COLE'S LEGACY, PART 1

DELSIN ROWE: [answering phone] Yeah, who's this?

RAYMOND WOLFE: Raymond Wolfe, the reporter.

DELSIN ROWE: Woah, like the Raymond Wolfe? The guy who cracked the military's real involvement with the Empire City catastrophe?

RAYMOND WOLFE: Good, you've heard of me. That'll make this easier. I need your help. Go to the Sun Dial park, and I'll tell you more about it.

[MISSION PROMPT: Get to Sun Dial Park]

DELSIN ROWE: Alright man, I'm here. So what do you need?

RAYMOND WOLFE: My editor has been captured by the DUP. He's being questioned as we speak. I'm still looking into where he's being held, but in the meantime, I need you to pick up my most recent story. The DUP are looking for it and I don't want it falling into their hands

DELSIN ROWE: Sure man, how do I find it?

RAYMOND WOLFE: The markers to the drop site are a series of fish stickers I placed that point to the direction. Just follow the fish stickers.

[MISSION PROMPT: Follow the Fish]

[MISSION PROMPT: Defeat the DUP]

DUP AGENT: [sometime during the fight with Delsin] The report's around here somewhere. Find it!

[MISSION PROMPT: Find Wolfe's report]

RAYMOND WOLFE: [on recording] Cole's Gift: Short Lived or Just Beginning, by Raymond Wolfe. It's common knowledge that when Cole MacGrath died he not only cured the plague that was sweeping the world, but took every conduit with him to his grave. What we didn't know was that this would be temporary. Within a year, rumors emerged of the return of the conduit gene. Some believed that the plague had survived and mutated, this time creating conduits rather than killing normals. Some believed that not all the conduits were actually killed, that a few remained and were somehow able to spread their abilities. I've personally looked into both of these urban legends and have yet to find any proof of either of them. Which is why I'm here in Seattle. I believe the DUP know more than they are letting on.

DELSIN ROWE: Wow, that was informative.

COLE'S LEGACY TRANSCRIPT

RAYMOND WOLFE: That's why I'm here. There's more to this story and I think Augustine and the DUP have the key. I'm going to need your help to figure it out. I'll be in touch.

DELSIN ROWE: uh, thanks—or, you're welcome, I guess.

COLE'S LEGACY, PART 2

DELSIN ROWE: Yeah, hello—

RAYMOND WOLFE: [on phone] Delsin, I've gotten a tip on the whereabouts of my editor. He's at the docks about to be shipped out to a secret location. I can't express to you how important it is for us to get him before he's on that boat.

DELSIN ROWE: Hey, don't even sweat, man. I got this. You must have really been working on something serious to have the DUP comin' after you.

RAYMOND WOLFE: We were trying to get to the bottom of how the conduits came back. Haven't you ever wondered how you got your powers?

DELSIN ROWE: Not...really, no. I mean, one day I was just a badass and the next day I was a badass with powers.

RAYMOND WOLFE: The reports my editor and I were getting was that the DUP had a hand in the mass spread of the conduit gene over the last five to six years. I believe that they somehow figured out what was making the conduits return and they figured out how to harness or capture it and bend it to their will. Thus, all the DUP sanctioned conduits you see today.

DELSIN ROWE: Oh, so, basically make something you can't control and then try to control it...sounds just like the DUP. Hey I'll get your editor man, don't worry.

[MISSION PROMPT: RESCUE WOLFE'S EDITOR]

RAYMOND WOLFE: [After DUP APC explodes] Delsin, get out of there! Someone set me up! It's a trap!

DELSIN ROWE: Gee, you think?

[MISSION PROMPT: Defeat the DUP]

DELSIN ROWE: [after defeating all DUP agents] Wolfe, what the hell was that? These guys totally ambushed me!

RAYMOND WOLFE: No, Delsin, the ambush was meant for me. You just happened to be the one who showed up. The DUP was trying to kill me.

COLE'S LEGACY TRANSCRIPT

DELSIN ROWE: Well, I'll tell ya, all they did was manage to piss me off. Let me know if you uncover anything else you need my help with.

COLE'S LEGACY, PART 2 — END

COLE'S LEGACY, PART 3

DELSIN ROWE: Yeah, hello?

RAYMOND WOLFE: [on phone] Delsin, I want you to meet a friend, but I need you to control your trigger finger.

DELSIN ROWE: Who the hell is your friend?

RAYMOND WOLFE: A DUP informant.

DELSIN ROWE: So, all of a sudden, you trust them? What, didn't they just try to kill you?

RAYMOND WOLFE: Don't make the same mistake they make, Delsin. Every group is made up of people and this one person wants to help us.

DELSIN ROWE: Fine, fine, I'll try and control myself.

