Members-Only-Streams within hours or a day of the live broadcast (it's dependent on how long it takes Youtube to process the stream). The moment a live stream is processed, it will go up for all Cult of Calypso members- and higher tiers- to watch whenever they like.*

Movie Night Invite! 1-2 times/month is movie night. It may not always be at night depending on people's time zones (i.e. if we get more Europe folks in this tier we'll do it morning in America which is night over there...so each 'Movie Night' time of day is TBD).*

How does Movie Night Work?? Well, it depends. Here's TWO things I KNOW will work and which we WILL be using at times:

NETFLIX WATCH PARTY and AMAZON PRIME WATCH PARTY-

For the Netflix Watch Parties you need a Netflix account and need the Chrome Browser Extension and then you're good to go.

For Amazon Prime Watch Party you just need access to Twitch, a Twitch Account, and you need Amazon Prime.

Depending on what most people have (Prime or Netflix) we'll use that service more often. ALSO:

I am looking in to streaming movies directly into the discord but this seems like it may be kind of a grey area and I need to do some more research. A lot of people I know do just live stream the movies over discord but I need to be sure it's legal and I need to be sure there's not a limit cap of people where if we get more than 5 people watching it won't work or the stream will be poop quality. So I'm looking at a few options. BUT FOR NOW, only sign up for this tier (IF MOVIE NIGHT is a key reason you are signing up for this tier) if you are down with the NETFLIX or AMAZON approach. Again, hoping to find a third way (that is more inclusive and also legally sound) but I don't have that solved just yet.

For our FIRST EVER GABBIN' + GAMES movie night, we will do a movie night kick off this month (October)! I'll offer up 4-5 options (ex: TERRIFIER on NETFLIX, first 3 episodes of THE BOYS on AMAZON, etc.) and let the members in the relevant tiers vote.

Lunch with Jaffe-* We did this during the Patreon days and it was super chill so I'm bringing it back. 1-2 times/month we'll simply eat together. It sounds SO STUPID but here's what it is: I go out and get lunch (prob Rubio's, but who knows) and a small group of us just hang out online. I share videos, you share videos (as long as they are Terms of Service appropriate), we comment on shit, the party chat line is open (as long as there's not too many people). There's no 'show', no prepped topics. Just us, hanging out for about an hour, eating food, chatting, surfing the net and/or the Youtubes. That's it. Super casual, super chill. And it's fun! So sign up for this tier so you can come have food stuffs with me and your Gabbin+Games pals, dammit!

Game Night Priority Play!-* Cult of Calypso members will always get priority entry (above all non-member and members of the Diet Soda Soldiers tier) into our online games. So if you are in Calypso's Cult and you show up for Game Night and there are 4 Diet Coke Heads waiting to jump in ahead of you, you skip over them and either go to the head of the line OR get behind other Cult of Calypso or Gods of War members who are also waiting. If Game Night is crowded, this will be limited to- at worst case- being able to only be used once/round/match/whatever cause otherwise it won't be fair to everyone else :).

 Credits In The Show!-* In every normal, weekday stream there will be a credit section just for Cult of Calypso members. Every Cult of Calypso member can send in 1 image (it can be art, it can be a picture of your baby, it can be a shot of the latest meal you've cooked that you are proud of...hell, it can be text on a black screen, whatever). As long as it doesn't violate Youtube or Twitch TERMS OF SERVICE (and as long as I deem it appropriate (no hate speech, no being cruel, etc.)), your name and your expression/image/art/whatever (if you choose to share it) will go up on the screen as we say thanks to all in the Cult of Calypso who make producing Gabbin+Games possible!

 Help Us Choose The Membership and Discord Emotes!-* Every time we hit a new Membership follower number, Youtube unlocks more emotes for our channel. At the Cult of Calypso tier and above you can suggest and vote on the new emotes for both channels when there are open slots! Who better to decide on the best inside jokes and images that will please the chat than the hard core Calypso Cultists (and Gods of War) tier members?!? I'll retain final say but unless there's something offensive or problematic, all emote decisions will be made by majority rule voting.

$49.99 Tier: The Gods Of War!

All the perks from the Diet Coke Heads + Cult of Calypso tiers also apply to the Gods of War! tier.*

Access to an exclusive Gods of War! Member emote (available only to the Gods of War tier members!) for use on the discord server.*

A unique color for your discord name for all who are part of the God of War membership! This will let the world know that you are a soldier in Kratos' Spartan army!*

Happy Birthday Love From Papa Jaffe!- Want a real life Birthday Card from little ol' me?!? YA DO!?!? NICE! Well at this tier, if you want to provide me an address, I will send a birthday card direct to your IRL mailbox during your birthday month with a message and custom artwork on/in the card (such as my 'art' is...which is to say: damn terrible! But it'll be from the heart and how can you not love that?!?:)*

20 Second Ad Per Show!- For your tier, you've pretty much bought a 20 second ad spot on the weekly GABBIN + GAMES show (number of shows/week can often fluctuate but it's usually 4). As long as you are in the Gods of War! tier, I will play a 20 second video (that you need to provide) or read a 20 second ad WRITTEN BY YOU every GABBIN + GAMES main episode. Change it as much as you like, just be aware:*

A- You need to get it to me by the morning of the stream you want your ad expressed on that day's afternoon show.

B- It can't violate any streaming Terms of Service and I reserve the right to ask you to make changes to your ad/message. Note: I'll ONLY say no to hate speech stuff or stuff meant to be cruel or embarrassing.

This is mainly to shout out your instagram, twitter account, podcast, online business, or just fucking make videos that you want our audience to see (audience/stream is around 200 concurrent views/show- and growing! The VOD of each episode then gets around 2500-3500, depending on the episode).

The Mailmen Return! 3 times a year you will get a surprise in the mail from me.*

Assuming you give me your address and permission to mail you something. Sometimes it will be related to the games I've worked on, sometimes it will be something I cook (trust me!!!), sometimes it'll be something totally random. But I'll hand pick the items every 4 months and- if you provide me an address (and if you live in the USA), I will shoot you out something in the mail that I THINK you will dig! We did this on the last Patreon and it was a lot of fun but I was doing it every month and that got too much for me. So this seems like the perfect sweet spot!

NOTE: This is not cumulative. If you are signed up for this tier during the month I send something out, you will get the item. I will sometimes tell you the month of the item, other times I will not. So it's kinda luck of the draw.

And there ya go! I hope one of the above tiers is to your liking!

And again, thanks for considering becoming a member of GABBIN + GAMES! Without your fantastic support, we could not make this little ship go. So THANK YOU for becoming a member and/or considering becoming one. It is SO appreciated!

Looking forward to seeing you very soon on a live stream! Talk soon-

JAFFE!
