What are the Medicaid plans in Nevada?

Nevada has been running a required managed care scheme in two counties in the state (Clark and Washoe Counties) since 1998.

Nevada Mandatory Health Maintenance Program

American Indians, children suffering from severe mental disturbances, and children with special needs can voluntarily enroll. It covers acute, primary, specialist, and behavioral medicine services for families, children, pregnant women, and low-income individuals.

Non-emergency transportation program

Since 2006, Nevada has also run a required fee for service non-emergency transportation program that is open to all participants who qualify for Medicaid.

The Nevada Comprehensive Care Waiver (NCCW)

For a subgroup of high-cost, high-need clients not covered by the Mandatory Health Maintenance Program, the NCCW conducts mandatory care management across the state.

Qualified people for NCCW will get payments in a fee-for-service setting with required care management to support better care quality.
