

BELMONT HIGH SCHOOL

STUDENT RAIDER REPORT

REMOTE MONDAY MOMENTS!!!!

Below is a description of something done each day in Mrs. Takantjas' French class. Watch her video HERE!

Bonjour! In French class we begin each day with calendar talk and chit chat. We talk about the date, the weather, and our activities that we have that day, that we did the day before, or that are coming up in the future. This is a good way to practice conversing in French and students get used to hearing and using different tenses. In class, we use a big calendar to mark important events such as birthdays or sports games. Sometimes we talk about a current event, or I tell a story in French.

Madame Takantjas

Be sure to tune in next week when we will feature Mrs. Deuell!

GOLF: BHS Seniors Keep Rolling!

Oliver Mahoney had a career best second place at a Canterbury Woods match early in the week, along with Eamon Kelley's third place overall. Jackson Ruelke also had a hole-in-one this week! Later in the week, at the seniors' last match at Canterbury, the team swept the event, led by Kyle Plaza's 48. It was a great week for the team!

Belmont/Gilford Football

At Saturday's (10/10) home game against Kennett, Belmont seniors Jacob Cress and Michael Dandurand were honored. Both athletes have played G/B football for 4 seasons!
