Newsletter…for what it is worth…

Here is what is happening,,,April 16th, Richmond Yacht Club "Big Dinghy Regatta" Saturday only…probably the similar format to the winter series, sail inside the reach with Bytes, Sunfish and ?

April 23th "Bullship Race" from Sausalito to San Francisco City Front Marina Green. Get a Cow Ship, escort boat for the ride over and back. It is an Ebb, so whoever can guess the ebb currents on the city front correctly will have the advantage.

May, the Flight of the Bulls on Foster City Lagoon will not happen and we heard from Fremont Sailing Club that the Fremont Relays will not happen on Shoreline Lake. Lake Elizabeth was a great place to hold such an unusual event, but the water is low.

But for now, get your El Toro ready, participation is key, We need dues paid and a new bookkeeper.

COWSHIP ENTRY FORM

Repeating an Aquatic event established in 1954, qualified and experienced San Francisco Bay El Toro sailors are invited to participate in a preseason sailing race from Sausalito to San Francisco. This extremely challenging race (sometimes called the ' TWO HOUR HONOLULU RACE ') has already attracted several entries and more are expected.

The Sixty Sixth Annual Bullship Race is scheduled as was the First, for "El Sabado de Gloria" or Easter Saturday, April 23, 2022. This day marks the end of Lent and the long period of wintry self-denial when few sailors venture on the waters of San Francisco Bay.

March 2022 Commodores Comments

The 2022 Race season is now upon us. Join us March 20th, at Shoreline Lake in Mt. View for our first first of many races in 2022.

Since Lake Elizabeth in Fremont hasn't opened for the 2022 Season we will be hosting our winter or pre-spring series at Mt. View. We will be sailing three or more races per day, depending on the lake conditions.

All sailors will be asked to sign our 2022 Waiver of Liability, copies of which will be available on each race day at the signing table.

Keep the FSC alive by joining us tomorrow morning at Shoreline Park in Mountain View. Skippers meeting will be at 10:30 AM

You can find the FSC 2022 Notice of Races and our 2022 Sailing Instructions by clicking here or the links below.

I will be looking forward to seeing you all at Shoreline.
