

Private Mentorship with Randi Lee

What it is:

Experience customized 1:1 mentorship for those who would like to learn about Human Design and Gene Keys through understanding their own design on a deep level. By embodying your own design, you will uncover the subtle nuances within it and learn to approach Human Design from a holistic perspective. You'll also learn how to incorporate other charts such as transit charts, connection charts, shadow charts, Astro-Natal charts, and the Gene Keys Hologenic Profile into your experiment to understand yourself and others on a deeper level. Our monthly meetings will focus on applying your design to your business and navigating the ongoing deconditioning process for a more authentic existence. As you gain confidence in understanding the nuances of your own design, our exploration will broaden to include charts of significant individuals in your life—family, clients, friends, partner, child—enabling you to expand your analytical skills and knowledge. You'll have the ability to ask questions and get support in between our calls on Telegram. I will also provide other resources and materials to support your learning and growth, such as lectures by Ra, meditations, or contemplation prompts. It would be an honor to support you on this transformative journey to unlock the depths of Human Design and Gene Keys, empowering yourself and others through profound insights and self-awareness.

There are no long term contracts. We will work together as long as your inner authority is still a yes. If you no longer feel like the mentorship is the right fit or want to adjust the frequency that we meet, just let me know at least 5 days prior to your next payment.

Who it is for:

- Someone who has done some self-studying but wants to go deeper into some more advanced concepts and understanding the nuances in a chart
- If you're new to Human Design and feel overwhelmed with learning the system and want someone to walk you through the foundations by helping you to understand your own design
- You want to incorporate Human Design into your business by offering readings or just by running your business in alignment with your design
- Desire to improve your chart analysis skills and embody your own design more fully
- Want someone to be able to bounce business ideas off of and get support when you're facing the struggles of entrepreneurship

What's Included:

- 60-minute calls on Zoom (1, 2 or 4 calls a month)
- Private support on Telegram (Monday through Friday)
- Additional materials to support your learning and growth

Investment:

The investment is determined by the number of calls that you would like to have with me each month. This will be discussed on the Mentorship Alignment Call if we both determine that it is a yes to working together. Depending on the level of support that you need, we can meet once a month, every other week, or weekly. The investment ranges from $375-$750 a month.

To Apply:

I have a limited number of spots available for mentorship and each package is customized to the level of support that you need. To apply for one of these mentorship spots, book a free Mentorship Alignment Call to see if this is a good fit. The purpose of this call is for us to meet one another and determine if mentorship with me is a good fit for you and your goals. If we both feel like it is a yes, then we'll discuss the level of support that you would like to receive. This is not a coaching call or a Human Design reading.
