WARNING: DO NOT HARASS ANYONE MENTIONED IN THIS DOCUMENT. THIS IS ONLY TO WARN / EXPOSE @RALTANOS

Hello, This document here will be compiling most, if not all of the abusive, disgusting and predatory actions @Raltanos otherwise @raltanosv2 on X has done to me, and another victim. They go by many names so if I mention “Leigh”, “Alex”, or “Dallas” I’m talking about the same person. Also please excuse if I switch between he/she during this document, they were transgender when I met them so the he/him pronouns stuck to me. I would rather stay anonymous since I’m afraid that Leigh may try to attack me and/or others if she knows who is writing this, and she may try to take this down.

If you too have suffered narcissistic abuse or had predatory messages from someone with the names above, please tell us since you may be another victim to this person.

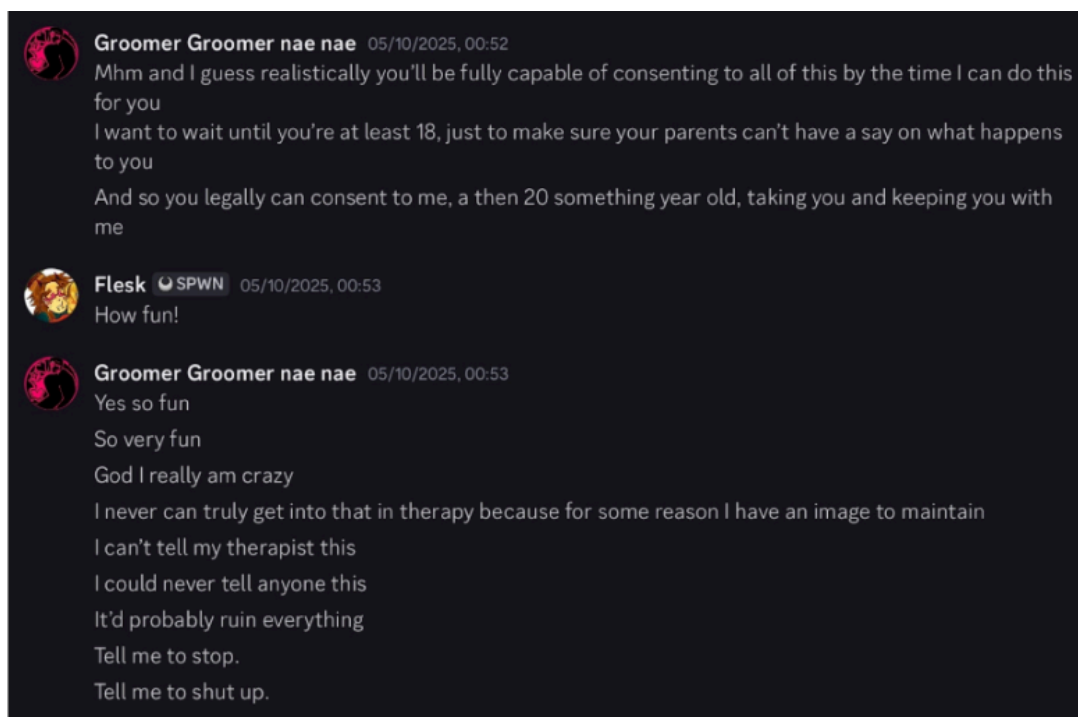

I will link a document that a previous victim has made to vent against this user and I will screenshot parts as well as add my own commentary with similar experiences with the tactics Alex has made against this person, and me.

Just to clarify, in the webex video, she sent me a video of her masturbating!

This isn't the first time Dallas has sent sexual images/videos to minors before. I recall that Leigh has sent me not one, but two photos [Non-consecutive] of her in sexually explicit poses [I was also 14 at the time btw]. One was of her standing in her room in her underwear posing at the camera, and the second was her laying down, where you could see her ass.

Do I really need to say more? Just more confirmation that she's a manipulative narcissistic predator that KNOWS that she's doing is WRONG but she doesn't care. She doesn't want people to see that she's a creepy person trying to "keep" a kid and that's what she means by "I could never tell anyone about this" and "I have an image to maintain". If she didn't think what she was doing was bad, she wouldn't be talking like

Saying this 2 me during a whole psychotic break or wtv is mad crazy and ur down bad for even saying this to me

She's said similar things to me over the summer back in 2020/2021 if I remember correctly- I wasn't able to get online much and talk to her, and she spoke harshly and got upset when I couldn't. I really don't like this cycle of behavior I'm seeing.

