

DATE	Saturday 8 th June, 2013
VENUE	St. Mary's College, New St, Ponsonby, Auckland
COST	Free to NZAFT members $20 to non NZAFT members (which also subscribes you to NZAFT)
LANGUAGE	En français (most of the time)
FORMAT OF THE DAY
9:30am	Welcome – Sue Pommarède – President NZAFT Housekeeping – Wayne Lynch
9:45am	WW1 centennial project 'Young Torchbearers' Presentation of new project to celebrate the centenary of WW1 Glenda Palmer - National Adviser, French
10:15am	Conversation with Patrick Coustance – Education Attaché, Ambassade de France, Wellington Teaching and learning French in NZ, opportunities etc
10:45am	MORNING TEA - (kindly sponsored by NZALT Auckland)
11:00am	Capturing learning evidence Tools to support learning. Bring own device and a resource to share and /

	or finetune Pascale Hyboud-Peron – NZAFT Senior Vice President / Liaison Officer
11:50am	Recettes éprouvées Round robin sharing of tried and tested ideas in the language classroom Wayne and Priscilla Lynch NZAFT Treasurer
12:40pm	SHARED LUNCH (in the staffroom). Please bring a plate. Arrival and introduction of His Excellency Mr Francis Etienne, French Ambassador in NZ
1:30pm	DEL F Scolaire Workshop on how to mark DELF assessments (also used for Alliance Française Concours Oral). Jean Marc Dépierre/ Aude Shortland – Alliance Française Auckland	Organic sharing discussion Encouraging the use of TL in the classroom Bring your ideas: what works well, what can be tweaked, what your students like etc.

Finish approx. 2:30pm