

Lisa, a coach that helps physical therapists grow as a business

SL: here is why physical therapists don't choose you as their coach

Hi Lisa

you made a smart decision by niching down, although it's scary, I believe it's the right thing

this opens countless opportunities for you to help physical therapists grow, it's a matter of getting clients, and that's easy to do you already passed the hard part - which is niching down, now the game is about leading physical therapists to choose you as their coach, knowing that you are the best, most trusted choice in the market leaving them with no other option but to choose Lisa - I mean unless they want to choose a bad coach - to you that means:

- 1- higher conversion rate.
- 2- more clients than you can handle.
- 3- 1+2 = Lisa dominates the niche

we going to do that easily by:

- Using your free book as a marketing weapon = you will get more followers.
- thousands of followers + optimized funnel = sky-high conversion rate.

I will happily show you the road, no charge, no catch

Now Lisa, are you ready to turn this vision into your reality?
