

100 word challenge

Thursday 29th Nov

Breaking news: In the war zone of gaza, a secret weapon has been taken. It is a deadly weapon that can kill on a global scale, the suspects have been identified as assassins from the U.K special ops please take pre... cssshshshshshshsh.

One hour earlier

FRIEND'S FEEDBACK:

Great piece of Writing Ewan. I really like your ideas, very eye catching

Sacred Heart Performance

What? Today the sacred heart band came to perform in front of our school

So what? The sacred heart band came to show off their talents and hard work. The band made me think about my future in sacred heart and the musical education they have to offer.

Now what? They have inspired me to take up music during my time in sacred heart, I will try to work towards re-learning the saxophone or clarinet.

Response to retreat letter

Dear Acym,

I deeply enjoyed our time with you, it was a great experience to be able to take part in your activities. Throughout my life these activities will help me become a role model of independence, teaching me the right and wrongs of the world.

Thank you for your time, yours sincerely Ewan.

Trans-

- Transition - all throughout your life you go through many transitions
- Transform - one of my favorite movies is transformers because it has robots that transform.
- Transgender - A transgender is when a gender acts as the opposite gender.
- Transport - There are many types of transport, bus, plane, taxi, train and many others.
- Transfer - My mum said when I transfer from St Pius x I will go to sacred heart
- Translate - google translate is very useful when traveling.
- Translation - When you use google translate you can change another translation to your domestic language
- Transaction - I made a transaction yesterday and it made a lot of money
- Transmitted - A planet from outer space transmitted a message to earth saying "we are coming"
- Transplant - A brave girl in my class had a heart transplant not long ago.

100 word challenge

Corrupted Alpes

It was a fine morning in the alpine forest, we had settled down in a small bungalow just outside the high alpes. The area was recently closed off due to bear sightings all across the mountain, there was some unusual behavior with the mammals. They became extremely hostile and aggressive, last week there was 15 mountain hikers missing and 13 where reported dead after finding body parts that had been mauled at. That night in the rickety wooden building the snow was falling extremely heavily, we had lost connection with the outside world. We started hearing noises outside, “they’re coming”.

Friday 2nd August

Why you want to orienteer, Orienteering is a great hobby for the explorers. I want to teach you so hopefully you will be very passionate about the sport.

Firstly in orienteering there's a start, finish & in between controls that are shown on the map, it guides you towards the control (red circles) on the map that you find through navigating in environments. Once at these controls you then need to either clip your sheet of paper or others ways according to the place hosting the sport. You normally use compasses to find your way through forest and unknown groundings.

All throughout the maps there is different keys that will tell you what to do, hot green means to walk slow and yellowish colors mean to run fast. More of the shapes include water, small trees, large trees, building, restricted areas, roads & many more that is explained in lessons, every time you get one control you move on to the next checkpoint/control.

Friday 2nd August

A special place in the community

Think about the places that are special to your community. Choose one of these places.
Write to explain to your reader why this place is special.

Think about:

- what your reader needs to know about the special place
- how you are going to introduce the special place
- the order of your ideas and how you link them.

Remember to:

- choose your words carefully
- take care with your spelling, punctuation, and sentences
- edit – add or delete words or sentences to improve your work.

Statement:

The G.I Library is a great place in the community that welcomes everyone , It is a place of learning and peace. You can discover new learning through books and the online equipment provided as well as get swept away to a place of imagination.

The petals of the past

On the sidewalk bench next to that old rusty lamp that always flickers, there was a man. I know

Tuesday 23rd October

Topic: who do you think is brave

Brave person: Katelyn

Ideas:

I think she is brave because she has gone through so much in her life, not being able to do the same energetic things others could do due to heart problem, she had a heart transplant and has recovered amazingly

Intro:
What does brave mean to you?, A girl in my class is what I think brave. Her name is katelyn, all throughout her life she has struggled with a weak heart and lucky had a heart transplant
Reason 1:
She is
Reason 2:
Conclusion:

Wednesday 17th october 2018

Topic: what pet would I like to own

Pet: Fox

Assessment:

Rubric Score
Ideas	R4
Organization	R5
Vocabulary	R4

Idea: playful like a dog but is more like a cat easy to control once tamed, cute laugh and would comfort me, what interests me about foxes

