

Stage 8 mission

So many people NEVER unlock their full potential...

The SMALL and SIMPLE marketer's "productivity secret" you can use as soon as TOMORROW MORNING to crush email swipes in 15 MINUTES or less with HALF the effort!

WARNING: Don't email another client until you discover this one secret that's transforming average copywriters into productivity machines.

I know your pain all too well.

Does this sound familiar to you?

Big plans, big ideas and a HUGE list of tasks that, at the start of each day, you begin to hammer down on with an optimistic and hopeful smile...

But somehow at the end of each day, you come to the inevitable conclusion that...

You're still coming up short.

You know you're not performing ANYWHERE near your highest ability, and that you've got so much more to give!

And you do.

But, how does one unlock the key to that bottomless fuel tank of constant motivation and productivity?

Well first, I want you to picture this..

Imagine your normal, typical, day-to-day work-life routine that you have right now.

Or at least the one you try to stick to.

Tedious, right?

Now, imagine if that same routine was done in half the time, you got 3X as much work done as you normally do, there was no “background noise” or stress filling your head all day and you finally had the free time and energy after to actually do whatever YOU wanted to do with YOUR life for once.

What if you had the exact blueprint to becoming a productive powerhouse and STAYING that way (the hard part that no one knows how to do) in order to develop the confidence, skills and results you need to earn a serious income online?

What if you even were able to IMMEDIATELY free up 2 hours a day due to a few simple tactics that anyone can implement into their lives starting from tomorrow?

What would that do for you, your career and, most importantly, your life?

Toy with that fantasy in your mind for a brief moment.

If this sounds like an absolute dream to you then...

Good news.

You can actually experience that reality, anyone can.

But here's the catch, you gotta WANT IT.

So, if you're actually dedicated to making that dream become a reality, then read on to find out how I've helped countless people in the same position make this life-changing transformation and what you need to know that's holding you back.

(P.S and a real story about how Jason Flaiden went from painting houses for $12/hr to making millions online in a few months.)

Allow me to introduce myself, my name is Matt Kirkstall.

For 15 years, I've taken great pride in being one of the best-performing, most consistent and most productive in-house copywriters at Rapid Crush, Inc.

I've also coached and mentored pools of marketing noobs, intermediate marketers, freelance writers and even ultra-successful businessmen such as Mark Example on how to take their business to the next level in terms of results.

Among other things, that means I also get to work with and experience the genius of THE Jason Fladlien on almost a daily basis.

That's right, THE Jason Fladlien that made $45 million dollars in sales in 30 days...

THE Jason Fladlien that took a derelict business that was sure of failure and flipped it into a thriving global brand in less than a year...

And working so close with Jason, I've discovered his killer secret.

I know exactly WHY Jason is now successfully making millions online every month, touring a different country each week, sought-after by so many big names and why he is so respected by major business icons like Magna, Republic and Neon EVERYWHERE he goes.

However, I also know why it wasn't always like this for him...

He once too struggled, squirmed every day for a way out of his soul-crushing 9-5, scratched his head vigorously at the end of every day having put so many hours into his copywriting side hustle only to have found he had barely got anything done, he had no results and most importantly, no money.

Heck, he even used to paint houses for just a measly $12/hr.

Now, how did he make this seemingly supernatural transformation?

The secret is plain and simple.

PRODUCTIVITY.

But it's how you achieve productivity that's the hard part...

October 15, 2003

On the day of their anniversary, Jason Fladlien's fiancée and girlfriend of 6 years made direct eye contact with him, stared deeply into his soul and screamed "I don't care Jason I don't have any respect for you! I've been cheating on you for the past 3 years and that dumb little side business you're always working on will NEVER go anywhere!"

BANG.

The door slam shut.

Jason was distraught.

After a full week of relentlessly working himself into the ground painting houses, trying to start up his copywriting business in his free hours after work and selflessly tending to both his girlfriend and his 7-year-old daughter, it goes without saying Jason's world had been completely and utterly demolished.

For close to an hour, he sat there halfway down the stairs completely emotionless.

How could someone have done this to him?

An honest man, carrying out honest work everyday and even trying to start up a legitimate business of his own on the side to secure a future for the girl he thought was his soulmate.

