

Game Over Mystery Science Theater (G.O. MST)

Episode 5-2

Co-riffer: Twilight Midna / Etna the Daydreamer

Reading key: Text spoken by the characters will be in 9-point indented bolded type. The story is not bolded. Chapter titles are bold and italicized while the story title is also underlined.

Yosie: So I've been in contact with the author of the fic since the last part.

Midna: Ooh, fun. What'd they say?

Yosie: One, it's a he. Two, he's actually showed me the rewrite he's doing as well as explained a few of the changes from the get-go.

Midna: To make this story better, you'd basically have to rewrite it from the ground up.

Yosie: Well it's better than the original. To be fair, anything's better than the original, but it's still an improvement. For one, Kari dies during the invasion.

Midna: It just doesn't feel the same without the requisite Kari Sue.

Yosie: Also, the fic was originally posted to Lemmy's Land, as the description states, but apparently when he put it on FF.net, he forgot to make sure all the formatting transferred over since it's not always so clean. You know that FF.net has a problem with consecutive asterisks?

Midna: Not really... no.

Yosie: It does. Trust me, a few of my fics used that classic three-asterisk separator, which I had to change for the site. Wardog just didn't think to look over the page and see if it was as he wanted. And that's why I'm so obsessive-compulsive with rereading everything I write.

Midna: NEEEEEEEEERD!

Yosie: Anyways, I lined up the next four chapters for us to shoot at. Beyond here I have no pre-prepared riffs from my first attempt, and beyond the third chapter here I'm blind on the story itself.

Midna: Hey, I was blind since the beginning. You had it lucky!

Yosie: You think I'm lucky, having to read this even a little before you did? Anyways, shall we begin?

Midna: Round one! Fight!

Nintendo Realms

Chapter 5 Failure To Cooperate

Yosie: I wonder if that counts as alliteration?

Midna: We've got a chapter 5 failure to cooperate here, backup requested. Over.

Chapter 5: Failure to Cooperate

We view the inside of the ruins of E3.

Yosie: They had to call in SWAT, that's how out of hand the convention got.

Midna: All those reporters... all those games... gone...

The general is tied up to a pole in the middle of a large room.

Midna: In EXACTLY the middle of the room.

Yosie: Middle's the best estimate. It's so big you can't see the walls.

He has a large scar on his right eye and scratches are all over his shirtless chest.

Yosie: Those were always there, the author just felt a need to describe them now.

Midna: He's available, ladies.

The slide doors open as four Space Pirates march towards the general they then depart as a shadowy figure with horns approaches the general. The figure is very tall and is covered with armor.

Midna: I knew it! I KNEW this was turning into a Final Fantasy game!

It wears a leather cape and has black gauntlets.

Yosie: I want to say this based on something, but I'm at a loss as to what that doesn't involve Yu-Gi-Oh cards.

" I knew you'd be behind this. It's always the project gone wrong." the general said as he looked up at the tall, menacing figure.

Midna: I knew you would be behind writing Nintendo Wars. It's always the project gone wrong.

Yosie: Well now, that's just racist.

The figure took a knife from under his glove and put it against the general's throat. " Antagessis!

Midna: Antagessis. ...The villain's name is Antagessis. Sigh.

Yosie: Antagessis-sis-sis. ...sis. If I didn't know the author wrote this in junior high, I'd assume this would be a pun on "antithesis."

Midna: It's the antagessis of a cool name.

Never again shall Nintendo create an M rated mascot!" the general threatened.

Yosie: I thought that was Joanna Dark.

Midna: "We're a 100% squeaky-clean family-friendly company! Or were! At some point! Back in the nineties!"

" Isn't it amazing what happens when one becomes competitive?" Antagessis said as he held the knife closer to his throat.

Midna: Wow, you have to really screw up to give your character a name so terrible he's willing to commit suicide over it.

" Now tell me where member number 3 went. She's not in the corpse list or the troop ceremony." the foe said.

Yosie: A troop ceremony? You mean the prisoners of war from the soldiers you didn't kill?

" It matters not. When She and Mario find the other heroes you'll..." before he could finish Antagessis slit his throat.

Midna: 2br00tal4me

He sheathed the knife back into his glove then turned to the others. " Failure to Cooperate will not be tolerated in the least with me.

Yosie: Weak typesmanship, on the other hand...

Midna: ", said crappy Darth Vader knockoff #I've lost count.

It's time to summon the Five Foes Of Nintendo." Antagessis ordered.

Yosie: Five foes vs four heroes. Great, Kari gets one all to herself.

Midna: Wait it's just... what... okay, hold on... why are you calling them the Five Foes of Nintendo if one of them isn't involved with Nintendo at all?

One of the Space Pirates nodded and walked towards a computer. It typed in the first word:

BOWSER

Midna: "Wait, why is it only bringing up pictures of dogs?"

Yosie: (Antagessis) "I'm more curious how you managed to type with those big meaty claws."

The space pirate then hit the enter key.

Midna: "Ahem. What did you say, punk?"

Yosie: (Antagessis) "I said BIG. MEATY. CLAWS."

The teleporter began to glow as a large turtle like monster stepped out of the machine. It was as very tail

Midna: Hao dew eye gramurr

Yosie: Very tail. Much Bowser. Wow.

with two horns, red hair, and a turtle shell covered in spikes. The computer read it's data similar to the DS.

Yosie: Probably the same database.

Midna: But DS emulators are illegal!

