Are you interested in registering to vote? The League of Women Voters will be in the North High Commons helping students to register to vote on Tuesday SEP 30 during your lunch periods. Interested students need to be at least 17 and a half in order to register to vote and will need to provide one of the following forms of identification—a driver's license or the last 4 digits of their social security number.

Rock the Street Wall Street will have its first club meeting on Wednesday OCT 1 in the Library Loft during MOD 1 and MOD 2 of AcLab that day. All female identifying students are welcome to join us! See Ms. Seavey in Math Room 2312 for a flyer and if you have any questions.

Happy Hispanic Heritage Month!

Please join us during your designated lunch (and ONLY your designated lunch) on OCT 10 on the football field (weather permitting). We will be breaking pinatas!

Students may sign up now for the Library's October Lit Loot book bundle, which will be based on the themes of Fall and goal setting. We will randomly select ten students to receive a book bundle of library books and other fun goodies and treats donated by the Alliance for Healthy Communities. Interested students should sign up via the link on the Library webpage by OCT 10.

ATTENTION SOPHOMORES!

Mark your calendar for SOUTH TECH PREVIEW NIGHT, OCT 15, 5-7 PM. All students interested in applying to Tech are strongly encouraged to attend and learn more about our school, programs, and the opportunities we offer.

9/25/25

Did you know?

87% of deaf children are born to hearing parents. Only 13% of deafness is genetic. More than 70% of parents with deaf children who communicate through signing don't or can't communicate because they do not learn how to sign.

Attention PNH Nation!

Anyone who is interested in participating in Culture Night this year, please sign up for Edmonds-Smith MOD 3 during AC Lab on Friday SEP 26 for our first meeting. Hope to see you there!

The Jewish Student Union (JSU) will be meeting today (Thursday SEP 25) after school at 2:35pm in DeCaro's Room 2114. All interested students are welcomed to attend.
