

HALB Dress Code Policy

The HALB uniform is an important part of our school policy. Our children's appearance reflects their role as Tinokot Shel Beit Raban and Bnei & Bnot Torah and influences their education.

Boys Grades 1-4

- White or navy oxford shirts and collared polo-style shirts are permitted. Layers worn under shirts must be solid white or navy crewneck.
- All types of HALB sweatshirts (excluding red, pink, tie-dye) or solid navy, black, gray, or white sweatshirts may be worn. No logos, designs or words can appear anywhere on the sweatshirt. A collared shirt must always be worn and visible under a sweatshirt.
- Boys must wear navy or black pants. It has become increasingly complicated to determine the exact name/style of pants that are acceptable and which ones are not given the variety of what is available and the shifts in what is considered more formal attire. Polyester (or similar) pants are acceptable as long as they are more formal and not of an overly athletic nature (for clarity - athletic pants which are not permitted, include but are not limited to: pants with stripes, athletic logos, mesh panels, or other features or graphics that identify them as athletic apparel.)
- Sweatpants, jeans, zip-off, and cargo pants (pants with side pockets) are never allowed.
- Shoes/sneakers are the only acceptable footwear. Socks must be worn. Backless shoes, Crocs, sandals and slippers (even with a back) are not permitted. All students must wear sneakers for gym class.
- Boys must wear a Kippa and Tzitzit.

Girls Grades 1-4

- White or navy oxford shirts, and collared polo-style shirts are permitted. Layers worn under shirts must be solid white or navy crewneck. No sleeveless or cap sleeves are allowed.
- All types of HALB sweatshirts (excluding red, pink, tie-dye) as well as solid navy, black, gray or white sweatshirts may be worn. No logos, designs or words can appear anywhere on the sweatshirt. A collared shirt must always be worn and visible under a sweatshirt.

- Girls must wear the “uniform box pleat” navy skirt/jumper or an A-line skirt. Skirt length must be below the knee even when seated.
- Closed shoes/sneakers are the only acceptable footwear. Socks must be worn. Backless shoes, Crocs, sandals and slippers (even with a back) are not permitted. All students must wear sneakers for gym class.

Boys Grades 5-8

- White, black, gray, navy oxford shirts and collared polo-style shirts are permitted. Layers worn under shirts must be solid white, black, gray or navy crewneck.