Villain Member: Bowser

Game: Mario (Series)

Des. King of Koopas and Fire Breathing Tyrant of Mushroom Kingdom

Yosie: You mean the next country over, guy from Lemmy's Land?

Midna: Wouldn't he have to rule over the country to be a tyrant?

Attacks: Fire Breath, Claws, Shell Spin, Shock-waves

Yosie: I'd call that his special move listing from Smash Bros if the Up-B was given its proper name, "Whirling Fortress."

Weakness: Lava/ Bombs

Yosie: "Basically, big heat. Except his own fire breath. Science has its hypothesis."
...Wait, I thought only the heroes got weaknesses.

" HEY! Where am I!" Bowser yelled as he stamped his feet. " What's going on here!

Midna: "Question marks! What are those!! The King of the Koopas is too MANLY for question marks!"

As king of Koopas I DEMAND an explanation." the giant reptile said impatiently.

Midna: "Impatiently," said Kraid.

Antagessis walked towards Bowser not scared in the least. He put one of his dark gauntlet's on the king's shoulder.

Yosie: And then Bowser ripped his arm off for touching him. And negated his powerup.

" You see that computer over there?" he said as he pointed one of his long fingers at the machine. " I used that to teleport you here and I will teleport others as well. " What do you mean by others?" Bowser growled.

Midna: That's not how quote marks work... like, at all.

Yosie: They have to share. It's a union thing.

" Why your time to seek revenge on Mario of course." the sly villain said. " I get to seek revenge on Mario?" Bowser said starting to lower his tense shoulders. " Precisely.

Yosie: (Antagessis) "And without the burden of using proper paragraph structure."

Midna: " , " said Antagessis.

All you have to do is help me get rid of my rival and the others as well." Antagessis said in his dark, crispy voice.

Yosie: What rival? "M-rated mascot" meant he was supposed to be his game's playable character. If this guy's such a jerk, what does his villain look like?

" You mentioned the others before. Who are they?" Bowser said as he folded his arms. " Why the other villains of Nintendo. They will be brought here as soon as I know their names." Antagessis then let go of Bowser and walked away.

Yosie: Kari's not the only one without a childhood, I see.

Midna: There are more than five Nintendo villains, though.

" How will you be able to know their names?" Bowser asked exposing his curiosity. Antagessis turned around " When Mario finds one of the heroes, their rival shall appear on that screen." Immediately after he said that something came up on his computer.

Midna: "How'd that get on here? Heheh, excuse me for a second," said Antagessis before leaving to smack someone.

Yosie: Did his mom e-mail his baby pictures to work again?

It read..

NEW VILLAIN CONTACTED

LOADING 4

Yosie: 4? For what? For hours, for days, what?

Midna: 4chan.

Yosie: If that were the case, this wouldn't have gotten on LL in the first place.

Midna: 4squared.

" You see? All is going according to plan." Antagessis said as both he and Bowser looked at the screen.

Midna: How to sound like a villain and sound incredibly clichéd in the process 101.

Yosie: ~According to plan, our son will be married / According to plan, our family carried / We'll go right into the heights of society...~

Yosie: Well, that was short.

Midna: Let's count our blessings.

Yosie: That somehow didn't numb the stupidity at all. And the villain has ceased to really capture my interest.

Midna: Antagessis.

Yosie: ...Ohhhhhh. Now I get it. That would explain the complete lack of interest whatsoever. Well, onwards then.

Chapter 6: Calamari on a Plater

Midna: ...is not a word.

Yosie: A plater is sorta like a busboy, but works only with plates. If he touches plastic, he breaks out into a rash.

Mario, Kari, and Kirby were walking inside the cove for a while now.

Midna: But... where?

The walls were a dark blue and you could see the reflection of the water ripples on the them.

Yosie: The them. The them. ~The them, the them, the them, the-the-the theeeeeeeem, the-the-the them~

The weather was nice and cool and there were puddles everywhere.

Yosie: Weather in a cave. Of course.

Midna: One hell of a cave, then.

"So wherea is this portal's exact location?" Mario asked a little tired from walking.

Yosie: Says the platforming game hero.

Midna: Wherea is not word either.

"It's right in the middle of this place." Kari said.

Midna: Is it exactly in the middle of the place?

Yosie: Well that was amazingly unhelpful.

Suddenly six green things dropped from the ceiling. It looked like an anemone with red tentacles and eyes.

Midna: Are they six creatures or just one? Make up your mind!

Mario pulled out his DS and pointed it at the creature.

Name: Glunk

Game: Kirby 64

Yosie: Not just Kirby 64, dude.

Midna: Someone's never played more than Kirby 64. Ever.

Des. A yellow-green anemone with red tentacles and eyes.

Attacks: Shooting Spores

Midna: I'm not sure what Glunks shoot, but they aren't spores.

Weakness: Anywhere but the tentacles

Yosie: Anywhere but the face!

Mario tightened his cap as he sprung into action.

Midna: And proceeded to sit around and do nothing. Again.

Kirby immediately followed as he swallowed one of the Glunks. Nothing happened, Kirby didn't change into anything.

Yosie: Surprise.

Midna: Do you normally change into things when you eat something? That's probably not normal.

Soon after one of the anemones shot spores in Kirby's direction. Kirby flew up in the air and dodged the spores.

Midna: You know what every story needs? More dull descriptions of supposedly exciting actions.

Mario did a slide kick and kicked one of the Glunks into the air. He then punched it with an uppercut causing it to smash into the ceiling.

Midna: Well gee, I stand corrected. But for how long?