Hours started to pass by, filled with nothing but sheer silence.

Then, after a tornado full of gut-wrenching thoughts and emotions, he was suddenly hit with an epiphany.

He found that he only had two choices.

Option 1:

Accept failure, give up and prove every single destructive and vulgar word that his now ex-girlfriend had said to be true, or...

Option 2:

Rise and PROSPER in the face of adversity, strive on and finally create the life he and his daughter deserved by taking his side business to the next level.

He now had both pills in his hands.

The choice was his.

He knew the only option he could live with himself making was option 2, that's just the way Jason is. However, there was still a painfully confusing obstacle standing in his way.

He was already working as hard as he could.

He was already spending 4+ hours on his side business every day, even AFTER full days painting houses, so how was it that he wasn't making any fast progress even after being at it for almost a full year?

He sat and pondered for a few days on what could possibly be holding him back, and he came to the inevitable conclusion that it must have been about his time efficiency.

He was working for tediously long periods of time, but during those periods of time, there wasn't enough work being completed. There weren't enough emails being sent, there weren't enough clients being consulted and most importantly, not enough money being made.

Over the next few months, he started to monstrosly chase education in the art of productivity. He was spending his hard-earned money from his job on countless productivity courses, viciously googling new tactics and mind hacks every day like an animal and trying EVERY single method there was out there, all whilst also working on his copywriting business as well.

Through all this research and pain he eventually started to pick up the pace with his business, and he made the ONE discovery that was the turning point in his career as an online marketer.

SPECIFICITY.

All these mind, time and productivity “hacks” were great and all, but nothing out there was specifically tailored towards an online marketer and showed them exactly where to devote their efforts.

He learned that his lack of progress wasn’t due to his age, his lack of experience, his location, his laziness, his procrastination, or raw IQ and that it definitely wasn’t due to not having enough time.

With all this new found knowledge from months and months of relentless research, combined with the experience from now spending a few years in the game as a copywriter, his career TOOK OFF.

He was easily breezing through long-form sales letters in 3-4 hours that were full formatted and ready to publish, crushing email swipes in 15 minutes or less and using his now personal trademark marketing strategies to consult clients in 40 minutes or less.

Within a few weeks he had finally quit the job he had absolutely despised for so long, he was financially independent and was now working from abroad enjoying the fruits of his labour with his beloved daughter, who now looked up to him as her hero.

And within less than a year he was in DUBAI, generating millions from his online marketing agency, networking with major business icons and had global respect from people in all corners of online business.

But here's the kicker,

One morning, Jason was scrolling through his hundreds of Instagram DMs and somehow managed to stumble upon one that read:

"I'm sorry for everything I said, the guy I left you for ended up being nothing he said he was going to be, he was a complete loser and now all I can think about is you, please message me back."

His ex-girlfriend.

Jason stared blankly at the message for a brief moment... He momentarily debated unleashing all hell on the girl he once loved and finally getting back his bitter, sweet revenge once and for all...

But he simply expressed an ever so slight smile, left the message read and put down his phone.

He was above revenge now.

Now, after years of experience at the very top level on online marketing and personally making the transition from 0 to 100 himself, here's Jason Fladlien's solution that took him from no results to millions of dollars in less than half a year...

Absolute Productivity

Now available again after being delisted and sought after for months, the course that has helped marketing newbies, well-respected freelance writers and even ultra-successful business owners take their productivity and their profits to the next level is back,

For a limited time.

All of the information you need to know to take you to the next level has been crammed into this course so that you can now devour an entire mentoring process in just one weekend.

Oh, and you can also IMMEDIATELY free up two productive hours each day starting from tomorrow.

It really can happen that quickly, because here's the thing:

It's actually not that hard, some would say simple. It's the simple secret that could take any online marketing business and 10X their results! The reason why most business owners haven't got a clue on how to do it is because it can take YEARS of experience, trials and errors in order to figure it out.

That's why I'm giving you this course, so you don't have to go through that same pain.

