By participating in a NXNE event, you hereby agree to the following rules and regulations.

General

Each individual must have a legal copy of StarCraft II: Legacy of the Void in order to be classified as a tournament participant.
Barcode accounts (ID name: IIIIIIII) or smurf accounts are not allowed to participate unless approved by an administrator.
NXNE reserves the right to change the rules at any time.
Tournament organizers may make decisions on situations not specifically covered in the rules as they see fit.

Competition Format

If a match cannot be played, the participating parties (player 1 and player 2) must consult with an admin. Reasons include:
Opponent is not online or in the channel
Opponent is not ready to play 10 minutes after the scheduled match time
Should a participant choose to forfeit a match, they agree to forfeit any prizes.
Violation of any rules listed here or onsite during the tournament may result in a warning or disqualification depending on the severity. Repeated offenses will result in a permanent ban from future BaseTradeTV tournaments.
In-Game

When competing, participants must change their settings to ensure messages cannot be received in game:
Menu -> Options > Social -> ‘Set status to busy when playing a game’
If a player wishes to pause in game, they must provide reasoning for the pause. The player who pauses must confirm their opponent is ready before unpausing.
Surrendering only counts when using the surrender function in game. If your opponent types ‘GG’, continue to play until the victory sign appears.

Coverage/Observers

Only approved casters are allowed to cast tournament games. An admin will list approved casters during the tournament.
BaseTradeTV casters: Zombiegrub, Rifkin, feardragon
All players have the right to refuse casting from other community casters besides BaseTradeTV.

Games may only be observed by approved casters and admins. Spectators besides casters/admins are not allowed in any circumstances.
The admin may request matches be held for casting. Request matches must wait for admin approval to begin.
If a qualifying or prize winning match begins without the casters or without admin approval, the match may not count in the final score.
By participating in a tournament every player agrees that all replays of the regarding tournament may be distributed to the coverage partners and/or used in further events.

Cheating

Use of third party software, bugs, or cheats is absolutely prohibited and results in an immediate disqualification and permanent ban from any and all future BaseTradeTV tournaments.
Having any stream related to the tournament open, listening/watching casts, or having information delivered regarding tournament casts during your game is forbidden.
BaseTradeTV reserves the right to bar players from participation should the player be banned from other leagues due to accusations of cheating/poor behavior.

Disconnects and Re-hosts

Should a player disconnect during a game, the game must be recovered using the same players.
Players are not allowed to watch the replay before recovering it. Watching the replay prior to recovery may result in disqualification.
Should a player suspect suspicious behavior, they must consult the admins immediately.

Behavior

Players, admins, and casters are expected to behave professionally and appropriately.
Offensive behavior or verbal attacks will not be tolerated and can result in a disqualification.
Intentionally delaying the tournament is a punishable offense to be determined by the admins.

Referees and Admins

All referees and admins represent the tournament and required to work in a professional and organized manner. They are responsible for upholding the rules.
Admins may contact a player at any time during the tournament. It is the players responsibility to respond as soon as possible.
Admins may postpone a match to allow casters or observers to join.

Payment

Payouts for NXNE funded events will be done 60 days after the tournament concludes.
Payouts will be done in CAD unless otherwise specified.
Players have 90 days to claim their prize from NXNE events or they shall forfeit any claims to said prize.