" We've got some more company." Kari said as some Jellyfish came towards them. She took out her DS and pointed it at these new creatures.

Name: Slushy

Game: Kirby 64

Des. A blue and white jellyfish

Attacks: Swings into you, shocks you

Yosie: Actually they just move back and forth, minding their own business.

Midna: And Kirby kills them because they're there. What a jerk.

Weakness: Water

Yosie: The jellyfish-like enemy is weak to water. And is, in fact, in its game, found mostly underwater. LOGIC.

Midna: It hurts for them to live!

Yosie: In which case, Kirby is granting a kindness by killing them.

The Slushy came close as Mario scooped up another Glunk and hurled it at another.

Midna: It's funny how someone who can't touch anything without getting hurt is suddenly able to hurl monsters at each other without breaking a sweat.

Suddenly four more Glunks fell from the ceiling as three more Slushy came floating towards them.

Yosie: The author apparently doesn't know Glunks don't move at all.

Midna: They do too move! ...Their tentacles!

One of the Slushies shot an electric blast at Kirby who rolled to the side. Kirby then swallowed the Slushy and turned into Thunder Kirby.

Yosie: "Superman will-" "WRONG!!" Kirby with electric powers is Spark Kirby. Maybe Plasma Kirby, depending on how flexible your definitions are. And Slushies are regular enemies; they don't grant a power.

Midna: I question your knowledge of video games, author of a video game story!

Thunder Kirby starting shocking everything in sight. Kari looked up and noticed more Glunks. She shot at them with her gun to reduce the large numbers while Mario scooped the ones on the ground up and chucked them at others.

Yosie: Are they trying to get revenge on Kirby for killing their kinds indiscriminately during his games, or...?

Midna: They don't need a reason to be evil. They just are.

After Kirby shocked the last Squishy he decided to keep the power. Kari took out her DS and looked at it. " In that next room is the portal.

Midna: "Yoda I suddenly talk like. Overpowered I am, and inconsistent in its abilities this DS is turning out to be."

Yosie: The other end of the portal's on the surface of the moon.

Everyone ready?" Kari asked as she put the DS back in her pocket. Mario nodded as Kirby jumped up and down.

Midna: The descriptive text in this story is so boring I'm running out of jokes. Why can't something incredibly stupid just happen already?

They walked a little further until they where in a large, circular room with a pool of water in the middle. It looked like a large ring floating over the water.

Yosie: And now Sonic for no reason.

The trio of heroes walked on the ring.

Yosie: Apparently the only way across the room.

Kari pointed to the other end of the room. " Look! That wall has the symbol DS on it. That must be the portal."

Yosie: Can I even begin to describe how ridiculously stupid it is for a picture of a DS to be carved on a cave wall in Dream Land?

Midna: They have cell phones. It's not that much of a stretch.

Mario jumped up and down alongside Kirby for joy. " Piece of the cake!" Mario said as he started to walk around the ring to the other side. Suddenly the whole place shook as the waves moved violently.

Midna: These waves have been rated PG for violence and some water.

" POYO! POYO!" Kirby said as his little feet began to shake.

Yosie: THE PIECE OF THE CAKE IS A LIE!!

Suddenly, two giant red tentacles burst from the center pool. " Oh no!" Mario said as he looked at the size of the tentacles. " Hmph!" Kirby said as he got into fighting position.

Midna: The first non-Poyo thing he's said all day and I can't even picture him saying it in his voice.

Suddenly six more tentacles burst from the surface along with an enormous octopus head. " It's huge!" Kari said as she took out her DS.

Yosie: Thanks for your report, Captain Obvious.

The monster made a loud screech of anger that burned Mario and Kari's ears.

Yosie: Ow.

Midna: They proceeded to hop around ridiculously, screaming "MY EARS ARE ON FIRE! MY EARS ARE ON FIRE!"

Name: Octogon

Game: Kirby: Right Back At Ya

Yosie: Oh you are kidding me.

Midna: That's not a... oh, why do I bother.

Des. Giant Red Octopus that used to breathe fire

Midna: And... why can't it still?

Attacks: Tentacles, Ink, Summons Slushy

Yosie: N... Not even close... Also, its name is "Octakon," not octagon.

Midna: CLOSE ENOUGH FOR THE AUTHOR!

Weakness: It's eyes but you'll have to take out it's tentacles

Yosie: Because reasons!

Midna: If you want the eyes you'll have to do take-out.

" This can't be a good!" Mario said as he stepped back from the beast. " We're gonna have to fight it.

You with me?" Kari said as she took out her gun. " Okee dokke!" Mario said as he used one of the Frog Suits he had.

Midna: Say it with me now... conveniently.

Yosie: Just how many powerups did he manage to stuff in his pockets when he woke up this morning?

Octogon swung one of it's tentacles at Mario but he hopped over it with ease. Kirby zapped one of Octogon's tentacles but it didn't seem affective.

Yosie: It's not very effective...

Midna: This author is writing "it's" almost literally every single time "its" would have sufficed. Something should be done about this, and I think I have an idea...

Octogon took another one of it's tentacles and slapped Kirby away.

Yosie: Hey batta batta, SWING batta batta!

Kari started shooting blasts at Octogon's tentacles when they got to close to her.

Midna: Let the tentacles close to you, Kari, they've been anxious to for hours now.

Octogon soon got real mad and sprayed Ink all over the place. Now it was pretty hard to see.

Yosie: The fic's already pretty hard to read as it is.

Midna: "Hey! Watch it, buddy!" said Ink.

