The Place Names Act

An Act to establish Capitals and Territories, and to vest in particular persons the power to name officially Capitals, Viceroyalties, and Territories

Section 1: Definitions

1.1 - Kittenburg and Wormburg are Capitals, but this fact may be changed by future legislation.
1.2 - A Viceroyalty is as defined by Article IV of the Constitution of the Republic of Söderrike.
1.3 - A Territory is a region in which multiple Viceroyalties and/or Capitals are located, determined by future legislation.
1.4 - A Resident is a full Söderrike citizen who resides in a particular Capital, Viceroyalty, or Territory, determined by the Direktor.

Section 2: Capitals

2.1 - The Chancellor shall determine the names of Capitals, with the approval of the Direktor.
2.2 - The name of a Capital shall be changed if a majority of its Residents approve it and if the Direktor approve it.

Section 3: Viceroyalties

3.1 - The Viceroys shall determine the names of their respective Viceroyalties, with the approval of the Direktor.
3.2 - The name of a Viceroyalty shall be changed if a majority of its Residents approve it and if the Direktor approve it.

Section 4: Territories

4.1 - The Chancellor shall determine the names of Territories, with the approval of the Direktor.
4.2 - The name of a Territory shall be changed if a majority of its Residents approve it and if the Direktor approve it.

Section 5: Keeping a Public Record of Residents

5.1 - The Direktor shall keep a public record of all Residents and of the Capitals, Viceroyalties, and Territories in which they reside.