What does your child need to have/bring for this camp?

-Every day kids will need a lunch & snack and a water bottle.

-Campers will be required to have a pool pass to The Falls or cash to pay at the gate. In addition, on pool days campers will need a swimsuit, towel, sandals, and sunscreen.

-On days of special events, we require a car seat for your child, if required by Iowa law.

-Library cards may be desired, so checked out books can travel home. Otherwise they will stay at camp. -

Throughout day camp there will be other requests: comfy clothes, clothes that can get messy, etc. -They will have the opportunity to bring books from home for reading time, a pillow/blanket/special friend for rest time, and electronic devices will be allowed at various times during the day.

What does Ruby provide?

Every day Ruby will provide supervision from 8:00am-5:00pm, themed weeks and weekly trips to the pool if open. Library, field trips to parks and other possible Cedar Valley destinations. Fun educational time (including science, math, and other subjects), required reading time each day, physical activities in the gym, gym skill time and outdoors, group socialization, creative time, and a rest period.
