

MENTORSHIP PROGRAMME

1:1 with Jyoti

3 months · Weekly calls · Photography

If you want to develop a body of work, have no idea where to start, need a mentor to help you stay on track and build a portfolio: this is for you.

THE OFFER

For photographers who want to work on long-term projects: developing your work, applying to festivals, residencies, and grants.

Weekly 1:1 calls. We work through your project together, at your pace. Between sessions you'll have direction, not just feedback.

WHAT WE COVER

- Starting and developing a long-term project
- Building a coherent body of work
- Writing artist statements and project descriptions
- Applying to festivals, residencies, and open calls
- Grant applications
- Presenting your work

WHO THIS IS FOR

Photographers who are serious about their practice and want to work on something long-term. You don't need to have everything figured out, you just need to be committed to the work.