RAYMOND WOLFE: Good. He'll escort you to a secret DUP meeting. I have no idea what they're going to be discussing, but it must be big for them to meet like this. Feel free to express how you feel about them trying to blow you up.

[MISSION PROMPT: Meet DUP informant]

DELSIN ROWE: I guess I'm supposed to follow you—hey, wait up!

[MISSION PROMPT: Follow DUP informant]

DUP INFORMANT: The meeting's down there. You're on your own. Good luck.

[MISSION PROMPT: Break Up Meeting]

[MISSION PROMPT: Collect DUP Intelligence]

BROOKE AUGUSTINE: Report by Augustine. While the inciting incident that supposedly claimed the lives of all the conduits was in fact a lie, it was not one created by the DUP. Conduits did live through Cole's Gift, myself included. Instead, we used the calm to build, learn, and prepare. We got better at early detection and collection. Curdun Cay's facilities were upgraded and we built an army. The events here in Seattle will ensure the DUP will be funded for the foreseeable future. This will allow me to expand our facilities abroad. We have made an excellent headway on establishing a permanent science facility in Australia. The work we've already done there using Dr. Sebastian Wolfe's notes on the conduit is, well, awe inspiring, even to me.

DELSIN ROWE: Heh, Sebastian Wolfe, and you're Raymond Wolfe. What are the odds?

RAYMOND WOLFE: He was my brother.

DELSIN ROWE: Oh, sorry man.

RAYMOND WOLFE: Don't worry about it. I'm going to talk to my contacts about getting to Australia. I'll be in touch, Delsin. Thanks for your help.

COLE'S LEGACY, PART 3 — END

COLE'S LEGACY, PART 4

RAYMOND WOLFE: [on phone] Delsin, there's someone I want you to talk with. He's been a useful source for me and a powerful force in the anti-DUP resistance movement.

ZEKE DUNBAR: [on phone] Hey, buddy. You don't know me and that's likely for the best. I was there at the beginning. Well anyway, I've got some advice for ya if you're willing to listen to an old hound dog like me.

DELSIN ROWE: Doesn't sound like I have much of a choice.

ZEKE DUNBAR: Great. Great. Anyway...I'm sure you've got a lot of questions about what's going on with your body. Your hormones are all on fire and you just want to explode.

DELSIN ROWE: Woah, man, what are you talking about?

ZEKE DUNBAR: But you've got to keep in all that conduit juice. It's dangerous. You understand me? Now when the time is right, you will find the right person to direct it towards and that moment is going to be a turning point for you, my friend. It'll be like a big firework sandwich and you just want to make sure you are safe about biting into that firework sandwich, because it's gonna have fireworks in it...could be bad. You follow me?

DELSIN ROWE: No, not exactly.

ZEKE DUNBAR: Great. Good talk, good talk. Now you take care of yourself buddy.

COLE'S LEGACY, PART 4 — END

COLE'S LEGACY FINALE

DELSIN ROWE: Yeah, who's this?

RAYMOND WOLFE: Delsin! They found me. I need your help. NOW!

COLE'S LEGACY TRANSCRIPT

[MISSION PROMPT: Get to Wolfe's Location]

[MISSION PROMPT: Investigate Wolfe's Body]

[MISSION PROMPT: Follow the Fish]

RAYMOND WOLFE: [on dead drop] Delsin, if you're hearing this, then I'm dead. I have a final request for you. Take all the photos, notes, and evidence to Zeke. He'll make sure it gets out to the people. And Delsin, watch your actions. They will not only define you, but the whole world. Don't be so hard on your brother. I spent the last decade trying to prove mine was responsible for all the bad that's happened in the world. It's not worth it. Raymond Wolfe signing off.

DELSIN ROWE: Who is calling me...

ZEKE DUNBAR: [on phone] Delsin, it's Zeke. I just heard...how can I help?

DELSIN ROWE: Yeah, he said I should give you his notes. So where should we meet?

ZEKE DUNBAR: Great. Now I can get them out to the people who need them. Now, as far as meeting up...now don't take this the wrong way but I kinda got this whole undercover thing going on right now and being seen with you wouldn't be the best for my image...or, lack of one, you know? I'll send you the location for a dead drop and I'll take it from there.

[MISSION PROMPT: Deliver Wolfe's Notes]

DELSIN ROWE: Alright, I dropped off all his notes. What are you going to do with them?

ZEKE DUNBAR: [on phone] There's a group of us, we all met online. We've been chipping away at the DUP's armor. With any luck, Wolfe's notes will show us a weak spot. Either way, don't be surprised if you start seeing all of this stuff out on the interwebs. I'll be in touch—and hey, Cole would be proud.

DELSIN ROWE: Uh cool, thanks. Talk to you later, Zeke.
