

Dear Editor:

House Bill Request 69 (BR69) states that no “individual should feel discomfort, guilt, anguish, or any other form of psychological distress” in school. Well, there goes math class!