Subject: Your biggest problem solved!

I have a kind of shocking confession to make...

There's nothing like "make money online".

I mean, nobody has a magical silver bullet that they can just slap to start making money rain from the internet.

What people do is to SELL something of value online in exchange for cash.

In other words, they have a BUSINESS they operate using tools provided by the internet.

It's very important that you understand this.

Many people do NOT understand this little fact and that's why they are struggling to turn the internet into the real cash cow they dream of.

They still see this whole MMO thing as a charade or rocket science.

So... the major problem now is what do you sell?

Well, you can commit months to creating products that people will be interested in.

But that is too much of a time.

...especially when you can just opt in to some platforms to promote other people's valuable products for a commission.

This is affiliate marketing.

And I have [a free resource \[LINK\]](#) that can show you how it works.

Subject: What is your BIG reason?

Zig Ziglar, the legendary motivational speaker used to always ask his audience at any gathering...

“What is your BIG why?”

In other words, what is that ONE BIG thing that is fuelling your desires?

Why do you wake up and do the things you do every day to achieve a BIG goal?

Today...

I ask you, what is your big why?

Why do you want to make extra income from the internet?

Is it to give your family a better life?

Is it to fire your nagging, unappreciative boss?

Is it to live life on your own terms?

Is it to just have FREEDOM working from home?

Whatever your BIG why is, there is something you need...

You need the right strategy.

And it is especially important in affiliate marketing.

Because if you decide to settle for obsolete, dead-beat strategies, you will never achieve your big why.

Subject: No one told me this about affiliate marketing...

There are many ways to earn income from the web...

And I have done a lot of them.

Like...

- Freelancing.
- Selling my own course.
- Selling books on Amazon.
- Selling physical products on eBay.
- Etc.

I loved all these methods.

But my favorite remains affiliate marketing.

Because...

- ✓ You don't have to create your own product.
- ✓ You don't have to become an expert.
- ✓ You don't have to worry about doing product deliveries.
- ✓ You don't have to worry about handling customer support.

All of that is taken care of by the product owner.

And all you just have to do is to direct traffic to your unique link, earn a sale and a commission.

But when I started, there were many things no one told me about.

And for those reasons I struggled badly.

Thankfully, you don't have to go through the same struggles I went through.

Subject: Your golden goose...

No matter what you are selling or doing online, you need people's attention.

You need people to fix their eyeballs on your stuff.

In online marketing we call these people TRAFFIC.

The more traffic you can get, the more profits you can eke out of your online business.

Needless to say, it is your golden goose.

One of the ways you can get traffic, which you might already know, is through SEO.

The subject of SEO is very tricky.

If you don't have an idea of what you are doing you will flunk badly.

Maybe you have already even tried and can now testify to how difficult it can be.

Subject: This guy almost made me puke my guts out!

Not so long ago, I had a blog that was doing really well...

And so I decided to explore more traffic options to further improve the readership of that blog.

One of the ways someone suggested to me was to trigger SEO strategies that will help my blog rank.

But there was a little problem...

I had zero to very crude SEO knowledge.

So I decided to seek out an SEO professional.

After we talked and I was certain we were on the same page...

He quoted his price.

And blimey, it was very expensive for my pockets!

I quickly, told me him NO, because I couldn't afford such fees.

So I did what any right thinking person would do.

I started to learn for hours, days and weeks how to get SEO right.

Little by little I learned and I was able to get a working strategy that helped me rank that blog and attracted more traffic.

Would you like to tap from my SEO knowledge?

Well, here is your chance! {LINK}

I don't do this often.

But right now I am letting you catch up on the rapidly changing SEO world so that you can grow your business.

Subject: Is SEO dead?

These days, people no longer talk much about ranking their sites.

It's like everyone has given up on SEO.

I'm beginning to believe there are two reasons for this.

ONE: Due to the constant changes that SEO is experiencing, many could NOT keep up and so they left it for dead.

TWO: Due to the numerous options available for getting a horde of traffic, people decided to choose the "lesser evil" which definitely is NOT SEO.

But the good news for you is that there is lesser competition than there was years ago.

That means there is an opportunity for you...

...an opportunity to rank faster and easier on major search engines.

But the thing is, you have to keep yourself abreast with the common trends and changes constantly popping up on the SEO scenery.

Subject: They lied – email isn't dead!

Drunk with love for social media, many marketers are claiming that email marketing is DEAD!

They say people no longer open their emails because they are all congregating on social media.

But the funny thing is, many of these marketers preaching this gospel are doing so through email.

