

1. Coffee grows on a tree. False. It grows on a bush called a coffee tree.
2. Coffee beans are not beans, but seeds. True
3. Coffee grows in temperate climates. False. It grows in warm climates.
4. Coffee grows at low altitudes. False. It grows at high altitudes.
5. The fruit of a coffee tree is called a cherry. True
6. Water is used to separate the green bean from the fruit. True
7. They use a pulping machine to separate the skin from the seeds. True
8. Coffee is sorted by hand only. False. It is sorted by a series of devices and by hand.

The process:

1. Coffee tree fruit is hand-picked.
2. The cherries are placed in a large tank.
3. Floating cherries go one way, sinking ones - another.
4. They use a pulping machine to separate the skin and the seeds.
5. The coffee ferments.
6. The beans are washed and sun-dried.
7. The coffee is polished.
8. The beans are sorted by a series of devices.
9. The beans are sorted by hand.