In honor of March is Reading Month, Mrs. Mass's suggestion is Orphan Monster Spy by Matt Killeen. This book is set in Germany, 1939. After her mother is shot at a checkpoint, 15 year old Sarah finds herself on the run from a government that wants to see her, along with every other Jew, dead. Then she meets a mysterious man who needs Sarah to pull off a spy mission he can't attempt on his own: infiltrate a boarding school attended by the daughters of Nazi top brass, befriend the girl whose father is a high-ranking scientist, and find the blueprints to a bomb that could destroy the cities of Western Europe. With years of training from her actress mother in the art of impersonation, Sarah thinks she's ready. But nothing prepares her for her cutthroat schoolmates, and soon she's embroiled in a battle for survival unlike any she'd ever imagined, and fighting to hold onto her true self.

Lunch choices today are: General Tso Chicken w/Noodles; Cheese Pizza; Pepperoni Bosco Sticks; Buffalo Ranch Chicken Panini; Ham & Cheese Flatbread; PB & J; Taco Salad; or Little Italy Wrap.