UNCOMFORTABLE.

Shut shut shut shut shut shut shut
SHUT UPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPPP

She never could keep things in his pants. That's one of the traits I hated in Dallas. Like, you met me just 14 hours ago and you're already wanting to erp in dms?? It's honestly disturbing and annoying.

 Curious George 22:10
I sound like a pred...oh my god...
Oughh..

 Curious George 22:11
Intrusive thought thing...
The whole thing I keep randomly tweaking out about where I think I'm a pedophile

 7n7  xp 22:13
I dont see you that way

 Curious George 22:13
I know hun it's just the way my brain works unfortunately
I think maybe it'll stop when we're both adults, hopefully

 7n7  xp 22:14
maybbbbbbee!!!
You did say we would be parents when i was 17 and stuff is that still gonna happen

 Curious George 22:15
Only if you'd like to I mean I have no objections aside from he fact you'd still be in high school and I'd be in college and I just have the one fear of accidental neglect

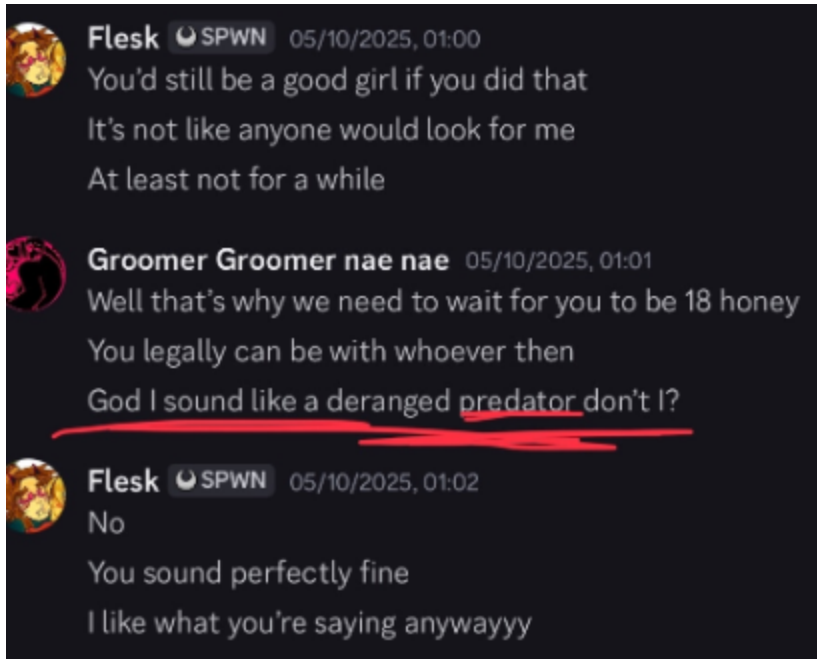

She's not a pedophile [I think-] but after seeing what she has done that I have not known, I do know that Leigh is creepy, narcissistic, and very predatory in her words, the way she tries to keep this relationship a secret so no one can call her out is very disgusting.

 Curious George 01:00
Would you be mad...if I said I goon to my wallpaper of you sometimes..

 7n7  xp 01:03
WHAT

Wallpaper of my face. Remember im 14 and shes about to turn 17 in 10 days

Nevermind she MIGHT be a pedophile.

I wanted to add this since it's weird how self-aware she is about what she's doing but still doing it anyway.

Next I'll add the accounts that K told me himself since it recounts the backlash that Leigh has done to "maintain" her image.

wanted to know if he really is a groomer 5:09 PM

Well yeah, I called Leigh a groomer, but I'm not even sure about the label anymore. Me and Leigh met when I was around 11 or 12 and she was around 14 (lol I thought she was 20 at this time that's funny). I was a huge fan of her Orin ayo art, especially one of she made of my favorite character. I don't know how, but I got her discord and we talked for a bit, but then we stopped for a bit and it was fine. But around 2025 I think? She texted me again and we became friends. I didn't know how old she was and I don't think she knew how old I was.

