

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: June 24, 2026

Recover Photo ("the App") is developed and published by John Campbell.

Your privacy is important to us. This Privacy Policy explains how the App handles your information.

Information We Collect

Recover Photo is designed to respect your privacy.

Depending on the features you use, the App may request access to:

- Photos, to display and manage your photo library.
- Calendar, to view and edit your calendar events.
- Local device storage, to save your preferences and app settings.

The App does not collect personal information unless it is required for providing a specific feature.

How Your Information Is Used

Any permissions granted are used solely to provide the functionality of the App, including:

- Viewing and organizing photos.
- Hiding selected photos within the App.
- Viewing, creating, editing, or deleting calendar events.
- Improving your overall experience.

Your data remains on your device unless you explicitly choose to share it.

Third-Party Services

The App may use third-party services such as Apple services or analytics providers that may collect anonymous diagnostic information according to their own privacy policies.

Data Security

We take reasonable measures to help protect your information. However, no method of electronic storage or transmission is completely secure.

Children's Privacy

The App is not directed toward children under the age of 13 and does not knowingly collect personal information from children.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be reflected by updating the Effective Date above.
