Luna is a young girl who is rather shy but still very energetic and bright, her dream is to become a hero and to help other people in need, She wears most of time white bright clothes and some square glasses.

Luna will be fighting alongside Izaak, providing support, she possesses great reaction time however and can synergize well with the boy using her power, she is weaker than Izaak, but is by no means a pushover

Powers:

She can also use her soul as a weapon, like Izaak, her powers are the same as him, except for one thing.

Her soul's element is wind, she can use this in many ways, like creating large gusts of wind, throwing air slashes, increasing her own movement or even attack speed using wind

Moonshield:

She possesses a sword that can create barriers, these come in a large circular shape but she can also make bubbles, they are transparent and yellow.

they can appear and disappear wherever and whenever she desires, as long as it's within her own range (50m)

They can be used for defense, as platforms. You can even bounce or stick on them if she desires. She can make around 20 of these shields at the same time, if weaker and smaller, she can make more, if she tries to make a bigger and stronger one, that means there will be less for her to create.

Special Moves:

Moon Slash: She can combine her barrier and wind power to throw crescent shaped beams towards an opponent

Sword Veil : She creates a blade shaped barrier around her sword

Moon Hero Armor: It is true that her barriers come out in a circular shape,
