

TWIYA [The World Is Yours Always)

The World Is Yours, Always [known as TWIYA] is a singer/songwriter, writer, producer, multimedia artist, and storyteller. Growing up between Seattle and Baltimore, she began her journey as a solo music artist in 2017, with the single "Afronauts" (ft local rapper BlkSknn) becoming a crowd favorite. Her soulful vibes have graced the airwaves of local station KEXP-FM Seattle and rocked crowds at local Seattle hot spots like Club Sur, The Vera Project, and later, the east coast at The Brooklyn Bazaar. The singer-songwriter debuted her first studio project XChange in August 2018, building a steadily growing fan base that she lovingly calls, "The Afronauts". TWIYA released her self-produced mixtape, "SPACE JAMZ VOL. 1" on May 24, 2019, which features fully self-produced tracks and contributions from fellow No Idol Music artists StP@ and Devh. Her songs "REIGN" and "Float" are featured in the documentary, Anatomy of Wings, which premiered and won Best Documentary Feature at the BLACK FEMME SUPREMACY FESTIVAL in Baltimore, MD in the fall of 2020. She continues to throw events geared toward indie artists and is releasing a self-produced project called OASIS in Summer of 2023.
