Join Our Book Club!

You're invited to join our student AND parent book club! You and your child will read the book together and meet at Patterson for fun-filled book discussions and activity time.

Featured Book:

"The World According to Humphrey" follows Humphrey, a hamster, as he observes and interacts with the human world from his cage in Room 26 of Longfellow school. Humphrey, known for his sharp observations and kind heart, witnesses the lives of students, teachers and staff and offers his unique perspective on their joys and struggles.
