About personnel:

Captain Jax was an ex-military commander known for his exceptional tactical capabilities on the battlefield. His strategic skills led his team to lots of victories earning him a good reputation among everyone. His most impressive win came during the Iraq War also known as the Second Persian Gulf War where his strategies played a big role in winning the war.

Recognizing his talent the Foundation saw an opportunity to enlist Captain Jax into their ranks believing his expertise would significantly improve their capabilities. His integration into the Foundation marked a new era of tactical excellence and strategic innovation.

During his nine years with the Foundation Captain Jax's impact was extraordinary. In 2020 he ascended to the rank of Captain proving his leadership and combat skills. Under his command the combative capabilities of the entire department saw remarkable improvements. He led numerous training programs collaborating extensively with other departments and Mobile Task Forces (MTFs) to ensure a highly skilled fighting force.

Captain Jax's contributions went beyond combat training. He introduced advanced tactical simulations and implemented extremely high standards. His efforts not only enhanced individual skills but also made a unified and brilliant department. handling the most challenging and dangerous missions the Foundation faced.

Throughout his time on site-65 Captain Jax's leadership style was characterized by a blend of discipline, innovation, and unwavering commitment to excellence. He earned the respect and admiration of his peers and subordinates leaving a mark on the Foundation's combative strategy and operational success.

His skills were also recognized by Alpha-1 and he was recruited to join a secret group called ██████████ which took him to floor 3 and made him join. He also had lots of experiences including getting interviewed by ethics where he did not admit to anything even after the constant torture.

He died when fighting against CI he killed 2 of them and ordered them to push in to kill the last one but then he got shot in the back of the head by a cadet who had no control over his gun killing him before any medical personnel could save him.
