

Sanaya and Orin - Orin's Divine Manifesting with Divine Will: Part 1

Manifesting as Your Divine Self

As you listen to these talks by Sanaya and journeys by Orin, you will call upon Divine Will to experience the power, love, harmony, wisdom, vision, clarity, illumination, intuition, and inspiration of your Divine Self, so you can more perfectly create the Divine Blueprint in every area of your life. As you become more aware of the “sun” of your Divine Self, the highest light within you, what you create will be an expression of the highest part of your being. When you manifest as your Divine Self, you draw to you situations, forms, relationships, and circumstances that bring you joy, peace, harmony, abundance, love, blessings and all good things.

You will learn how to contact your Divine Self in stillness, and from this simple yet profound space you will receive answers, guidance, vision, energy, inspiration, and all that you need to manifest the divine blueprint of your life. In each journey you will deepen your connection to your Divine Self, and learn how to call upon It to manifest those circumstances, situations, relationships, forms, and objects that will most serve you. You will receive energy from your Divine Self to manifest, guidance about your next step, and you will learn how to draw everything to you as your magnetic Self, the Heart of your being.