Kirby, who wasn't damaged that badly flew back to his power that floated away.

Midna: *hi's

He sucked it in and became Thunder Kirby once more. He attempted to shoot another blast at Octogon's head but Octogon slapped it back at Kirby shocking the poor little puff and knocking him into the water.

Yosie: And suddenly Kirby was Ganondorf.

Midna: There are precisely no commas in that sentence. I am disappointed, author.

Octogon took this as an advantage. It scooped up the knocked out Kirby with one of it's tentacles. Octogon then squealed in pain as it felt the shot of one of Kari's lasers on one of it's tentacles. " Let Kirby go!" Kari yelled as she shot another blast. Octogon was irritated, it attempted to slap Kari away but Mario hopped onto the tentacle and quickly stomped on it.

Yosie: The author apparently doesn't know Mario pulls tentacles better than dentists pull teeth.

Midna: And now we're getting into run-on sentences. Just when you thought it couldn't get any worse...

Octogon tried to shake Mario off but it was no good. It then summoned a lot of Slushys to do it's bidding.

Yosie: That last part's sorta implied if you're summoning a swarm of minions. It's when the summonee's bigger than you that you have to specify control.

Midna: We'd better take what little non-bland description there is we can get.

Kari started shooting blasts at the Slushys.

Yosie: You fail grammar forever.

Midna: This is how plurals work, yes?

Mario hopped from one tentacle to another heading for the one holding Kirby. Kari decided it was time to bust out the V- Saber but was tripped by one of Octogon's tentacles.

Yosie: NO DEUS EX MACHINA FOR YOU!

Midna: Kari Sue finally gets to not do something? Odd.

When Mario finally landed on the tentacle holding Kirby he reached into his pocket and pulled out a Fire Flower. He then fed it to Kirby.

Midna: *hi's

Kirby soon woke up and had turned into Fire Kirby.

Yosie: One time! One time out of three, you get it right!

Mario dove off the tentacle and into the water as Kirby began burning the tentacle that held him. Octogon finally let go from pain. Kirby jumped out of the tentacle's grip and burned the other tentacles.

Yosie: ...Wait, I just noticed the fic changed tense. It's suddenly in past tense when it was in present before.

Midna: psst! no it didn't!

Kari was still fending off Slushys when Mario burst from the surface and hopped back onto land. He turned back into regular Mario

Yosie: Oh right, he was in the Frog Suit, in which case the question is "How the hell did he do all those jumps out of the water earlier?"

and watched as Kirby burned Octogon's eyes.

The beast was now blind and started swinging in every direction trying to squash the heroes. Finally the monster gave up and sank beneath the water never to pester travelers again.

Yosie: (Octogon) "Screw this, I'm getting outta this fic!"

Kirby panted as he spat out his fire ability then did a crazy dance to prove his victory.

Yosie: Looks more like he's doing his taunt animation.

Midna: Kirby's dance was then forced into a straitjacket and shipped off to the funny farm.

Yosie: Where life is beautiful all the time ~And I'll be happy to see those nice young men in their clean white coats / And they're coming to take me away, ah ha!~

" We did it!" Mario said giving Kari a high five.

Midna: Lo hicimos! We did it~!

Yosie: We found our first clue!

" There's no time to waste. Let's go to the next world." Kari said as she approached the wall with the DS.

Midna: Bonk. "Ow," sai'd Kari.

She opened her DS and the symbol on the wall began to glow.

Yosie: Maybe it's reacting to the light from the DS's screens?

Midna: Or it's just the light from the DS's screens. Even a magical wonder device of plot convenience can't do anything.

She drew a portal on her Pictochat as a portal appeared on the wall.

Yosie: Insert Scribblenauts reference here.

Midna: B-A-D-space-S-T-O-R-Y. Oh, look at that!

" Just three more to go." Kari said as she stepped through the portal. Mario jumped through as Kirby floated through.

Yosie: Because Kirby floats everywhere instead of jumps. Tru fat.

Midna: He had been binging on Mint Leaves earlier.

The portal then vanished leaving Squid Cove as empty as it was before.

Yosie: About as empty as this story's plot.

Midna: Emptier than Kari's characterization-- hahaha yeah right.

Yosie: OK, I don't remember if kirbykirbykirby.com, which was very show-leaning when the show was aired, had Octakon somewhere on it when this was written, but I know it did at some point. I think it was part of some quiz where you had to answer which copy power Kirby was using to beat it.

Midna: Wait a minute. I think get it. Remember how the author said Octakon is a "giant octopus that USED TO breathe fire"?

Yosie: Actually, it said "Octogon" was that, but go on.

Midna: They said it used to breathe fire, as if it didn't anymore. That's why Kirby became "Thunder" Kirby. I think he basically inserted "used to breathe fire" into "Octogon's" description once he learned after the fact that Octogon is supposed to be a fire monster.

Yosie: That would be giving the author a little more credit than I am currently willing to give, given the presence of "Thunder" Kirby in the first place. Seriously, only three games with copy abilities didn't label them! How the hell do you screw that up?!

Midna: I don't think he even played the games at all.

Yosie: Except maybe Kirby 64.

Midna: He could have just Googled "Kirby enemies" and chose the first one that looked interesting.

Yosie: Hold on a moment while I actually do that... OK, what are the odds the Kirby Wiki existed in 2006?

Midna: Was this story really written all the way back then?

Yosie: Even excluding those pages, the first is for the List of Kirby characters page on Wikipedia. Overall, my original hypothesis seems correct: this author's done no research whatsoever.

