Hey Eyad,

Your e-commerce success story is incredible and motivating for younger people trying to escape the traditional 9-5 route! I've been following your thriving clothing brand and your valuable youtube content.

I saw in one of your videos how you are working on starting your own course. The Knowledge you have with starting an e-commerce clothing brand and the receipts to prove it are very valuable to people looking to start something similar and you should be rewarded for it.

I am a Digital Marketing Specialist. I focus on helping Influencers offering financial courses or programs grow their clientele and keep their existing clients loving them more resulting in more revenue. I have been analyzing top influencers selling courses like Iman Ghazi and Hamza and I concluded with a simple strategy they use leaving the reader with no choice but to join.