They send an email to their subscribers and rant about how email marketing is dead... just so people will buy their half-baked social media marketing course.

The real question is...

If email marketing is truly dead why are these marketers still sending emails?

Why don't they SACK their entire email campaigns and go pitch their tents exclusively on social media?

It's because they know the truth...

And the truth is, email marketing is still the KING of all online marketing media.

It is still the 8000 pound gorilla of the internet marketing world.

It is the only platform via which marketers get the biggest ROI (a reported 44% per email sent).

And that's why you don't have to listen to all that hogwash coming from most marketers about email marketing being dead.

You should instead start building your own email marketing empire.

And the kingdom to oversee your empire will be your OWN email list.

Subject: Why you NEED an email list...

Social media, when harnessed right can be a profitable media to get the word out there about your business.

And so it is important to utilize it.

But while at it, don't make the same mistake many marketers are making over and over again.

This mistake is...

NOT building an email list!

The sad part about building your business solely on social media is that you could wake up tomorrow and it's all gone.

Because you have no control over it, some admin on one of the social media platforms might just decide that you violated one of their policies and bam! They shut it down.

Everything you have worked for will literally go up in smokes in just a few minutes.

But with an email list, you have total control over your list.

Even if the platform you are hosting your list on decides to start misbehaving for whatever reason, you can easily migrate your list to another platform and business continues.

Here, allow me show you the first steps you need to take to build your own profitable list:

Email #3:

Subject: 3 common mistakes people make when building a list

When it comes to building a profitable email list, there are many mistakes people make – especially newbies.

In this email, we are going to talk about the most common mistakes I have seen.

And at the end of this email I will be giving you a free resource that can help you accelerate your list building efforts.

Let's begin.

Mistake #1: Not using different traffic sources.

If you want your list to grow at a rapid pace, you have to utilize various traffic sources.

Mostly, people just settle for free traffic sources in building their list.

While that is good, it can often be too slow.

So you should also try to invest in a WORKING paid traffic source to speed things up.

Remember, the bigger your list, the bigger your profits.

Mistake #2: NOT sending enough emails...

This is another big mistake I see people making all the time.

They own a list and neglect their duties of contacting that list with emails on a regular basis.

That list will gradually lose its value over time until that marketer becomes a stranger to the subscribers.

Mistake #3: Settling for a Small List Size...

A lot of marketers just rest the on their oars when their list grow up to a certain number.

Usually it's 1000.

When a marketer reaches this milestone, they often tend to feel like they have arrived and they go to sleep on list building.

Why do that when you can easily do more?

Expand your list and easily expand your profits – it is that simple.

Want to know how to start and grow a wildly-profitable list?

Subject: Push button riches...

I don't believe that there's anything like push button riches on the internet.

However, there is something close to that.

Let me explain...

Imagine that you have an email list of 10K subscribers...

And you have just created this amazing product that your list will be interested in.

You fire up your PC...

Open up the Word Document...

And you write out an email to promote this product.

Next, you go online, login into your Autoresponder and you load up this message then PRESS SEND.

Imagine that your list of 10K sees your email...

Many will go ahead to buy this product as long as it interests them.

And within just a few minutes of your email going out, your sales notification will start to sing, just because you pushed that SEND button to a list you already own.

It's why for me, email trumps any other online marketing media out there.

So, the next question is how do you build an email list and make it grow FAST?

I could answer you in this email, but that will make it too long.

So I have done so in details [right here. \[LINK\]](#)

How does one wink in the dark?

In the online marketing world, it is like so...

You have a product. This product might just be the best thing ever created.

Maybe it solves a problem or helps a particular audience reach a goal or get a desired benefit.

But then, if nobody is seeing your product...

If you are NOT putting it in front of people, then you are literally winking in the dark.

When you wink in the dark, no one knows what you are doing – only you are aware, right?

How do you get more traffic?

And it is a question that many marketers of today are struggling to find the RIGHT answers to.

It's no wonder their businesses are struggling.

But in digging deeper, I have found out that many marketers are making a BIG mistake...

They are relying on one type of traffic...

Which is: FREE TRAFFIC.

This is totally wrong.

You cannot scale your business totally on free traffic.

You also have to nail down a solid paid traffic strategy in place.

During my research, I also found out that many marketers are scared of using paid traffic because they don't want to invest in traffic that produces no ROI.

Subject: My first dalliance with paid traffic...

A few short years ago, when I started internet marketing...

I created a little handbook.

