From the President's Pen

My dear friends and neighbors,

I hope that this newsletter finds you well and in good spirits.

I hope 2026 has gotten off to a good start. Did you resolve to make this world a better place this new year? Let's start with our home, our street, and our community.

La Salette Place needs you to be more active!!! Consider becoming a block worker, or joining a committee and using your gifts, talents and trades. Please pay your dues and encourage others to do so. Consider walking your block with me to meet your neighbors.

If you have ideas, information or contacts that you would like to share to strengthen our neighborhood and the Civic Club, please call or text 713-384-8743*. I really want to hear from you! If you choose, you may write a letter and mail to our P.O, Box 14434 or email lasaletteplacecivicclub@gmail.com Please let your voice be heard.*

With grace and compassion, let's begin again,

Laura Tryon
