SAMPLING TERMS:

My samples are not royalty free.
If you choose to use my samples, you agree to these terms below:

-Listed in the songwriter and/or producer credits NOT as a feature or primary artist. If you have under 10k monthly listeners you don't need to credit at all. DM/Email for Q's

-for artists with 0-100k monthly listeners, I ask for around 30-50% publishing & master royalties. This is for songs independently released through streaming platforms.This is Negotiable depending on use of sample! (More or less percentage %) (smaller artists it tends to be a higher royalty percent % considering it's generally a smaller amount of streams and less profit being made) DM/Email for Q's

-Artists with more than 100K monthly listeners, please contact me!
-If placed with an artist on a major label, please contact me! DM/Email for Q's

You also have the option to provide me an upfront payment instead of royalties, or in some cases...buying out the sample. Email me to negotiate. I will sometimes ask for a cut of publishing 🙂

- Any NON-PROFIT usage of my samples (like just uploading to youtube or soundcloud for free) is fine. You're welcome to credit my name in the description but not mandatory. You don't need to contact me about it either, you're free to use my samples for non profit things. THAT MEANS YOU'RE NOT MAKING MONEY FROM IT LOL

- For beat collabs (posting on beatstars for example) add me to your splits and you can dm me for split % to negotiate. 40%-50% is usually given to me for example.

I'm just a girl, so if I don't get to you right away, my apologies!

If you are interested in exclusive, custom vocal samples from me, email me. (meganjloops@gmail.com)

This is not free. I will charge for this 😀

Information for me:

- How many samples you'd like
- What style you would like it in
- This is not a full song, it would be a hook or short phrases. I'm open to songs, but it would really depend on your artistry and branding.

m3gatron out!