Midna: So what you're saying is that "Glunk" name drop was just him mashing keys on the board and getting very lucky.

Yosie: Pretty much. Aside from the "boss" and shadow-wolf, every enemy in Dream Land was from Kirby 64, and even THEN he got it wrong. And Kirby 64 has enemy info cards. This is a special kind of research failure.

Midna: That being the case, I can't wait to get into those Cowboy-Bebop-at-his-computerisms sure to await in the next chapter.

Yosie: Indeed. Allons-y!

Chapter 7 Things Are Just Just Peachy

Yosie: ~Just just peachy~

Midna: I wonder who will be important to this chapter. Wait! 7 looks like L upside down, there's an I in the title, and Peach starts with P...! Nah, nobody besides me cares about that game.

Yosie: WALUIGI CONFIRMED

Midna: But Waluigi Time is over.

Chapter 7: Things Are Just Peachy

Luigi placed his hand over the castle door knob. He slowly opened the door then looked around. "Hello? Is anybody there?" he said as he stepped into the palace.

Yosie: (Luigi) "Shoot, Bowser sealed everyone in the painting worlds again!"

Midna: I dunno, isn't it just a castle?

The door at the top of the steps opened as Peach stepped out and stood at the top of the stairs. "Is everything alright Luigi?" Peach asked with a look of concern.

Yosie: I've forgotten at this point, has anyone said "hello" or "hi" or performed any other sort of verbal greeting in this fic at all?

Midna: I don't think you understand, Yosie, how in love amateur authors are with dictionaries and thesauruses.

" Not exactly." Luigi said as he tried to think of the nicest way to tell her the news. " Mario left... Plit."

Yosie: (Luigi) "In other words, he's missing. I'm going to have to scour Earth for stolen landmarks and answer bland geography questions."

Midna: "What's a Plit?" asked Peach. "Unless... Has he been cheating on me with that angel kid?!"

Yosie: Hello, Lemmy's Land influence. Come on in. Would you like a drink? Preferably a Molotov cocktail?

Peach was shocked. " What! How... is that even possible?" Peach said as she started pulling on her glove.

Yosie: At least this has the excuse of being written before Mario Galaxy. At least, the first chapters.

Midna: Lady, you were in Smash Bros. WITH him. Of course it's possible.

" Some girl from another world needed Mario's help. Now he's on another planet as we speak." Luigi said as he approached Peach closely. " So.. he'll be gone for a while."

Yosie: (Luigi) "If-a you know what I mean~"

Midna: Oh, Luigi, you dog.

Peach said trying not to cry. She let one tear slide down the side of her cheek.

Midna: "Trying not to cry," said-- aw, you know.

" Please don't cry Peach. He's been through worse situations if you ask me."

Yosie: I don't read enough Mario fanfiction to know that, but given trends in fanfiction I've seen, he most certainly has.

Midna: The Princess Who Cried Peach

Luigi said trying to comfort her. " Yes, but now he's alone without any of us.

Yosie: ...Y'mean like in pretty much every one of his platform games before this fic was written?

Midna: "He has none of his friends behind him and he's alone. He is by himself, forced to wander the universe with no one to support him. He's "going it alone", as it were. He has no companions and no one from his home is there to provide moral and physical support."

Yosie: Are you done yet?

I'm so scared." Peach said trying to hold back tears.

Midna: OK, I'm calling bull. Peach gets kidnapped all the time, but it's not because she's a weak woman. It's because she's the most powerful person in the Mushroom Kingdom. She is literally the only thing standing between the Mushroom Kingdom and Bowser. Mario, for all the heroic things he does, only has the princess as his girlfriend. He's not a royal at all. If Bowser wanted to, he could just kick Mario out, dethrone Peach, and claim the kingdom for himself. And besides - need I remind you of SMB2, Paper Mario, TTYD, Super Paper Mario, 3D Land, and 3D World? Games in which the princess either actively participates in the action, helps Mario from wherever she's being held, or at the very least actively tries to escape from Bowser and his cohorts? She's stronger than this. I'm tempted to call this "Oh, Mario's off on another adventure he can probably handle, I'm so scared, boo-hoo" stuff character assassination.

Yosie: ...So, the depiction of Peach here is basically what moronic feminists use when bashing video games?

Midna: Those kinds of people would probably find something to complain about if Peach was the main character of any given video game. Even if it weren't Super Princess Peach.

Yosie: Which they did because her superpowers in said game were emotions, if I remember correctly. Even though that wasn't the case at all given she was the only one that could control her emotions.

Midna: Didn't you know showing any emotion at all is unacceptable for a woman?

Yosie: Tell that to the girl ruffers I know. I'm... pretty sure there's at least one.

" I'm sure he'll be fine.

Yosie: Oh right, we're riffing a fanfic. Talk about a tangent.

Midna: Fedora jokes incoming.

He's Super Mario after all." Luigi said.

Yosie: Last name Mario, first name Super.

" All he needs is our comfort and trust and he'll pull through this."

Yosie: Insert twin telepathy joke from Fullmetal Alchemist here.

" I hope your right.

Yosie: What about his right? Like, right to an attorney?

Midna: "...is not the same as your left."

I'm going to tell my father." Peach said as she left the room. Luigi bowed then left.

Yosie: Eats shoots and leaves.

Midna: If this is the same king who's consistently portrayed as a bumbling loon in comics and Lemmy's Land stories alike, I don't know why you're bothering with him to be honest.

