

Network Collaborative Courses
CO-FACULTY Course Proposal Questions
Fall 2025 & Spring 2026

Please use this template to prepare your entries on Salesforce

Course Proposal

Name Kamila Mateeva

Institution American University of Central Asia

Semester proposed for course delivery? Spring 2026

Are you co-facilitating a new course or applying for a renewal?

If New...

What is the name of the course you are co-facilitating?

If Renewal...

What is the name of the renewal you are co-facilitating? International Organizations and Advocacy for Human Rights

Will the local course name differ from the NCC course name?

If Yes...

What will the local course name be? Law of International Organizations

Is your course offered online or in person?

If Online...

Would you like to open up your online section to students from other network institutions to register?

Course level at your institution? 300 level

Number of credits at your institution? 6 credits

If your course has any prerequisites, please list them here.

(1,000 characters maximum, including spaces)

Students should have either an intro to human rights course taken, intro to law, philosophy of law or international law or international human rights law course.

What students in your course section (level and fields of study) are expected to enroll in this course? (1,000 characters maximum, including spaces)

Any student who is majoring in political science, law, human rights, international relations, economics or anthropology.

Are you teaching the course as part of your course load? No

Please indicate your status at your institution: Associate Professor of Law

Do you have approval from your home institution to teach this course? Yes

Your bio:

(1,000 characters maximum, including spaces)

Kamila Mateeva is an Associate Professor of Law Program at American University of Central Asia. She holds her Ph.D. degree from Kyrgyz National Academy and Kyrgyz Russian Slavic University (2018, Kyrgyzstan), an LL.M. degree (magna cum laude) from Indiana University School of Law in Indianapolis (2005, USA), and an LL.B. Degree (Valedictorian 2004) from the American University of Central Asia (2004, Kyrgyzstan).

Dr. Mateeva joined AUCA in 2005 and since then she has been teaching full-time since 2005. In 2012-2015 she served as the Head of International and Business Law Department, AUCA. Since 2015 she has been the Director of the LL.M. Program at AUCA. In 2024, she was appointed Head of the International and Business Law Program and head of the Law Division. She served as a member of several university committees. In parallel, Kamila Mateeva is a member of the International Advisory Board for the Human Rights Practice Program at the University of Arizona and a member of the Scientific Advisory Board for the International Court of the CIS organization. She has given lectures and presented her research findings as a guest speaker in partner universities, including Bard College (USA), the University of Arizona (USA), the University of Gdansk (Poland), City University of London (UK), Warsaw State University (Poland), and other universities.

If your course is approved can we include your faculty bio on our website? Yes

Curriculum Vitae (upload document)

NCC Faculty Agreement

If my course is approved, I agree to the following:

- Administering student surveys
- Completing a faculty survey
- Submitting mid-semester and end-of-semester reports (course-lead only)
- Integrating activities/tasks that facilitate cross-network collaboration

Screening

Administrative Review ("Screening") of International Participants

We screen all non-US program participants to ensure compliance with U.S. economic sanctions laws and fulfill a key requirement of grant awards from the Open Society Foundations. We check if names appear on a U.S. Government list of restricted individuals and keeps a record to confirm that it has screened program participants. We does NOT share any information with the U.S. Government on screened individuals.