Dear Rasha, Maisie and Malka:

I would like to formally recognize and commend each of you—Rasha Abul Nasr, Maisie Lynch, and Malka Edelman—for your exceptional work in completing the new Overcoming Employment Challenges module as part of the NCDA Facilitating Career Development Training Program with the National Career Development Association.

Your commitment to professional growth and your thoughtful engagement with the competencies addressed in this module reflect your understanding and dedication to serving individuals facing employment barriers. The rigor, reflection, and practical application demonstrated throughout this new module speak to your professionalism and your capacity to bring this important content into meaningful practice for others.

The successful completion of this module will enable others to effectively support diverse client populations navigating complex employment challenges. Your efforts contribute to elevating the standards of career development practice and exemplify the spirit of continuous improvement that defines our field.

Thank you for your hard work, perseverance, and commitment to the career development profession. Your achievement is well deserved, and I look forward to seeing the continued impact of your work in career development.

Warm regards,

Mary Ann Powell
NCDA Special Projects Director