DOWNLOAD COMPLETE

Yosie: AND SUDDENLY SCENE TRANSITION.

Midna: Geez, talk about whiplash

" Excellent. Now type in the code word and we'll have our villain Bowser."

Midna: But... he's right there.

Antagessis said as the Space Pirate typed in the code...

Yosie: With their big meaty claws. Seriously, how did they even build their spaceships?

Midna: They aren't just for attracting mates.

NIGHTMARE

Midna: Kirby Nightmare, or Metroid Nightmare? Be specific.

Yosie: This fic's a nightmare, I'll tell ya that much.

Once again the teleporter glowed as a figure wrapped in a large cloak with horns on the suit

Midna: Does its suit have horns, or does it have horns?

appeared. It's skin was blue and it had stars glowing around it.

Midna: Ah, there's my answer. Kirby Nightmare.

It's name was Nightmare, the true villain of Kirby.

Yosie: For... all of one game. And its remake. And the anime.

Midna: Kirby has no recurring villains anyway, except Dark Matter. I'm starting to think this guy watched about five or six episodes of the anime and declared his knowledge of the Kirby series complete.

Yosie: Which would be a right shame, 'cause that would mean he missed the Lololo and Lalala episode.

Nightmare stepped out and looked around.

Villain Member: Nightmare

Midna: ...should this have a BRAZZERS tag on it?

Game: Kirby

Des.: Wizard that first appeared in Kirby's Adventure. Master of stars

Midna: Master of nightmares, surely?

Yosie: No, see, he was actually responsible for the rise of Justin Bieber. If that didn't bring evil and despair to the universe, nothing will.

Attacks: Teleporting, Shooting Stars, Black Energy, Energy Blasts

Yosie: I'm not sure if he actually has those last two, but at this point, I'm impressed he got the name right.

Midna: It'll be typoed before the story's out, I'm sure.

Weakness: Star Rod

Yosie: Again, why are non-Four Heroes getting this information?

" At last! I am free from my long slumber. How long has it been?"

Midna: "Ten thousand years will give you such a crick in the neck."

Nightmare asked as he stretched his long, cloaked arms. " Years my friend. Years, and now is a time to rebel.

Yosie: With how often Kirby's Adventure gets remade and rereleased, it can't be that long.

Midna: "A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, a time to reap that which is planted."

Join us and we shall plot the ULTIMATE revenge." Antagessis stated.

Yosie: I'm pretty sure Ace Attorney Investigations 2 wasn't released by then, so I highly doubt that. ...Watch as no one gets that.

Midna: Tee-hee. I'm sorry, I still can't take that name seriously.

" Very well. I shall join your clan and seek my revenge on the pink filth!" Nightmare said

Yosie: This is going to be the most screwed-up "clan" I've ever seen.

Midna: If we're going to have that filth in here, we can at least make it pink. Might as well look nice.

as he glanced at Bowser.

" ... and who are you?" Nightmare said with a look of disgust on his face. " I suggest you watch who your talking to.

Yosie: (Nightmare) "What about my talking to?"

Midna: "Who, specifically, is my talking to?"

I'm Bowser, King of the Koopas." Bowser said clenching his fists. " More like King of the Klutzes." Nightmare said with a cold remark.

Yosie: And King of Everyone Speaking in the Same Paragraph.

Midna: *ICE BURN**

" Why you long chinned elder!" Bowser said

Yosie: What the hell kind of insult is that?

Midna: "Respecting people like you is for people who aren't Bowser!"

as he shot a fireball at Nightmare. Suddenly the fireball turned black then disappeared. Antagessis stood with the fireball in his hand, he extinguishes it. " That's enough you two. Three more have yet to arrive."

Midna: This entire thing is starting to seem more and more like a rip-off of that '90s Darkstalkers cartoon... and if you have to stoop to ripping off cheesy video game TV shows, you must be REALLY creatively bankrupt.

Yosie: I'm more concerned with how he plans to have a full team of six villains to go against four heroes. Then again, the heroes have a Sue on their side, so it's probably a reasonable precaution.

NEW VILLAIN CONNECTED

LOADING 1

Yosie: Connection must be too slow to get more than that at once.

Midna: LOADING 2, LOADING 3, LOADING 4, LOADING EVERYBODY WALK THE DINOSAUR

" See? They have already reached the next world." Antagessis said.

Midna: What did that loading have to do with anything then?

Yosie: It's possible that Antagonist doesn't actually know what villains he's going to need to oppose the heroes, so he's tracing Kari's DS signal to find out what worlds she's going to and thus who he needs to pull out for his team. Then again, it's this fic.

Midna: Right, that would be asking too much of the author.

Yosie: Precisely.

Yosie: Well, at least that was short.

Midna: But I bet just to punish us, one of the coming chapters will be the longest in the entire fic.

Yosie: I'm not tracking word count, so that's entirely possible.

Midna: (Please let me not be right. Please let me not be right. Please let me not be right.)

Yosie: At the current pattern, I suspect the next chapter will have the heroes arriving at the world of and almost immediately meeting the next hero of prophecy.

A rough guess, since at this point, I haven't preread the story. Shall we continue?

Midna: Let's!

Chapter 8 ARGH! Pirates Of The Skies

Yosie: ARGH!

Midna: Oh what-- Skes of Arcadia? That's not even Nintendo!

Chapter 8: ARGH! Pirates of the Skies

We view a forest- like planet.

Yosie: This is hurting me for reasons that haven't happened yet in-universe.

Midna: But... where are we?

