Remaining wrestlers will be randomly drawn in via Track Wrestling.
Bracketing:	Varsity: For brackets with 7-10 wrestlers the bracket will consist of 2 pools of 3, 4 or 5 where the winners of each pool meet in the finals, 2nd goes for 3rd/4th, etc. Seeding will still take place where the 1,4,5,8 seeds will be in pool 1 and the 2,3,6,7 seeds will be in pool 2. Brackets with 6 or less wrestlers there will be a round robin style bracket. JV: We will have two divisions for the JV Tournament (Beginner & Advanced). Coaches please use your best judgment when entering your wrestlers. Beginner is mostly for Freshmen and Sophomores who are inexperienced. Advanced is for experienced Freshmen, Sophomores & Juniors and Seniors. Wrestlers will be grouped as close as possible using exact weight, with 4 wrestlers at each weight when possible (Madison Style). Each wrestler will wrestle the other 3 in his weight, using round robin brackets. Every attempt will be made to get each wrestler 3 matches with wrestlers from other schools, however, it may be necessary to pair the same schools in some weights. Match length will be determined based upon the total number of entries.
Schedule of Events:	Except for the first round all other times are approximate.