All of the course's main teachings fall into 3 categories:

- Why productivity should be "optional" and a byproduct of doing ____
- The biggest time wasters in internet marketing PLUS how to kill them once and for all...
- How to immediately free up two productive hours each day starting from TOMORROW

But if you don't want to take Jason Fladlien's advice (the multi-million dollar salesman, who made all the mistakes and who built it all from the ground up with years of priceless experience in the game), then just read what people who we have helped are saying:

{{{[Blah blah customer review it changed my life the team is amazing it was the one thing that I needed to finally achieved desired results 5 stars 5 stars 5 stars]}}}

{{{[Blah blah customer review it changed my life the team is amazing it was the one thing that I needed to finally achieved desired results 5 stars 5 stars 5 stars]}}}

{{{[Blah blah customer review it changed my life the team is amazing it was the one thing that I needed to finally achieved desired results 5 stars 5 stars 5 stars]}}}

So, wanna check this course out right now, without risk?

Here's how it works: This training is a webinar recording, you can watch it at any time, pause, fast forward/rewind and start immediately implementing these explosive productivity techniques, or you can also have a physical course sent out to you in paper if you would like.

We won't make you choose, you can also have both if that's what you'd prefer.

It consists of...

- Why productivity should be “optional” and a byproduct of doing ____ (the techniques and methods Jason learnt off the multi-million dollar business owners he was surrounded by every day in Dubai such as Mark Example, Nick Example and Bradley Example)
- The biggest time wasters in internet marketing PLUS how to kill them once and for all... (Where Jason gets specific about where exactly you should be putting your time and energy and what you NEED to avoid)
- How to immediately free up two productive hours each day starting from TOMORROW (An instantly productivity “hack” that can guarantee you faster results and progress as soon as tomorrow)

This is critical stuff.

This kind of advice can ONLY be shared and taught by actual successful copywriters who've had years of experience, success and failure.

There's no "perfect personality" or certain type of person you have to be in order to be a productive person, it can all be taught. You just need the right information.

And there's more: I'll even throw in a FREE e-Book on how a complete marketing strategy on consulting clients in 40 minutes (This isn't available to the general public anymore, however when it was, it was priced at $99)

Now, with all this information that may change your life, an increase your productivity forever and an investment that will get you your money back many, many times over... You have a lot of power in your hands.

That's why I pulled it off the market for some time, because I wanted to re-think how I allowed writers to get it. At one point, it was selling for $5000 and writers scooped it up.

So you're not going to pay $5000, or even anything close to that.

Instead, would you agree that all that information I've just told you about, PLUS that free e-Book I've just decided to add to the package for just $299 would be a once in a life-time bargain?

In fact, if you were to pick Jason's brain one on one for his productivity secrets, you'd have to shell out $300 per hour - and most likely wait until there's a spot available in his jam-packed schedule.

The life-changing opportunity for you is that in fact you're not going to be paying $299, or even $199...

You'll be grabbing all this information at an outright bargain of just $49.95!

As mentioned before, you'll make this back many, many times over and it'll open up a potential unlimited amount of doors for you once you have so much time freed up for yourself.

In fact, I'm gonna throw in another bonus. Just because, why not?

"What parts of time management can be learnt and what parts must be conditioned" - Another E-book course that sold globally for $99 when it was available.

And there's even more: You'll receive a full 1 hour webinar of Jason Fladlien himself explaining the limiting beliefs he shifted and mindset "hacks" he implemented during his rise to the top of the business world. - This has never been seen before by anyone and is a new accessory we've brought to the course just to help solidify the chances of our clients' success.

And the best bit is, you'll be getting all of this with...

Absolutely 0 Risk

As we offer a 3-Month Unconditional Money Back Guarantee.

If you're not convinced, for any reason (or for no reason at all), you can return the package (in any condition), and you'll receive a prompt refund of your $49.95 purchase price.

No strings attached.

I'm not releasing this life-changing solution to get rich quick, mine and Jason's results already speak for themselves. After all mine and Jason's years in the game, we now have a new found love which is mentoring and teaching.

We love helping people change their lives for the better, the transformations we create for people is enough to put a smile on even the most miserable person on the planet and we pride ourselves on our solid reputation.

I had zero help from anyone when I started out. I know how hard it is to learn the secrets of productivity and writing, and how long it can take with no shortcuts.

So, from writer to writer, this is an opportunity I am making possible for you. From this point, you now have 3 options.
