

Harsh winter hurting deer and wildlife population February 26, 2019 Iowa

ABC Kcrg 9

... seeing deer closer to neighborhoods isn't something to celebrate. It means they're having to work harder to find a meal. "They're exposed more in the outside instead of in the brush where they can stay away and keep warm," ...

Disease dwindles deer numbers in central Iowa November 20, 2019 Iowa, KCCI Des Moines

... Epizootic hemorrhagic disease, or EHD, is the likely cause of 1,800 deer deaths in Iowa this fall... Warren County appears to be ground zero, with nearly 800 deer deaths in the county..

Virus claiming deer in Iowa August 27, 2019 DNR News

... An outbreak of Epizootic Hemorrhagic Disease (EHD) is impacting deer primarily in south central Iowa with the largest concentration of infected animals being reported in Warren County... Current loss estimate is more than 400...

Iowa DNR holds informational meeting for Wayne County residents for an update on the diseases dropping deer across the state September 17, 2019 Corydon Times

... With 46 CWD positive deer in the State of Iowa since 2013, five have been confirmed in Wayne County within the Corydon Deer Management Zone. One testing positive southwest of Seymour and the other four on the southern outskirts of Corydon..

Iowa DNR estimates at least 900 deer dead from EHD September 10, 2019 KCCI

... almost 900 deer have died due to EHD and that there could be even more dead deer hidden among farmers' crops...

Number of deer and Iowa counties hit by EHD has increased August 30, 2019 Radio Iowa

... Epizootic Hemorrhagic Disease or EHD ...“Total statewide number of reported deer is 583. And we are seeing a bit of an expansion in terms of space and scope. So we are see it reported in some additional counties in southern Iowa — and also some counties in eastern Iowa as well,” ...

EHD, Iowa DNR Says Hundreds of Deer Dead Due to Virus October 3, 2019 WHOTV ... Iowa is experiencing an outbreak of epizootic hemorrhagic disease or EHD. As of late August, more than 400 deer have been found dead ...

Prime time arrives for Iowa deer hunters October 31, 2019 Nevada, Clarinda Herald-Journal

... Iowa’s deer population is stable to slightly increasing over much of the state. ... Iowa DNR has received reports of nearly 1,800 suspected deer mortalities due to hemorrhagic disease in 2019... Iowa has been testing deer for chronic wasting disease since 2002. To date, more than 70,000 wild deer have been tested with 46 coming back as positive..,

Disease dwindles deer numbers in central Iowa November 20, 2019 Iowa, KCCI Des Moines

... Epizootic hemorrhagic disease, or EHD, is the likely cause of 1,800 deer deaths in Iowa this fall... Warren County appears to be ground zero, with nearly 800 deer deaths in the county..,

Iowa hunters harvest nearly 95,000 deer from the 2019-20 seasons February 11, 2020 DNR News

Hunters reported harvesting nearly 94,000 deer during Iowa’s 2019-2020 hunting seasons, which is a decline from 2018-19, when hunters reported nearly 108,000 deer. Wildlife experts say while there are a number of factors that likely contributed to the decline, the most prominent is the outbreak of hemorrhagic disease that killed thousands of deer across the state...