When I was 13 we were really close and I relied on her for a lot and I loved her. I would talk about darkshipping and stuff and she would indulge in my behavior and talk about it as well, and would also talk about sexual stuff involving her, which i thought was normal because i was used to stuff like that already. After my birthday (around July or August) we got together. She would've known about my age by then because I posted art about me being fourteen, but I still didn't know her age by then. The relationship was good at first, but then it would get more and more sexual and I was okay with it at first, I didn't see anything wrong with it at the time.

But slowly the sexual stuff got too much and it made me tired and confused about myself, I didn't know if I actually liked it or not, but I'm a people pleaser, so I let her continue, which really fucked up my mental wellbeing.

This shit kept happening every single day until the early morning when I was supposed to be asleep and I didn't know how to express my discomfort so I would vent to my friends about it, lol.

Soon enough, i would get sent videos of her masturbating and would go on calls with her and listen to her touch herself while she wanted to me text her through it, and there were times she would video call and watch her piss lol (because I would talk about piss a lot as a joke).

It even spread into my own free time, she would talk about her drinking a lot of water and then bring me up in public chats with my friends and when we would play forsaken, she would private chat me asking if we would leave so we could call and yknow

Show less

5:32 PM

I see, but that is pretty disgusting of her to do- ;_;;
She's also sent me inappropriate pictures like that

Soon I started to avoid her every chance I could get and would ignore her after she brought up sexual shit again (and I'm pretty sure she asked me to send a photo of myself, which I ignored as well)

I continued to rant to my friends about it and one day I really wanted to do something to fuck with her and I acted like I was schizophrenic and would have breakdowns right in front of her on text (but they were slowly getting truthful and I would actually have breakdowns in front of my friends as well)

I did this once for a week and Leigh texted me 44 times for not texting for one day. When I slowly stopped doing that she would talk about how she wanted to do stuff but I wasn't "better" according to her.

One day she had done something and I had enough and started texting my friend Carlos about everything and he encouraged me to make a rant doc, which I did, and I put everything I thought was important in there and shared it to him and my friends, and he wanted to spread it around, so I did. Somehow she got it, I don't know how, but she did, and soon enough, my own friends, even Carlos (who was my best friend), turned on me and I lost everyone and everything idk

Sorry if all of this is messy, this was a really traumatic thing for me and it's fuzzy now so Here Leigh has yet again done more overall disgusting things such as pissing on a vc. Honestly, most of the sexual impulsives that she's shown throughout her time with K could be explained by her "hypersexuality" that she explained earlier, but it doesn't excuse her from trying to impose her own BDSM kinks on this kid.

Not to mention that after he didn't want anything to do with her, and exposed her actions, Leigh has made a rebuttal document that has made herself look like the victim. She says it was due to "bad decisions" and "high stress" and past allegations that caused her to do things. Leigh also has manipulated K's friends into turning on, though we'll never know exactly what Dallas has said to convince them, she could've told any number of lies to seem like the "reasonable" person in the situation.

HER TACTICS [DARVO]

I will say this again later but this is a classic case of DARVO [Deny, Attack, Reverse Victim, and Offender] and it is used by abusers and manipulators to seem innocent, while downplaying the victim. First of all, Leigh started by denying the predatory behavior and constantly repeating them in a joking manner while talking with K without showing any way of knowing she is joking. Next Dallas discredits K by saying that he "consented" to it and provided little context, despite what K claims/posted. And lastly, she talks about "feeling bad" and claims she might have hurt him, along with off-topic remarks about a stalker and a past allegation with another 12 year old as a way to make herself look like a victim as well. Although those reasons might be valid, I'm sure it doesn't make people send gooning videos to their younger partner, does it?

And lastly, I want to share my own experience with Leigh. I've known them for about 4/5 years, but I'll shorten it down and focus on the important and problematic moments.

SPRING 2021

So about 4 years ago, I met Dallas in discord, and right from the start, they were a very horny person. They didn't know who I was, or even asked for my name, and they wanted to erp with me [Erotic roleplay]. After that, I got really attached to them, though I will say that I was a brat when I was younger. I would joke a lot and Dallas would not like it, though most of the time he just assumed I was trying to hurt him. This led to a lot of confusion since I would call Leigh a harmless insult [a briefed baboon, a reference from a show I liked] and she would think I was being a racist even though I knew VERY little about her. Soon enough she would show her more possessive side as time passed.

