

Subject: The Greatest Value any woman can give.

Hey (name)

Today I wanted to Talk About How special Having a wife Is...

Specifically, I want to talk about the hard work and dedication that your wife puts into her role as A Stay-At-Home-Mom.

Your wife's dedication to you and your family is the most important job she has and she doesn't get paid for it. Because of the fact she does it all out of unconditional love, That Makes her very valuable and precious to her family And Husband.

She Makes sure the home is clean, Food Is delicious, children are dressed well and ready for school. Raises the sons to be fine gentlemen and the daughters to grow up in great honor.

That In it of itself is irreplaceable. There's no way anyone should think stay-at-home moms are useless or weak.

Their strength to do this for a lifetime is immeasurable, So If you are married and have kids Make sure you let your wife know that You are very grateful to her and her efforts.

Subject: Marriage is pointless.

Hey, (Name)

I'm going to talk about reasons why marriage can get pointless

If you are married and you only get sex about once or twice a year then its pointless

If you are married and you don't even laugh or feel happy with your wife then it's pointless

A marriage without learning to grow with your wife is pointless.

A marriage without kids is pointless.

The Point I'm making is that nothing in your life should be pointless

You either end it or fix it.

Subject: Family over money

Hey (name)

Today I wanted to talk about the importance of family.

Because a strong structured family comes with a good life.

No amount of money in the world can replace your family and I'm sure you already know that..

I would rather make less money and be a part of my children's life than make more only to hear about it.

Because my family is dear to me and it's one of the only reasons in this world that I can keep going.

Remember, you can always make more money, but you can never get back lost time with your family. So cherish every moment you have with them, and make the most of the time you have together.

Our families give us purpose and motivation. They're the ones who support us through thick and thin, and who make life worth living.

Best regards (Name)