-----/ My Writing \-----

Intro:
What would life be like living with a fox. The wild animal is cute and playful just like a dog and would be great playmate, it is a really comforting animal that lifts your spirit and makes you feel happy, the furry friend has a lot of interesting things about it's specie.
Reasons:
1:
The furry companion only needs a little bed/cage to sleep in as well as someone to play hide'n'seek with. They climb on everything which for me would be so cool living with the fox because I would build a big ninja course outside for it to play on. On a bad day this little furry creature can make you feel happy on the saddest of days, with the cutest laugh ever that is really high pitched and the curiosity of a cat. Although foxes are wild they have a relationship with human dating back to 16,500 years ago in a cemetery found in 2011, a man was found buried with his pet fox, this was 4,000 years before the first human and dog was buried together.

2:

I want to own a fox because I am interested on how many species there are, how they react to human contact & how they are as a family . Just like a dog the close related fox is untamed at first (baby) but can be tamed to the same ability as a dog would... expect more childish, although they are related to dogs they are just like cats sharing the same manner as them and vertical pupils letting . Did you know that there is 37 species of foxes but only 12 belong to the “vulpes” or “true foxes” and the red fox is the largest of all species and the most commonly known fox.

Conclusion:

In conclusion this is evidential facts that shows that foxes are exceptional pets,playmates and companions as well as being undoubtedly interesting and fascinating individuals of God’s creations.

Tuesday 16th october 2018

Topic: A special place in G.I

Place:Te oro

Reason 1: Te oro is a facility that lets people learn the languages of the pacific and global regions ,It is an amusement attraction to tell our stories, of cultures, comedy, art & drama.

Reason 2: Te oro is a community based facility that draws people with talent to express themselves and can keep youth out of bad places

Reason 3: It is updated to the 21st century with an online site that is easy to use, it promotes the sessions that take place as well as lets you register for them, it has other online sites as well as venue hiring

Intro:

For me a special place in the community is Te oro it was introduced to GI in 2015 May 9th , the building was designed and developed by kairaranga (weavers) from each of the three Mana Whenua groups and a Maori graphic designer. It is a facility that lets you learn languages, it provides a mrange of entertainment, allows you to express talents & is updated to the 21st century through its architecture and online sites.

R1:

Te Oro is a locally based facility that allows people of all ages learn the languages of the pacific and global regions. These languages include Maori, Samoan, Tongan, Fijian, Cook Island, African and etc. As well as the cultural learning it is accompanied by amusement attractions that tell the people of the community, the stories of our cultures, comedy acts, art(music, visual art, performance & drama). All of these are at low prices giving the majority of people an opportunity to learn, create and explore.

R2: The community building is

Monday 15th October

Ideas:

- The preparation
- How it felt
- The part i played / what happened

- What happened after

Holy communion

During the holidays I had a special initiation in the holy catholic church, another sacrament closer to god. The anxiousness of everybody staring at you, whether their eyes staring into your helpless little soul or smiling with the pride of a lion, it was a rush of a lifetime.

The morning of the sacrament I woke up extremely early and had a nice soothing shower, I got changed in under 10 minutes! just trying to make myself look presentable. I had to wear a white singlet under my shirt to make it look fancy with my black trousers and shoes, my hair was easy to do unlike most days due to cutting it a couple days earlier. It was time. Driving on the to the St Pius x Church, my church, my mum told us how proud she was and also not to muck anything up because we are representing our family (no pressure). For the first time ever we were early to church, 1 hour early. Getting out of our car my aunt's turned up with my cousin also not forgetting my nana, they gossiped with my mum while me and my brother helped juliana prep for the initiation.

As people started filling the church the student who have arrived started to become a bit nervous, I know I was. The opening hymn began and the mass was on it's way going to flow and no one had made any mistakes, the scriptures where read beautifully by our group and now it was time for the blessings, then the eucharist & lastly the liturgical dance, it was amazing how we only just learned the dance in 2 sessions.

The awards where then given out by juliana the bishop and father, my name was first to be called up. The silence in the room turned to clapping and cheering by people I didn't even know, it was sensational to stand up there and feel proud of what I have completed over the past 6 or 7 months.

We then had to stand up at the altar for the rest of the mass, we then got photos with father followed by my family coming back to my home to have a feast, we were accompanied by Mrs Middleton. The substantial amount of food was amazing, with the glowing highlight of my homemade brownies.

It was great to strengthen my connection with christ, I enjoyed my holy communion very much.