Yosie: I dunno. Looks like... white fadey land.

It is raining hard as the portal spits out our heroes.

Yosie: A dark and stormy night?

Midna: A dark and stormy marriage.

Kari stands up and takes out her DS. " Apparently we are on planet Tallon IV and the hero is deeper in this forest."

Yosie: Hang on, I'mma google this...

Midna: I'm gonna Tallon you for writing this story.

Yosie: OK, Tallon IV is from Metroid Prime. So I'm pretty sure we can just skip the chapter now and not miss anything important.

Midna: Chapter summary: "Mario, Mary Sue, and Kirby meet Samus. Stuff happens. The end."

Mario got up and wiped the dirt off his clothes. He then shook the dust off his hat. " This place doesn't look as happy as Kirby's or mine for that matter. It's actually quite dark."

Yosie: And this is why I don't like writing too many stories with a human main cast.

Midna: He had lost his accent in the portal ride over.

Mario said as he observed the tall cliffs in the distance. Mario then saw a spaceship not too far away.

Yosie: Yes, repeating the proper name was completely necessary.

" Hey, let'sa go see if anybody lives in there?"

Midna: "Let's-a Go" Count: 6

Mario said pointed to the spaceship in the distance.

Midna: Aw, you know what he says by now.

"Alright, but keep an eye out for any monsters here. I don't think they'll be nearly as calm as the others." Kari said Yosie: What "others?" Are you talking about the Dreamlanders or what?

Midna: "Octagon" was hardly calm if that's what you're talking about.

as she jumped off the hill they were on and headed towards the ship. Mario and Kirby followed as it began to rain real hard.

Yosie: How could he see anything if the rain was so hard?

Midna: It was real bad.

When they almost reached the ship they heard a loud buzzing sound.

Yosie: BEES. OH GOD BEES.

Midna: Bees. My God.

Coming straight for them were five enormous hornet monsters.

Yosie: I find that expression redundant.

" Those bees are huge!"

Midna: Captain Obvious said.

Yosie: Thank you for your report.

Mario said as the monsters came zooming in on them at full speed. " Eeya!" Kirby screamed as Kari quickly took out her DS.

Yosie: Swarm of stinging insects: common cause of death among shutterbugs.

Name: War Wasp

Midna: Name: Abomination to All Things Good and Pure

Game: Metroid Prime

Des. Giant Alien bees that attack in large numbers

Yosie: Wait, these are from a movie?

Attacks: Sting, Bite

Midna: Attacks: Hatred

Weakness: Hive

Yosie: I've never played Metroid Prime, I have no idea how accurate this is.

Midna: It's misleading. If I'd never played it before, I'd have thought they each had their own hives attached to their backs or something.

Mario pointed at something hanging from the vines not too far away. " Look! That must be the wasp's hive."

Midna: "Mario? That's a monkey."

Kari quickly spotted the hive and shot at it. This sent seven more wasps after them.

Midna: "Or what, you'll send the monkeys after us? Or the bees? Or the monkeys with bees in their mouth and when they screech they shoot bees at you?"

" Maybe thata wasn't sucha good idea." Mario said starting to back away.

Yosie: Gee, ya think?

" Really?" Kari said sarcastically

Yosie: Hey, that's our line, sister!

as one of the wasps dove at Mario.

Kirby jumped right in front of Mario and sucked the wasp right into it's gullet.

Midna: Kirby is non-binary now?

He then turned into Needle Kirby.

Yosie: Two for four.

" Now that's the spirit." Mario said using a Fire Flower. " It's bug squashing time!" Mario said as he ran at the wasps shooting fireballs from his hands. Kirby shot a needle at two wasps then rolled out of one's stinger.

Yosie: A dodging roll? Someone's high on Smash Bros...

Midna: How did he roll out of the stinger? Stingers just sting. They don't grab. They'd grab if they didn't hate you.

Kari shot at any that came close to her avoiding the creature's stinger.

Yosie: So, she's coming close to avoiding the stingers, or...?

Midna: Kari was not too important to the events of this battle, so this is as much description as she's getting.

Mario madly jumped over any wasp that dove at him and pelted wasps with fireballs left and right.

Midna: His Fireball Rights were doing fine, but he was beginning to run out of Fireball Lefts.

Eventually one of the hornets caught Mario offguard and stung him in the back causing him to lose his power. Kirby then got stung after pelting one with a needle losing his powerup. Soon there were six wasps still ready to attack.

Yosie: I'm not sure whether I want there to be more or less description.

" This can't be good." Mario said backing away from the wasps. " We have no choice but to fight now." Kari stated as she readied her gun.

Yosie: How is what you were doing ten seconds ago not fighting?!

Midna: "We have no choice but to continue what we were doing."

She pointed it to one of the wasps who oddly blew up in guts. " Wow! Nicea shot!" Mario complemented. " I didn't even pull the trigger Mario." Kari said as she shook her head in confusion.

Yosie: "It wasn't me" cliché. (ding)

Midna: By the way, Samus.

Suddenly another wasp burst into guts.

Midna: Are we playing Doom all of a sudden?

Mario, Kari, and Kirby looked behind the four remaining wasps and noticed a figure in a spacesuit not far behind the wasps. It shot an energy ball and blew up another wasp.

Midna: Wasp.

Yosie: Did he just describe Chozo power armor as a "spacesuit?" I'm sure there are Metroid fans that will take umbrage with that.

Midna: I don't have to study the lore behind a game to write its characters well, what are you talking about?

