💡 About commercial use

Tiers:

- 1x price, not for commercial use

Personal use means the drawing won't generate to you any kind of profit, and is something you wish to have for personal enjoyment.

- 1.5x price, when the artwork is not the bulk of the product, but on this tier the credits are obligatory and must be visible to the audience (e.g., a small "art by pyampom" in the corner of an image).
- 2x price, commercial use when the artwork is not the bulk of the product (promotional material, CD cover, game assets, social media artwork, etc.).
- 3x price, commercial use when the artwork is the bulk of the product (body pillow, postcard, merchandise, etc.).

Does YouTube assets (banner, avatar, using art in videos) count as commercial?

Yes, same for Patreon and any ad-supported sites.

💡 About complex design

Characters with a complex design come with an extra cost depending on the difficulty. For example: very long hair, wings, armor, lace, complex clothing pattern, tattoos, weapons, many details, various skirt layers and etc.

If your character has a complex design - feel free to send a reference sheet, it should be as open as possible, without any parts closed. We may discuss any detail when you will be sending me a request, so there won't be as many issues for the future.

💡 More characters

Shown prices are per character. Every character multiplies the price.

Form:

- Type of commission:
- Paypal e-mail:
- Commercial use:
- Character name:
- Personality:
- References:
- Who did the original design? (yourself, was adopted, from game/anime, etc)

The more information the better (`ω´) ✧

05 FAQ

Q: When commissions will be open again?

A: During the month or more.

But you can be added to the waiting list if you are ok with the wait time!

Q: Can I be added to your waiting list? Where is the waiting list?

A: Yes, if you're ok with probably a long wait to get it started, send me a note or email.

The waiting list is linked on my profile or on top of this document.

Q: Where can I check the status of my commission?

A: You can check the status of your commission in the waiting list.

Also you can text me anytime and I will send you WIP of your commission.

Q: How long does commission take?

A: From a couple of days to a month, depending on the complexity of the work and other factors. Please be patient (◡_◡)

Q: What does "soon" mean ?

A: "Soon" means that now I don't have proper samples of this tier. Look forward to it!

Q: What you will not draw?

A: • Old (grandma / grandpa) characters

- Mechas
- Furry (kemonomimi is ok!)
- NSFW (artistic nude is ok!)

Q: I want to change something in my commission. Is it possible?

A: Once the picture is finished, small changes like color adjustments / adding small details (or fixing mistakes) could be done for free.

Any large changes (clothing changes, pose, setting) can't be done.

Please ensure the initial description is accurate.

Q: What I can't do with the finished art?

A: Commissioner cannot post the full size drawing publicly. Commissioner may not resell the artwork itself (except for 3x price commissions) or claim to have made it.

Thank you very much for checking it out!
