

UNIT 3 REBELLION REVIEW GUIDE name: _____

TERM	DEFINITION
SONS OF LIBERTY	A group that started in Boston. Its goal was to... PROTEST BRITISH POLICIES. LATER TO WIN INDEPENDENCE
STAMP ACT	A tax on all PAPER products that made many colonists angry. The purpose for the tax was to... PAY OFF BRITISH WAR DEBTS
PROCLAMATION OF 1763	An imaginary line along the Appalachian mountains that... BANNED COLONISTS FROM MOVING WEST OF THE MOUNTAINS.
BOSTON TEA PARTY	An act of rebellion where the Sons of Liberty... DESTROYED $1.5 MILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF BRITISH
BOSTON MASSACRE	5 colonists were killed on King Street in a riot where British soldiers shot angry colonists who were threatening them. It was made out to be worse than it was in an engraving by PAUL REVERE
PROPAGANDA	Anything created to PERSUADE AN AUDIENCE TO BELIEVE SOMETHING . It does not have to be true.
SAM ADAMS	Failure at many things in his life before the Sons of Liberty. Charismatic "leader" of the SONS OF LIBERTY .
JOHN HANCOCK	Merchant, wealthiest man in New England. Smuggled goods into Boston Harbor. Cared more for the patriot cause as time passed; signed his name LARGEST on the Declaration of Independence.
GEORGE WASHINGTON	Virginian who was chosen to lead THE CONTINENTAL ARMY
1ST CONT. CONGRESS	The first attempt to unify the colonies against England; it took place in Philadelphia. GEORGIA skipped out. They were being attacked by Creek Indians and needed the British soldiers to help out.
BATTLE OF LEXINGTON AND CONCORD	First official shots fired to start the war. Happened in two locations. LEXINGTON: we Lost. CONCORD: we Crushed
TORIES/LOYALISTS	Loyal to ENGLAND AND THE KING
WHIGS/PATRIOTS	Colonists who wanted to SEPARATE FROM ENGLAND
REDCOATS OR LOBSTERBACKS	Insulting NICKNAMES given to British soldiers by Patriots
PAUL REVERE	Silversmith and strong patriot; Midnight ride to warn Adams/Hancock
boycott	NOT BUYING GOODS IN ORDER TO PROTEST
2nd Cont. Congress	DO NOT NEED TO KNOW THIS FOR UNIT 3

Do you think the Sons of Liberty were justified in their acts of rebellion? (first essential question)

What role did propaganda play in the revolution? Convinced many to be angry at England

How did the American identity start to differ from England?

America---- You make what you want by your hard work

England----- You are born into power or born without power; hard to move up in social class

How do you think this could have affected the push for separation from England?

Leader of the sons of liberty	sam adams
Paid for much of the rebellion, merchant, smuggler	john hancock
A lawyer who defended the boston massacre soldiers, but was a SofL	john adams
Silversmith who used propaganda and rode a horse to help the cause	paul revere
Virginian who was chosen to lead the continental army	george washington
A group that started in Boston and tried to stop unfair laws	sons of liberty
A tax on all paper products to pay off British war debt	stamp act
Banned colonists from moving into the Ohio Valley	Proclamation of 1763
Destruction of one million dollars worth of British property	Boston Tea Party
5 colonists were killed at this event	Boston Massacre
Anything created to influence others to a certain belief	propaganda
The first attempt to unify the colonies in Philadelphia	1st cont. Congress
This colony skipped the 1st continental congress	Georgia
Colonists who still loved England and wanted to stay British	Loyalists
Colonists who began to want independence	patriots
An insulting nickname given to British soldiers	redcoats
British general sent to Boston to bring order	General Gage
To avoid purchasing a product or service in protest	boycott
Here the Colonists decided to officially separate	2nd Cont. congress
The printer in our Mission US game	Mr. Edes
This city was the center of the rebellion	Boston
This city hosted the Continental Congress meetings	Philadelphia
This man was the leader of England during this time	King George III
The death of this boy caused many to get upset	Christopher Seider
This was name given to our official unified soldiers	Continental Army
This was the number of English colonies that formed on N. America	13
This was the number of deaths resulting from the Boston Massacre	5
This was the wealthiest colony, and where Washington was from	Virginia
This was the colony with the largest group of patriots	Massachusetts