" Who are you?" Kari asked. " T alk later!" the figure said as four more wasps came out from the hive and noticed the trouble.

Midna: he baby,"

Yosie: "I'll explain later" cliché. (ding)

Midna: And now they're in Ireland?

Yosie: Not even Artemis Fowl could salvage this fic.

" Let's go!"

Midna: "Let's-a Go" Count: 6.5

Mario said as he jumped over one of the wasps, grabbed onto it's wings, and swung it into the cliff as it bursted in guts.

Yosie: Can these wasps please die by not bursting into guts, please?

Midna: PHYSICS!

Kirby decided to take some rocks from the ground, swallow them, and shoot them at the wasps.

Yosie: But he didn't actually do it.

Kari continued shooting any wasps that came close since the V- Saber was only for close range battles.

Yosie: It's a lightsaber not being wielded by a Jedi. That goes without saying.

The figure in the jump suit

Midna: IT'S NOT A JUMPSUIT EITHER GEEZ.

soon shot a missile and blew the last wasp and hive up in one shot.

Yosie: Phonetic spelling. (ding) OK, hang on a moment, I need to get my Cinema Sins impersonation machine turned off.

" Wowsas! Youra awesome!" Mario said complementing the figure.

Midna: Insert your own sexual reference here.

" Why thank you little guy. Who are you guys?" the character said accepting the complement. "It's quite rare some good company arrives here."

Midna: The word she so obvious chose, "company"... ... <fifteen-hour pause>
...pierced their hearts.

Yosie: (sips the pink lemonade he picked up in the interim)

Mario stood up and held out his hand. " The name's Mario. Pleasure to meet you." The character shook his hand while Kari folded her arms. She didn't like the looks of this character since it dressed like her and also used a gun.

Midna: What do you get with a Chozo tech suit? Rendering little Miss Mary's point moot? Wouldn't you think that most horribly vile? Even without that "baby" bile? I don't like the look of it...~

Yosie: MSes generally don't react well to the news that they're not really original.

Kirby walked up to the character.

" Hi!" Kirby said with his innocent little face.

Midna: Kirby, Wirby, dirbity-dar. If you're innocent, you will go far. You will live on Tallon 4 too, like the War Wasp-Bore Wasps doompity-do!

Yosie: OK, were you suddenly possessed by Dr. Suess or something?

Midna: An Oompa-Loompa, actually.

Yosie: I'll schedule an exorcism after we're done here.

" Oh! Who's this little thing?" the character asked as it patted Kirby's head.

Yosie: (Samus) "It's not ugly as sin, so I'm going to assume it's not something I should shoot."

Midna: But she tried that with the Furby thing on the BOTTLE SHIP, and look where that got her.

" That's Kirby. He doesn't talk that much." Mario said.

Yosie: Neither should you.

".. and this is Kari." Mario said as Kari nodded. She was a little jealous of this one.

Yosie: Didn't we already establish that?

Midna: She felt envious of Samus for having a similar appearance to herself and she didn't want Samus to steal her thunder. She didn't like the thought of having a superior character usurp her role in this story and she would have none of it.

Yosie: I'mma stop you right there this time before you take up another half-page.

" So what'sa your name?" Mario asked.

Midna: "What's-a your quest? What's-a the air-speed velocity of an unlaiden swallow?"

Yosie: (Samus) "What do you mean? Zeebian or SR388ian?"

Midna: "I... don't-a know. boing! AAARRRRRGGGGHHHHHH..."

" I'm Samus. I'm a bounty hunter that's been exploring the galaxy all my life." Samus said.

Midna: "Even before I had left the womb and became... a baby..."

" Tell you what. You guys come on over to my ship and we'll talk more there."

Midna: cough Samus does not talk like this. hack

Yosie: (Samus) "Any objections?"

Midna: Kari gave a thumbs-down.

Samus said as she pointed at the ship Mario was going to observe before.

Yosie: Well that's right convenient.

" Let'sa go." Mario said as they followed Samus toward the ship.

Midna: "Let's-a Go" Count: 7.5

Yosie: I like integers, so I'm hoping there's another half "Let's-a go" somewhere in here.

Midna: I'm sure the author will mess up somewhere.

Yosie: And that's it for these four chapters.

Midna: Thank goodness. I've needed that breather.

Yosie: So, in this part, our dumb main villain is revealed, the battles are only slightly less stupid than the one where Mario stood by and did nothing, and we forgot the other recurring villain in the Kirby series is King Dedede.

Midna: We also learned that the author absolutely cannot come up with a decent-sounding villain name.

Yosie: I came up with Black Hazard and Valspar. And the latter came from a paint brand. Some people need to try harder. A lot harder.

Midna: Even Flittolatz is a better sounding name, and I came up with that on the spot.

Yosie: So, Mario, Kirby, and Samus... Who do you think the fourth hero's gonna be?

Midna: That guy... you know... with a green hat... doesn't talk much... starts with an L... Luigi?

Yosie: Personally, if it's not Link, I am going to be very disappointed with this author. Moreso than I already am.

Midna: I'll only be disappointed if he doesn't speak like the douchey Jerry Lewis Link from the cartoon series.

Yosie: Well if any of those characters are the fourth hero, panel, we'll ask you about it on Wait Wait, Don't Tell Me.

Midna: Well excuuuuuuuse me, Yosie.

Yosie: Next time on Nintendo Realms, who the hell knows at this point? See you all next time!

Midna: (...Doompity-doo.)

Yosie: ...Yeah, I'm calling an exorcist.
