SECRET MEETING BETWEEN LABOR AND GREENS ON E.D SCANDAL

Katy Gallagher and Meredith Hunter today refused to deny a secret meeting about the emergency department scandal before the community was informed, ACT Shadow Health Minister Jeremy Hanson said today.

"The ACT Greens today once again prioritised their political allegiance to ACT Labor above the community by refusing to hold Labor to account on falsified emergency department data," Mr Hanson said today.

"It is now apparent why, after Katy Gallagher and Meredith Hunter refused to deny a secret meeting between the two of them about the scandal that occurred before the community was informed.

"Both leaders should now explain to Canberrans:

- What was discussed at the secret meeting?
- What agreements were made between the two parties?
- Do they believe it was appropriate for the Greens to be informed about this scandal before the community?

"It is blatantly clear that ACT Labor hasn't been upfront with Canberrans about this issue and Katy Gallagher and Meredith Hunter now need to explain what deals were made in an attempt to avoid proper scrutiny," Mr Hanson concluded.
