

Hey Kevin,

I noticed you've been trying to attract greater enrollments for your shadowing-experience.

I've got experience doing just that, taking a client from a 12% conversion rate to a 44.8% in a matter of weeks.

As such, I wanted to give you something that could seriously ramp up your offer's enrollments

However, what I give you depends on your answer to this question:

What is your biggest challenge when it comes to promoting your high-ticket offers (or wealth-creation courses) and getting people to join?

Whatever the obstacle may be, I've faced it before, and I'll craft a solution just for you, which can be instantly put in place to generate greater enrollments to your unique shadow-day offer.

Does this sound like something you'd be interested in?

Best,

Sebastian

(P.S If this offer doesn't, let me know and I won't follow up with you.)

Hey James,

I see you're trying to get more enrollments to your crypto investment course?

I've got some experience doing just that, and I wanted to give you something to ramp up your course's weekly enrollments.

However, what I give you depends on your answer to this question:

What is your biggest challenge when it comes to promoting your investment course and getting people to sign up?

Whatever the obstacle may be, I'll craft a solution just for you, which can be instantly put in place to ramp up your course's enrollments.

Hey Tristan,

I see you're trying to increase enrollments for your trading mentorship program?

I've got some experience building highly-converting sign up pages, and I wanted to give you something to ramp up your monthly enrollments.

However, what I give you depends on your answer to this question:

What is your biggest challenge when it comes to promoting your trading mentorship program and getting people to buy?

Whatever it may be, I've faced it before, and I'll put together a solution just for you, which can be instantly put in place to solve it.

Does this sound like something you'd be interested in?

Best,

Sebastian