One time in class I told her about how I was being bullied at school, with these guys who stole my hat and hid it in a tree, and I thought I could confide in her since normally I don't like to talk about my feelings. She told me that she didn't really care but I brushed it off as her just joking, but I had to pack up my things for lunch and I couldn't talk to her. When I opened my computer to talk after lunch, she said a lot of hurtful things to me such as "See? This is why you deserve it." and "You deserve to have your shit stolen." since she thought I was ignoring her.

SUMMER/FALL 2021

Then there was the time that I was causing some mischief in her discord server, and she muted me there. Then on dms, she explained that she could just never unmute me and make me only hers. Not too different from K's own screenshots can show of her behavior. After a few months of this back and forth, she got mad that I wasn't able to be there yesterday, and she blocked me.

But I wasn't over her yet, back then I was obsessed- I never talked with anyone like her so I told her on a different site that I was busy and such and I didn't mean to ignore her. She said that she wanted to see me over the summer, and for me to join back in her discord.

I made excuses not to go back each time she asked, and she got fed up. I never told her, since I knew she would use this to bully me, but I couldn't talk to her since my parents saw all the rude, horrible things she said to me when she got mad, and they didn't want me to talk to her. But I lied since I didn't want to look like a loser in her eyes.

Not long after they made a callout post calling me a "groomer" and that I "physically assaulted them". For context, I was 14 and they were 12. That's not grooming. And second, we lived in different states so it's impossible for a 14 year old to travel far out of state just to abuse someone. This is another case of DARVO. Dallas wanted me to stay down, and be discredited later on if I would speak up. Either way, people saw the post, and I lost so many friends on that site. I tried to get over Leigh, but all I could think about was how they thought I was a bad person. I wanted to be their friend, I wanted to make them happy the best I could, but nothing I did was ever enough. They hated me, I know, and all I could feel was that I was a bad person, a horrible dirty person.

When I made a new discord account to talk with Dallas, he took the chance to just belittle me. He called me names, always silenced me on his server and told everyone that I was just some cringe kid. Eventually he made another server. It was dedicated to hating me. Dallas and her friends would make fun of me, day in and day out. They told me to "kill yourself already, sweetie." And many times I considered it. But I stayed. Because I thought that maybe, Leigh would change and like me again. I needed him. His approval. I needed to know I wasn't bad. It was eating my head, my thoughts, I cried all the time because I believed I was good for nothing. Leigh said I was nothing to him, and who was I to question it? After a while, I saw Dallas venting about two of her partners leaving her, and calling her toxic. I felt bad, and I thought this was my chance to show that I could listen. I could be better. So I comforted them, and I tried to talk them out of their bad thoughts.

Dallas looked so grateful. He looked so happy to know he wasn't alone. He offered to be my girlfriend. What a naive, little carpet munching fool I was back then. I believed him, I thought I was back at home. He loved me again, he didn't think I was bad. I was so happy to have him.

But I talked to one of my friends, J, in dms about it. He said it was just a mask. "Why did he SUDDENLY need you now?"

I brushed it off as just love, but I told J I would think about it. Dallas caught wind of it somehow, and her rage was great.

She went on this essay-like rant about how I was just like everyone else and that I didn't care about her feelings. I tried to tell her that I did and I was just suspicious, but she doubled down.

Leigh told me she never loved me, and I never made her happy. I will always be bad and I should just kill myself for her. This absolutely wrecked me, I can't even describe it.

I cried for days. I couldn't get over it, even to this day I can FEEL the fucking words, HEAR IT IN MY EAR, like she's screaming it inside me. Im tearing up writing this as well since it pained me just, so much.

SUMMER/FALL 2025 - WINTER/SPRING 2026

For a while after, I tried to talk to him, making multiple accounts, but it never worked. I slowly realized what he had done to me, and I stopped trying to reach out. I couldn't get over what he did and I never will. I have spent the last month trying to figure out what caused him to delete his accounts and it led me to find K. Another person, used by Leigh like me. I won't let Dallas get away with this. The years she spent abusing people. This isn't the case of a 14-16 year old "not knowing" what she's doing or being "overwhelmed". The repeated behaviors suggest that this is a planned behavior pattern, similar with child predators and abusers.

Thank you for reading this doc. It took a while to gather the info and victim's story, as well as muster up the courage to recall my experiences. This would've been longer if I had access to my original discord account with my dms with Dallas, but I hope you are convinced with my witness.
