Spoiler Warning

This WT won't spoil any major plot points. However, it will spoil some major points in a few of the different relationship arcs.

Read at your own discretion.

The Three Love Interests

The three Love Interests (LIs) are shown in the cover image above. From left to right, you have Kasula, Lorelei and Glade.

There are no Side Girls in Tides of Succession.

How Choices work in Tides

Choices in the Code

Tides does not have relationship points, trust points, love points or points of any kind. Each choice has 3 states, 0 indicates you have not had the choice yet, 1 indicates false, while 2 indicates true. For example, if you have a choice called `lorelei_spice_pledge` if that was set to 0, it means you either haven't reached the choice yet, or your previous choices mean you've skipped that choice. If it's set to 1, it means you decided not to spice pledge to Lorelei, and if set to 2, it means you have spice pledged to Lorelei. Note, 2 isn't always 'positive' and 1 isn't always 'negative'.

Important Choices

Important choices heavily influence the direction your PT takes. They can lock you out of paths, as well as dramatically change the plot. These are the choices that I will cover in this WT.

Flavour Choices

Flavour choices barely influence anything beyond the immediate future. Since these have little impact, I won't be including them in the WT.

How Paths Work in Tides

Sub-Paths

There are two different types of sub-paths in Tides. There are Love Paths, and there are Allegiance Paths.

If you're on a LI's Love Path, it means the LI is romantically interested in you. There are 3 Love Paths, one for each LI - Kasula Love Path, Glade Love Path and Lorelei Love Path. You start Tides on all LI's Love Path. As a general rule, once you lose a LI's interest, that's it, there's no way for you to regain a LI's Love path. Alas, there are exceptions, but they only occur in a few specific scenarios.

Allegiance paths determine who the MC trusts. They have major plot implications. The 4 Allegiance Paths are Solo Allegiance, King Lovell Allegiance, Glade Allegiance and Will Allegiance. Your Allegiance Path does not lock you out of any love paths.

You will need certain combinations of sub-paths for all the non-general paths. For the general paths, the combination of sub-paths will cause minor variations in the paths.

List of Paths

These are the 9 main paths available in Tides. Each path will have its own completely unique ending. The ending for each path will also have minor variations depending on your previous choices.

For each Love Interest, you have one 'general' path, and one 'unique' path which is much harder to achieve. The path that is listed first for each LI, is the 'unique' path while the path listed second is the 'general' path. For example, Glade Yandere Path is the unique path while Glade Trust Path is the general path for Glade.

There is also a throuple route.

- 1) Kasula Pregnancy Path
- 2) Kasula Explorer Path
- 3) Lorelei Betrothal Path
- 4) Lorelei Court Path
- 5) Glade Yandere Path
- 6) Glade Trust Path
- 7) Glade and Lorelei Throuple Path

Bad Endings

There are no bad endings in Tides of Succession.

How this WT Works

Pick an ending. Follow the choices to get the ending. If an ending does not include a choice in its guide, that choice doesn't lock you out of a particular path.

For the general endings for each LI, there are tonnes and tonnes of different combinations you can do and still get the same ending, albeit with minor variations. This WT does not include these minor variations due to the sheer amount of work that will involve. So if you want to end up with a particular LI, whenever given the choice, choose that LI over any other LI.

Kasula Pregnancy Path

Overview

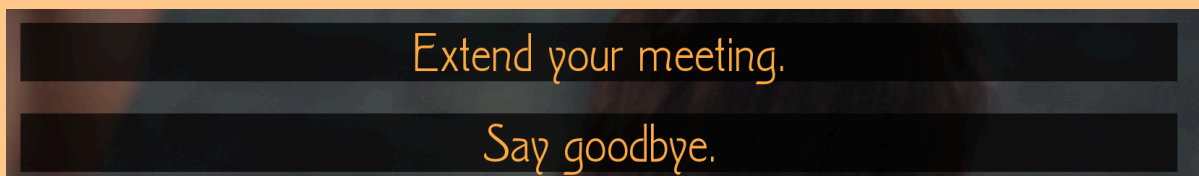

Kasula's unique path.

Key Conditions

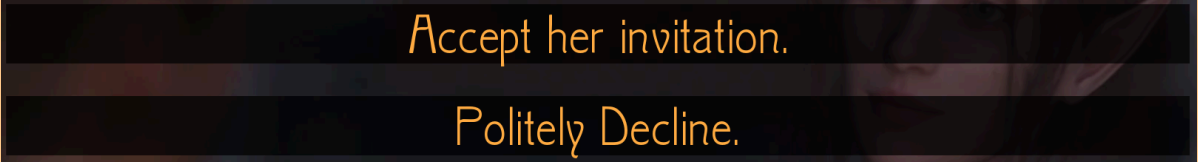

- You need to be on Kasula's Love Path.
- By the time of the Ball, you need to have lost both Lorelei's and Glade's Love Path.
- You need to take Kasula to the Ball (and you need to choose to do so when first given the opportunity).
- Kasula needs to lust after you.
- You cannot be on King Lovell's Allegiance Path.
- You cannot be on Glade's Allegiance Path.

Choice-by-choice Guide

Note: If the guide doesn't mention a choice, it means it has no effect on the path.

Choose to Say Goodbye. This locks you out of Lorelei's Love Path. If you do choose to extend your meeting, you need to lose Lorelei's Love Path before the Ball.

Accept her invitation.

Politely Decline.

Choose to Accept her invitation. If you don't you will be locked out of Kasula's Love Path.

Ask her more about her culture.

Don't stimulate the conversation.

Either option is fine for this path. However, it is recommended that you choose Ask her more about her culture.

Agree to help Glade.

Decline her offer.

Choose Decline her offer. If you don't you'll be on Glade's Allegiance Path and lose this route.

Let her in.

Ask her to give you some space.

Choose to Let her in. If you don't you will be locked out of Kasula's Love Path.

Tell her you're busy with important matters.

Choose to Tell her you're busy with important matters. This locks you out of Glade's Love Path.

Note: If you've followed this Path up to this stage, you won't receive any more important choices. This is because you've locked yourself into the Kasula Pregnancy Path already.

Politely turn her down.

Agree to spend time with Kasula.

Choose to Agree to spend time with Kasula. If you don't you will be locked out of Kasula's Love Path. Note: You won't get this choice if you've locked yourself out of both Glade's and Lorelei's Love Path, as the game will make this choice for you.