It was a breakfast recipes book that I hoped to sell to busy, working moms.

I tried posting on some forums where these kinds of moms congregated on a daily basis.

But after about 2 weeks of trying, I made no sale.

So I switched focus to paid traffic.

The platform I settled for is no longer in existence.

But I set up a campaign to run banner ads on that platform for a certain number of days.

After the set number of days was complete, I had a number of sign-ups – about 53, but still no sales made.

It was frustrating, to say the least.

And that my friend is an example of how you flush money down the toilet really fast trying to use paid traffic if you don't have a PLAN.

I learned the hard way,.

But these days my paid traffic efforts are yielding amazing returns every time I use paid traffic.

Subject: Turn one dollar into 5!

What's the fastest way to have a business that stagnates?

The answer is simple, really.

It's to have a business that cannot bring in new customers on a consistent basis.

And in 2019, "stagnate" is another word for "fail".

If you must NOT fail in business, you need a new stream of customers coming in every day or at least regularly.

And if you must get a new stream of customers regularly, you need to utilize paid traffic and not just rely on free traffic.

Lastly, if paid traffic must work for you, you need to know how to well, make it work.

Subject: The key driving force behind paid traffic

When it comes to paid traffic, what we are basically doing to earn traffic is to run ad campaigns.

And running ad campaigns can be really tricky.

It doesn't matter where you are trying to run your ad campaigns, you have to get 3 BIG things right...

1. Your audience (target the right people).
2. Your messaging (say the right thing).
3. Stay in compliance with policies.

Each of these factors are why people squirm away from paid traffic.

But instead of running, you should be doing the opposite.

Learn how each of these things works so that you can start creating successful ad campaigns that grow your business.

And there's a quote of his I want you to see because I reckon it'd be very important for you.

Here it goes...

"There's nothing noble in being superior to your fellow man; true nobility is being superior to your former self".

This is so apt, if you ask me.

Too many people in the quest for self-improvement try to compare themselves to others.

They try to "speed" things up.

And because of this wrong motive, many end up failing.

Here's the thing...

Take your self-improvement thing at your own pace.

Let it be for the right motive only: to have an improved version of you today than you were yesterday.

Want more info on how you should go about self-improvement?

I have just the right tool for you right here! [LINK]

Subject: An underrated blueprint for success...

I always think that the fastest way to become successful is to copy what already successful people are doing.

But most times, it's difficult to really pinpoint successful people's secrets.

Well, here is a free resource {LINK} that reveals some of the self-improvement secrets of one of the world's most successful people.

His name is Dwayne Johnson.

You probably know him as THE ROCK – that wrestler who used to say “can you smell what the rock is cooking?!”

When I was growing up, he was my favorite wrestler. And he was very successful.

These days, though, he no longer wrestles in the ring.

He is now one of the most sought after actors on Nollywood.

Some of the things I have learned from him about self-improvement, I have gone ahead to share in a free resource that you SHOULD download right away!

Subject: The secret of attracting ANYONE!

You know that guy or girl at a party that everyone seems to gravitate towards?

That person who seems like they have a magnet attached to their chest that pulls people in?

What is it that they have that you DON'T?

If you've ever found yourself wondering this, this email is for you.

You should check out this FREE resource quickly {LINK}

I used to see people like this all the time and it drove me crazy. I just didn't get it. What was I doing wrong and what were they doing right?

Well, that was the first part of what I was doing wrong.

People are attracted to CONFIDENCE and confident people don't care what others are doing or not doing to be liked.

Confidence can make the difference between you getting that date, promotion or even making those friends.

If you must succeed in your dating life, you need more confidence.

And one of the fastest ways to gain dating confidence is to read and know what you should be doing and what you should be avoiding.

That is why I am giving you this course that will help inject more “dating confidence” into you for free.

Subject: Answering the BIG question...

In the world of dating and relationships, the big question is usually the “will you marry me?” question, right?

But there is also another big question that many people do not ask themselves enough.

And that question is:

“When should I be ready to date again after a break-up”

The keyword there is ready.

Many people still suffering heavily from a previous break up, jump into a new relationship, only to end up ruining their new relationship simply because they have not totally gotten over the ex.

Don't make that mistake...

Check out this free guide [LINK] that reveals important factors to keep in mind to make sure your dating life is on point!

You need to know when you are ready to date again after a break-up.

You need to know how to evaluate why your last relationship hit the rocks in the first place...

...and you need to know a whole bunch of other stuffs.

All of which have now been revealed inside this newly released free resource.
